OFFER DOCUMENT SUMMARY

The following is a general summary of the terms of the Offer. This summary should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, the more detailed information appearing elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, including “Risk Factors”, “Objects of the Offer”, “Our Business”, “Industry Overview”, “Financial Information” “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments”, “Main Provisions of Articles of Association” and “Offer Procedure” beginning on pages 29, 94, 138, 118, 186, 251, 309 and 283, respectively.

Primary business of our Company

We are a fast-growing multi-product, multi-category consumer adhesives and sealants company. We manufacture a wide range of consumer adhesives and sealants products such as PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement, synthetic rubber adhesive, PVA adhesives, silicone sealant, acrylic sealant, gasket shellac, other sealants and PVC pipe lubricant which are sold across India, through an extensive distribution network of distributors, and exported also to several countries, through network of distributors and direct customers. We also manufacture these products for select third-parties on order basis. Apart from the above products, we also provide ancillary products like ball valves, thread seal and other tapes and FRP products for drainage and architectural solutions that are distributed along with our products to the end- customers through our distribution network.

Industry in which our Company operates

The domestic adhesives and sealants market is broadly categorised into 1) industrial and 2) consumer and bazaar adhesives. The industrial segment caters to B2B industries such as packaging, footwear, paints, automotive, etc. The retail segment caters to industries such as furniture/woodwork, building construction, arts and craft, electrical fittings, etc. PVC adhesives, also known as PVC solvent cement are adhesives, which are used for joining PVC pipes. The process is similar to welding, since it melts two pieces of PVC pipes into a single piece. A PVC adhesive consists of PVC resin, a solvent, and methyl ethyl ketone – which breaks the top layer of the pipes and fittings to be joined together. The single largest application of PVC adhesives is in the PVC pipes industry, where it is widely used to join pipes.

SECTION II – RISK FACTORS

An investment in equity shares involves a high degree of risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider all the information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in the Equity Shares. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones relevant to us or our Equity Shares, the industry in which we operate or to India. Additional risks and uncertainties, not currently known to us or that we currently do not deem material may also adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are not currently deemed material, actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected, the price of our Equity Shares could decline, and investors may lose all or part of their investment. To the extent the COVID-19 pandemic adversely affects our business and financial results, it may also have the effect of heightening many of the other risks described in this section. In order to obtain a complete understanding of our Company and our business, prospective investors should read this section in conjunction with “Our Business”, “Industry Overview”, “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on pages 138, 118, 149 and 186, respectively, of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, as well as the other financial and statistical and other information contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and our business and the terms of the Offer including the merits and risks involved.

Prospective investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences of investing in the Offer. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are unable to quantify the financial or other impact of any of the risks described in this section. Prospective investors should pay particular attention to the fact that our Company is incorporated under the laws of India and is subject to a legal and regulatory environment, which may differ in certain respects from that of other countries.

This Draft Red Herring Prospectus also contains certain forward-looking statements that involve risks, assumptions, estimates and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. For further information, see “Forward-Looking Statements” on page 20 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Our Company, Promoters and Directors are currently involved in certain legal proceedings in India which are pending at different levels of adjudication before the concerned authority/ forum, details whereof are as follows:

Sr. No.	Outstanding Litigations	No. of Outstanding Matters	Financial implications to the extent quantifiable (Rs. in Lakhs)*

* To the extent quantifiable, excluding interest and penalty thereon.

We cannot assure you that these proceedings will be decided in favour of our Company, Promoters or Directors, as the case may be. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may render us liable to penalties and may have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business and financial condition. Additionally, during the course of our business we are subject to risk of litigation in relation to contractual obligations, employment and labour law related, personal injury and property damage, etc.

For further information, please see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” beginning on page 251 of this DRHP.

2. Our proposed capacity expansion plans relating to our manufacturing facility are subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation and cost overruns.

We have made and intend to continue making investments to expand the capacity of our manufacturing facility to aid our growth efforts and expand our presence. We intend to use a part of the Net Proceeds towards expansion of our manufacturing facility at Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra. For further information, see “Our Business – Proposed Expansion Plans” and “Objects of the Offer” on pages 138 and 94.

