Sustainability

ESG Impact Rating – A Testament to Sustainable Growth

ICRA

ESG Impact Rating

81

Outstanding

Environment Impact (Score 78 – Good)

NACL's resource-light financial services model results in a low direct environmental footprint, with modest energy consumption and low Scope 1 and Scope 2 emissions.

Its environmental performance is supported by green-certified facilities, resource-efficient infrastructure and digitalisation, which has helped conserve ~11 crore sheets of paper.

A dedicated Environment & Climate Change Policy and ESMS framework further strengthen environmental risk management, reinforcing NACL's commitment to responsible and sustainable growth.

Social Impact (Score 87 – Outstanding)

NACL's social impact is driven by its financial inclusion-led business model, expanding access to credit for underserved households and enterprises. Through 432 branches, 57 digital partners and 368 Originator Partners, the Company has facilitated over INR 2.5 lakh Crore in financing, impacting 140 million lives across 680 districts.

Multilingual grievance redressal mechanisms further support accessibility, customer protection and responsible engagement across its diverse customer base.

NACL's social profile is strengthened by employee welfare, customer protection, human rights frameworks and diverse CSR initiatives.

Governance practices (Score 80 – Outstanding)

NACL's strong governance is reflected in ~95% Board attendance and a dedicated Board-level ESG Committee, providing oversight of ESG strategy, risk management, impact measurement and sustainable finance initiatives.

Robust risk and compliance frameworks, supported by ESMS, proprietary technology and automated monitoring systems, strengthen lending decisions, regulatory compliance and transaction oversight.

NACL's governance framework is strengthened by the participation of reputed development finance institutions and impact investors, reinforcing its focus on responsible finance, developmental impact and robust ESG practices.