Our expansion plans remain subject to the potential problems and uncertainties including cost overruns or delays. Problems that could adversely affect our expansion plans include labour shortages, increased costs of equipment or manpower, inadequate performance of the equipment and machinery installed in our manufacturing facility, delays in completion, defects in design or construction, the possibility of unanticipated future regulatory restrictions, delays in receiving governmental, statutory and other regulatory approvals, incremental pre- operating expenses, taxes and duties, interest and finance charges, working capital margin and other external factors which may not be within the control of our management. There can be no assurance that the proposed capacity additions and expansions will be completed as planned or on schedule, and if they are not completed in a timely manner, or at all, our budgeted costs may be insufficient to meet our proposed capital expenditure requirements. If our actual capital expenditures significantly exceed our budgets, or even if our budgets were sufficient to cover these projects, we may not be able to achieve the intended economic benefits of these projects, which in turn may materially and adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects. There can be no assurance that we will be able to complete the aforementioned expansion and additions in accordance with the proposed schedule of implementation and any delay could have an adverse impact on our growth, prospects, cash flows and financial condition.

The proposed expansion by setting up an additional unit will require us to obtain various approvals, which are routine in nature. In addition to such pending approvals, we may also need to apply for certain additional approvals required for the proposed expansion. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain these registrations and approvals in a timely manner or at all. Further, in the event of any unanticipated delay in receipt of such approvals, the proposed schedule implementation and deployment of the Net Proceeds may be extended or may vary accordingly.

3. The continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business and operations is uncertain and it may be significant and continue to have an adverse effect on our business, operations and our future financial performance.

The World Health Organization declared the novel coronavirus disease (“COVID-19”) outbreak a Public Health Emergency of International Concern on January 30, 2020, and a pandemic on March 11, 2020. The rapid and diffused spread of COVID-19 and global health concerns relating to this pandemic have had a severe negative impact on, among other things, financial markets, liquidity, economic conditions and trade and could continue to do so or could worsen for an unknown period of time, that could in turn have a material adverse impact on our business, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition, including liquidity and growth. The extent to which the COVID-19 outbreak impacts our business, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition will depend on future developments, including the timeliness and effectiveness of actions taken or not taken to contain and mitigate the effects of COVID-19 both in India and internationally, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted. There is currently substantial medical uncertainty regarding COVID-19. A rapid increase in severe cases and deaths where measures taken by governments fail or are lifted prematurely, may cause unprecedented economic disruption in India and in the rest of the world. The scope, duration and frequency of such measures and the adverse effects of COVID-19 remain uncertain and are likely to be severe.

On March 14, 2020, India declared COVID-19 as a “notified disaster” and imposed a nationwide lockdown on March 24, 2020. While progressive relaxations have since been granted for movement of goods and people and cautious re- opening of businesses and offices, lockdowns may be re- introduced in the future. On account of the nationwide lockdown, operations at our manufacturing facility were suspended. This resulted in a decrease in sale of our products particularly during the month of April 2020 on account of government restrictions imposed and additionally on account of cost control measures implemented by our distributors and end-customers. We also experienced disruptions in supply chain and inventory management, as well as delays in orders and payments. In particular, some of our purchase orders were cancelled and/ or deferred by our distributors. While we restarted manufacturing operations at our manufacturing facility with the progressive relaxation of the lockdown in May 2020, we are required to implement additional safety measures, such as, regular temperature checks, regular sanitization, and compulsory use of masks and hand sanitization, and limited workforce. We have monitored and considered the impact of known events arising from the COVID-19 pandemic including with respect to our liquidity and going concern, recoverable values of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and the net realisable value of other assets. The management has assessed and concluded that there is no additional impact on account of COVID-19 which is required to be recognised in the Restated Financial Statements. However, we will continue to closely monitor the impact that COVID-19 may have on our business, financial condition, liquidity and results of operations. Adverse effects of the COVID-19 pandemic may also significantly increase the effect of the aforementioned factors affecting our results of operations.

The impact of the pandemic on our business, operations and future financial performance has included and may include the following:

- temporary shutdown of our manufacturing facilities or sales depots due to government restrictions;
- decrease in sales of our products, particularly in the first half of Fiscal 2021 including on account of cost control measures implemented by our distributors and/ or end-customers;
- inability to utilize our workforce including because of travel or government restrictions, such as stay at home orders, or illness of our employees due to COVID-19 and associated quarantining requirements, which resulted in a slowdown in our operations;
- disruptions to our supply chain in terms of raw material sourcing due to temporary closure of the facilities of suppliers, and delivery of finished products due to transportation restrictions;
- delays or indefinite postponement in the future of our proposed expansion plans/ product development activities;
- delays in orders or delivery of orders, and if prolonged may negatively impact our cash conversion cycle and ability to convert our backlog into cash;
- inability to collect full or partial payments from distributors due to deterioration in liquidity, including financial distress experienced by distributors;
- inability in the future to access debt and equity capital on acceptable terms, or at all;
- inability in the future to comply with the covenants in our credit facilities and other financing agreements, which could result in events of default and the acceleration of repayment; and
- potential negative impact on the health of our employees, particularly if a significant number of them are afflicted by COVID-19, resulting in a deterioration in our ability to ensure business continuity during this disruption.

Any resulting financial impact due to the above cannot be reasonably estimated at this time. In addition, we cannot predict the impact that the COVID-19 pandemic will have on our distributors, suppliers and other business partners, and each of their financial conditions; however, any material effect on these parties could adversely impact us. As a result of these uncertainties, the impact may vary significantly from that estimated by our management from time to time, and any action to contain or mitigate such impact, whether government- mandated or opted by us, may not have the anticipated effect or may fail to achieve its intended purpose altogether. Existing insurance coverage may not provide protection or coverage for any costs that may arise from all such possible events. For further information, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis on the Financial Conditions and Results of Operations - Auditor’s Observations” on page 239 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Further, we generate a major part of our revenue in India. The effects of COVID-19 in India may be of a greater magnitude, scope and duration than those experienced to date in other countries. To the extent that the COVID-19 pandemic adversely affects our business and operations, it may also have the effect of heightening many of the other risks described in this “Risk Factors” section.

4. Our ability to grow our business depends on our relationships with our distributors and the community of appliers and any adverse changes in these relationships, or our inability to enter into new relationships and thereby expand our distribution network, could negatively affect our business and results of operations.

Our business is dependent on the decisions and actions of our distributors which is determined by our ability to maintain and strengthen our relationships and arrangements with existing distributors as well as our ability to establish and maintain relationships with new distributors. In addition, as distributors and end-customers are also influenced by appliers, our business is also dependent on the relationships we share with the community of appliers. Our relationship with our distributors and appliers is dependent to a large extent on our ability to regularly meet their requirements, including by introducing products with greater marketability, price competitiveness, efficient and timely product deliveries, and consistent product quality. In the event we are unable to meet such requirements in the future, it may result in decrease in orders or cessation of business from affected distributors and appliers. In addition, failure to provide distributors with sufficient inventories of our products may result in lesser sales of our products compared to the demand. There are also a number of factors relating to our distributors and appliers beyond our control that might result in the termination of our arrangement or the loss of a distributor or applier relationship, including change in preferences of our distributors or appliers as well as a demand for price reductions. Further, the deterioration of the financial condition or business prospects of these distributors could affect their ability to maintain inventory and thus reduce demand for our products and could result in a significant decline in the revenues we derive from such distributors. Adverse changes in our relationships with our distributors and appliers, or the inability to develop new products for existing distributors or appliers or to successfully establish relationships with new distributors or appliers, could therefore limit our business prospects, which could adversely affect our financial performance. Please also see Risk Factor No. 19 – “We are in the process of expanding our operations and establishing a network of distributor in regions where we do not have a significant presence and prior experience. Any failure to expand into these new regions could adversely affect our sales, financial condition, result of operations, and cash flows.” on page 43 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We may also face disruptions in the delivery of our products for various reasons beyond our control, including poor freight forwarding of our products, transportation bottlenecks, natural disasters, infectious disease outbreaks such as the COVID-19 pandemic and labour issues, which could lead to deliveries being delayed or lost, resulting in insufficient inventories at distributor outlets. If we fail to deliver products to distributors in a timely manner, or if our distributors fail to adhere to the terms of our arrangements, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected.

5. We do not enter into long-term arrangements with our distributors and any failure to continue our existing arrangements could negatively affect our business and results of operations.

We sell all our products through our distributor network. We presently do not have any long-term or exclusive arrangements with any of our distributor and we cannot assure you that we will be able to sell the quantities we have historically supplied to such distributors. In the event our competitors' products offer better margins to such distributors or otherwise incentivizes them, there can be no assurance that our distributors will continue to promote our products or place orders with us. Most of our transactions with our distributors are typically on a purchase order basis without any commitment for a fixed volume of business. There can also be no assurance that our distributors will renew their arrangements with us on current or similar terms, or at all. Further, our distributors could change their business practices or seek to modify the terms that we have customarily followed with them, including in relation to their payment terms. While we negotiate product prices and payment terms with our distributors, in the event our distributors alter their requirements, it could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. In addition, our distributors may also cancel purchase orders at short notice or without notice, which could have an impact on our inventory management. Termination of any of the above mentioned arrangements or frequent cancellation of purchase orders could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

Further, in the event our distributors experience any delays in placing orders with us, do not effectively market our products, or if they prefer to market the products of our competitors, it could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Our inability to maintain our existing distribution network could have a material adverse effect on our sales, business growth and prospects, results of operation, financial condition and cash flows. Further, the performance of our distributors, their sales network and their ability to expand their businesses are crucial to the future growth of our business and directly affect our sales volume and profitability. If any of the distributors fails to distribute our products in a timely manner, or at all, or if our relationships with distributors are adversely affected, our profitability could be materially and adversely affected.

6. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities and an inability to effectively utilize our expanded manufacturing capacities could have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects and future financial performance.

As of March 31, 2021, we own and operate one manufacturing facility in Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra with an aggregate estimated installed production capacity of 6,098.82 KLPA for solvent cement, 2,491.20 MTPA for other adhesives and 783,36 MTPA for sealants. Our ability to maintain our profitability depends on our ability to optimize the product mix to support high-margin products and products with consistent long-term demand; and the demand and supply balance of our products in the principal and target markets. In particular, the level of our capacity utilization can impact our operating results. Capacity utilization is also affected by our product mix and the demand and supply balance.

Our capacity utilization levels are dependent on our ability to carry out uninterrupted operations at manufacturing facility, the availability of raw materials, industry/ market conditions, as well as by the product requirements of, and procurement practice followed by, our distributors. In the event we face prolonged disruptions at our facilities including due to interruptions in the supply of water, electricity or as a result of labour unrest, or are unable to procure sufficient raw materials, we would not be able to achieve full capacity utilization of our current manufacturing facility, resulting in operational inefficiencies which could have a material adverse effect on our business and financial condition. Further, we have made certain investments for the expansion of our manufacturing capacity in the past and intend to use a part of the Net Proceeds towards expansion of our manufacturing facility located in Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra. Our proposed expansion plans are based on demand forecasts that are subject to various assumptions including product trends in the industry, inventory management at distributor outlets, weather conditions and seasonality in the industry, and end-customer spending preferences, that are based on prevailing economic conditions. Adequate utilization of our expanded capacities is therefore subject to various factors beyond our control and in case of oversupply in the industry or lack of demand, we may not be able to utilise our expanded capacities efficiently. The success of any capacity expansion and expected return on investment on capital invested is subject to, among other factors, the ability to procure requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner; recruit and ensure satisfactory performance of personnel to further grow our business; and the ability to absorb additional infrastructure costs and develop new expertise and utilize the expanded capacities as anticipated. Please also see Risk Factor No. 13 “Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control” and Risk Factor No. 2 “Our proposed capacity expansion plans relating to our manufacturing facilities are subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation and cost overruns” on pages 39 and 31, respectively, of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

In Fiscals 2020 and 2021, our overall capacity utilization for solvent cement was 60% and 51%, respectively, for other adhesives was 22.51 % and 34.30%, respectively and for sealants was 39.14% and 52.92%, respectively. For further information, see “Our Business - Capacity and Capacity Utilization” on page 138 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These rates are not indicative of future capacity utilization rates, which is dependent on various factors, including demand for our products, availability of raw materials, our ability to manage our inventory and improve operational efficiency. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short-term, could materially and adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance.

7. Our Company has incurred losses in the past.

Our Company has incurred a loss of Rs. 472.85 Lakhs in the Financial Year 2019-20. During the said Financial Year, our Company had incurred an aggregate loss of INR 743.71 Lakhs due to exceptional item of settling tax claims/ disputes under the Sabka Vishwas (Legacy Dispute Resolution) Scheme, 2019 and Maha VAT Amnesty Scheme. There can be no assurance that our Company will not incur losses in the future or that there will not be an adverse effect on our Company’s reputation or business as a result of such losses.

For further details please refer chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on page 186 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

8. We are required to obtain, renew or maintain certain statutory and regulatory permits and approvals required to operate our business and if we fail to do so in a timely manner or at all and our business, financial conditions, results of operations, and cash flows may be adversely affected.

Our operations are subject to government and statutory regulations and we are required to obtain and maintain several permits, consents and regulations and approvals under central, state and local government rules for operating our business generally for our manufacturing facility and depots. While we believe that we have obtained the necessary and material approvals, licenses, registrations and permits from the relevant authorities, there could be instances where we may not have applied, obtained or applied with a delay for certain requisite approvals applicable to us. Further, we may have breached certain limits as permitted in the approvals, licenses, registrations or permits previously obtained. While we usually stay within the limits, we cannot assure you that no action will be taken against us for such breach. Penalties may be levied against our Company for the breach of limits which may adversely affect the financial position of our Company. We also need to apply for renewal, from time to time, of some of such approvals, licenses, registrations and permits, which expire or seek fresh approvals, as and when required, in the ordinary course of our business. While we generally apply for the renewal of approvals in a timely manner, we cannot assure that such approvals will be issued or granted to us in a timely manner, or at all. If we do not receive such approvals or are not able to renew the approvals in a timely manner, our business and operations may be adversely affected. Further, there may also be delay in applying for renewal or receiving the grant of such approval due to COVID-19 pandemic.

There can be no assurance that the relevant authority will issue an approval or renew expired approvals within the applicable time period or at all. Any delay in receipt or non-receipt of such approvals, licenses, registrations and permits could adversely affect our related operations. Further, under such circumstances, the relevant authorities may initiate penal action against us, restrain our operations, impose fines/ penalties or initiate legal proceedings for our inability to renew/obtain approvals in a timely manner or at all.

The approvals required by us are also subject to numerous conditions including, among others, quantum of raw materials to be used, fire and safety measures, etc. Further, in some cases, consent of relevant authorities is required in case there is any modification/ alteration/ change in product mix. The conditions and the obligation to renew the approval or license at regular intervals are also prescribed in such approvals and licenses. We cannot assure you that the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits issued to us will not be suspended or cancelled or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. We have not, in the past, taken consents and registration as required under the applicable environmental laws and Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970. We cannot assure you that non-compliances will not occur in the future or that we may not be subject to any penalties in relation to such non-compliances which may affect our profitability, business, financial condition and results of operations. If there is any failure by us to comply with the applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business are amended, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer a disruption in our operations, any of which could adversely affect our business, financial conditions, results of operations, and cash flows.

9. A significant portion of our domestic sales are derived from the western zone and any adverse developments in this market could adversely affect our business.

Set forth below is certain information on our geography-wise domestic revenue from operations for the periods indicated:

Zone	Break-up of total domestic revenue from operations (%)
	Fiscal 2021	Fiscal 2020
West	47.03%	49.87%
South	24.13%	24.32%
North	22.01%	20.07%
East	6.83%	5.74%
Total	100.00%	100.00%

The revenue considered for the above information is before Sales Returns and Turnover Discount.*

We have historically derived a significant portion of our revenue from sales in the western zone. In Fiscal 2021 the revenue generated from sales in western zone represented 47.03% of our revenue from domestic sales. Accordingly, any materially adverse social, political or economic development, natural calamities, civil disruptions, regulatory developments or changes in the policies of the state or local government in this region could adversely affect our manufacturing and distribution activities, result in modification of our business strategy or require us to incur significant capital expenditure, which will in turn have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. Further, our sales from this region may decline as a result of increased competition, regulatory action, pricing pressures, fluctuations in the demand for or supply of our products or services, or the outbreak of an infectious disease such as COVID-19. Our failure to effectively react to these situations or to successfully introduce new products or services in these markets could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. The occurrence of, or our inability to effectively respond to, any such events or effectively manage the competition in the region, could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future business prospects.

10. We may not be able to identify or effectively respond to evolving preferences, expectations or trends in a timely manner, and a failure to derive the desired benefits from our product development efforts may impact our competitiveness and profitability.

The success of our business depends in part on our ability to anticipate, identify and respond promptly to evolving trends in demographics and preferences, customer expectations, needs and demands, and develop new/ products to meet these requirements. Our success is dependent on our ability to identify and respond to the economic, social, and other trends that affect demographic and end- customer preferences in a variety of our adhesives categories.

We cannot assure you that our future product development initiatives will be successful or be completed within the anticipated period or budget, or that our newly developed or improvised products will achieve wide market acceptance from our distributors. Even if these products have been successfully developed, there is no guarantee that they will be accepted by our distributors and achieve anticipated sales targets in a profitable manner, which may affect our ability to grow our network of distributors and gain market share. In addition, there can be no guarantee that the time and effort that we spend in developing these products would be beneficial to our Company. This could also adversely affect our ability to pursue our growth strategy of continuing to develop niche and products to grow our market share. Further, we cannot assure you that our existing or potential competitors will not develop products that are similar or superior to our products. It is often difficult to estimate the time to market new products and there is a substantial risk that we may have to abandon a potential product that is no longer commercially viable, even after we have invested significant resources in the development of such product. If we fail in our product launching efforts, our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows may be materially and adversely affected. Further, we have collaborated with third parties in the past to support some of our processes which relations have ended recently. The termination of such relationships may affect the acceptance of our products which may adversely affect our business operations, revenues and cash flows.

Further, as we continue to grow our business by expanding our products, brand offerings and our geographic reach, maintaining quality and consistency may be more difficult and there can be no assurance that the distributors' confidence in our brand will not diminish. Failure or any delay on our part to identify such trends, to align our business successfully and maintain quality could negatively affect our brand image, our relationship with our distributors, the rate of growth of our business, our market share and our prospects.

11. Inability to protect, strengthen and enhance our existing brand could adversely affect our business prospects and financial performance.

Our business reputation and the brands under which we sell products are critical to the success of our business. While we have been making consistent efforts to strengthen the brands, various factors, some of which are beyond our control, are critical for maintaining and enhancing our brand, and if not managed properly, may negatively affect our brand and reputation. These include our ability to effectively manage the quality of our products; increase brand awareness among existing and potential dealers and end-customers; adapt our advertising and promotion efforts to emerging industry standards; and protect the intellectual property related to our brand. Please also see Risk Factor No. 20 “We may not be able to adequately protect or continue to use our intellectual property. In addition, the use of our brands or similar trade names by third parties could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.” on page 43.

Our success in marketing our existing and new products depends on our ability to adapt to a rapidly changing marketing and media environment, including our increasing reliance on direct promotional initiatives. There can be no assurance that our marketing efforts will be successful in maintaining our brand and its perception with distributors and/ or result in increased sales in the future. Also, we may not necessarily increase or maintain our sales promotion spends in proportion to our growth in the future, which may result in limited marketing initiatives. Our inability to adapt to evolving marketing trends at the same pace as our competitors may adversely affect our ability to effectively compete in terms of our brand equity.

Our brands could also be negatively impacted if we fail to maintain our established standards of service, or if our products fail to meet the expectation of our distributors and applicers that distribute and use our products. Any allegations of deterioration in product quality even when false or unfounded, could tarnish the image of our brands and may cause our distributors, applicers and end-customers to choose other competing products. Any negative publicity regarding us, our brands, our products or the adhesives industry generally could adversely affect our reputation and our results of operations. In addition, counterfeit products, product defects, and ineffective promotional activities are all potential threats to the image and potency of our brand. Our failure to develop, maintain and enhance our brand may result in decreased revenue and loss of customers, and in turn adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

12. We engage in a highly competitive business and any failure to effectively compete could have a material adverse effect on us.

The Indian consumer adhesives market is primarily dominated by Pidilite Industries Ltd. that has an aggregate market share of 60-65%, as the industry presents significant entry barriers (Source: CRISIL Research). These market entry barriers include the development of an extensive distribution network through long-term relationships with distributors as well as significant marketing costs and the establishment of a distinct brand to gain product acceptance. We compete on the basis of the strength of our products, distribution network and brand recognition. As a result, to remain competitive in our markets, we must continuously strive to manufacture products, expand our distribution network, enhance our brand and improve our operating efficiencies.

Each product category has several organised as well as unorganised players, with organised players commanding over 75% of the market (Source: CRISIL Research). Our competitors, therefore, also include companies that have established their presence in specific regions. These competitors may limit our opportunity to increase our market share as a result of a stronger distributor network in such regions and may also compete with us on pricing of products. We may also face competition from new entrants in the market, who may be leveraging the goodwill generated from their other businesses to gain market share in the adhesives industry. Similarly, consolidation in the Indian adhesives industry and an increase in the number of larger competitors may also adversely affect our results of operations. As adhesives manufacturers consolidate and become larger, they gain access to a larger base of distributors and applicers, resulting in greater competition, which may lead to lower margins and adversely affect our results of operations.

Some of our competitors may have larger business operations, may be diversified with operations across India, may have greater financial resources than we do, may have access to a cheaper cost of capital and may be able to produce adhesives more efficiently or invest larger amounts of capital into their businesses in terms of strengthening their brands and expanding their distribution networks. Our business could be adversely affected if we are unable to compete with our competitors and sell adhesives at competitive prices. For example, if any of our competitors strengthens their brand and caters to the markets we are present in through products, our business and results of operations could be adversely impacted. Our competitors may also introduce new and more competitive products and strengthen their supply chain management, make strategic acquisitions or establish relationships among themselves or with third parties, including applicators/ distributors of our products, thereby increasing their ability to address the needs of our target customers. An inability to effectively compete in terms of branding, providing competitive products or services or expand into new markets, could have a material negative effect on our business, financial condition and growth prospects.

13. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management's estimates and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control.

Our funding requirements and deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on internal management's estimates based on current market conditions and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Our funding requirements may be subject to change based on various factors which are beyond our control. For further details, see "Objects of the Offer" beginning on page 93 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

14. Our Restated Financial Statements disclose certain contingent liabilities which if materialize, may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operation.

	Total	424.47

If a significant portion of these liabilities materialize, it could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. For further information on our contingent liabilities as per Ind AS 37, see “Restated Financial Statements – Annexure XXIX – Restated Contingent Liabilities and Commitments” beginning on page 186 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

15. We have incurred borrowings from commercial banks and an inability to comply with repayment and other covenants in our financing agreements could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We have entered into agreements with banks for short-term and long-term borrowings. As of March 31, 2021, we had Total Borrowings (consisting of borrowings under non-current liabilities, current maturities of long-term debts and borrowings under current liabilities) of ₹ 4220.44 Lakhs. Certain agreements that we have entered into contain restrictive covenants, including requirements that we obtain consent from the lenders prior to undertaking certain matters. Any failure to service such indebtedness, or otherwise perform any obligations under such financing agreements may lead to a termination of one or more of our credit facilities or incur penalties and acceleration of payments under such credit facilities, which may adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Further, we are required to, among other obligations, comply with certain financial covenants including maintaining the prescribed inventory margins, insurance covers on the hypothecated properties and lien creation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with these financial or other covenants or that we will be able to obtain consents necessary to take the actions that we believe are required to operate and grow our business. Any fluctuations in the interest rates may directly impact the interest costs of such loans, and affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Our ability to make repayments and refinance our indebtedness will depend on our continued ability to generate cash from our future operations. We may not be able to generate enough cash flow from operations or obtain enough capital to service our debt. For further information, see “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 249 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Any failure to comply with the conditions and covenants in our financing agreements that is not waived by our lenders or guarantors or otherwise cured could lead to a termination of our credit facilities, foreclosure on our assets, acceleration of all amounts due under such facilities or trigger cross-default provisions under certain of our other financing agreements, any of which could adversely affect our financial condition and our ability to conduct and implement our business plans.

16. We do not have long-term agreements with our suppliers for raw materials and an inability to procure the desired quality, quantity of our raw materials in a timely manner and at reasonable costs, or at all, may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our ability to remain competitive, maintain costs and profitability depend, in part, on our ability to source and maintain a stable and sufficient supply of raw materials at acceptable prices. Our major raw materials include solvents, resins and other additives. For further information, see “Our Business – Procurement of Raw Materials” beginning on page 138 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We depend on external suppliers for all the raw materials required and typically purchase raw materials on a purchase order basis and place such orders with them in advance on the basis of our anticipated requirements. As a result, the success of our business is significantly dependent on maintaining good relationships with our raw material suppliers. The absence of long-term supply contracts subjects us to risks such as price volatility caused by various factors such as commodity market fluctuations, currency fluctuations, climatic and environmental conditions, production and transportation cost, changes in domestic as well as international government policies, and regulatory and trade sanctions. Some portion of our raw materials are also imported. As a result, we continue to remain susceptible to the risks arising out of raw material price fluctuations as well as import duties, which could result in a decline in our operating margins. If we cannot fully offset the increase in raw material prices with increase in the prices for our products, we will experience lower margins, which in turn may have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. In the absence of such contracts we are also exposed to the risk of unavailability of certain raw materials in desired quantities and qualities, in a timely manner or at all.

Although we have not faced significant disruptions in the procurement of raw materials in the past, the COVID-19 pandemic temporarily affected our ability to source raw materials from certain vendors who were unable to transport raw materials to us. There can thus, be no assurance that in future we will be able to procure the required quantities and quality of raw materials commensurate with our requirements. In Fiscals 2020 and 2021, the cost of raw materials and components consumed represented 64% and 68.70%, respectively, of our revenue from operations. There can also be no assurance that a particular supplier will continue to supply us with raw materials in the future. Any delay in supplying finished products to distributors in accordance with the terms and conditions of the purchase orders, such as delivery within a specified time, as a result of delayed raw material supply, could result in the distributor refusing to accept our products, which may have an adverse effect on our business and reputation. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to enter into new or renew our existing arrangements with suppliers on terms acceptable to us, which could have an adverse effect on our ability to source raw materials in a commercially viable and timely manner, if at all, which may impact our business and profitability.

Further, as we generally have short-term arrangements for supply of our products to distributors, we rely on historical trends and other indicators to purchase the required quantities of raw materials. We, therefore, run the risk of purchasing more raw materials than necessary, which could expose us to risks associated with prolonged storage of some of these materials, and materially affect our results of operations. Conversely, if our distributors place orders for greater quantities of products compared to their historical requirements, we may not be able to adequately source the necessary raw materials in a timely manner and may not have the required available manufacturing capacity to meet such demand. In addition, if all or a significant number of our suppliers for any particular raw material are unable or unwilling to meet our requirements or our estimates fall short of the demand, we could suffer shortages or significant cost increases. Continued supply disruptions could exert pressure on our costs, and we cannot assure you that all or part of any increased costs can be passed along to our distributors in a timely manner or at all, which could negatively affect our business, overall profitability and financial performance.

17. Any unscheduled or prolonged disruption of our manufacturing operations could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Any unscheduled or prolonged disruption of our manufacturing operations, including power failure, fire and unexpected mechanical failure of equipment, obsolescence, labour disputes, strikes, lock-outs, earthquakes and other natural disasters, industrial accidents or any significant social, political or economic disturbances, or infectious disease outbreaks such as the COVID-19 pandemic, could reduce our ability to manufacture our products and adversely affect sales and revenues from operations in such period. The occurrence of any such incidents could also result in a destruction of certain assets and adversely affect our results of operations. Any such disruption may interrupt our operations, which may interfere with manufacturing process, requiring us to either stop our operations or repeat activities that may involve additional time and increase our costs. In particular, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, operations at our manufacturing facility were temporary suspended in the month of April 2020 owing to the lockdown imposed by the Government, and we subsequently resumed operations in a phased manner in May 2020. Further, in the first quarter of Fiscal 2022 there were market disruptions due to restrictions imposed by state governments on account of COVID-19 which impacted our revenues. Our distributors rely on the timely delivery of our products and our ability to provide an uninterrupted supply of our products is critical to our business. Although we take precautions to minimize the risk of any significant operational problems at our manufacturing facilities, our distributor relationships, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, may be adversely affected by any disruption of operations at our manufacturing facilities, including due to any of the factors mentioned above.

Disruptions in our manufacturing operations could delay production or require us to temporarily cease operations at our manufacturing facilities. We may be subject to manufacturing disruptions due to contraventions by us of any of the conditions of our regulatory approvals, which may require our manufacturing facilities to cease, or limit, production until the disputes concerning such approvals are resolved. As regulatory approvals are site specific, we may be unable to transfer manufacturing activities to another location immediately. Similarly, there is no assurance that those of our manufacturing facilities unaffected by an interruption will have the capacity to increase their output to manufacture products for the affected manufacturing facilities, to the extent that all outstanding orders will be fulfilled in a timely manner. In the event of prolonged interruptions in the operations of our manufacturing facilities, we may have to make alternate arrangements for supplies and products in order to meet our production requirements, which could affect our profitability.

18. We are dependent on third-party transportation providers for the supply of raw materials and delivery of our finished products.

Our success depends on the supply and transport of the various raw materials required for our manufacturing facilities and of our finished products from our manufacturing facilities to our depots and further to our distributors, which are subject to various uncertainties and risks. We use third-party freight and transportation providers for the delivery of our products to distributors. Transportation strikes, if any, could have an adverse effect on supplies and deliveries to and from our distributors and suppliers. Further, on account of the COVID-19 pandemic, our manufacturing operations were shutdown and our third-party transportation providers' operations were also closed during the lockdown imposed by the Government.

In addition, raw materials and finished products may be lost or damaged in transit for various reasons including occurrence of accidents or natural disasters. There may also be a delay in delivery of raw materials and products which may also affect our business and results of operations negatively. In the event we fail to maintain a sufficient volume of raw materials and delivery of such materials to us is delayed, we may be unable to meet distributor orders in a timely manner or at all, which could result in the distributor's inability to meet end-customer orders. Any such inability may result in loss of sales opportunities that our competitors may capitalize on, thereby adversely affecting our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Any compensation received from insurers or third-party transportation providers may be insufficient to cover the cost of any delays and will not repair damage to our relationships with our affected distributors. We may also be affected by an increase in fuel costs, as it will have a corresponding impact on freight charges levied by our third-party transportation providers. Our freight and forwarding charges were ₹ 25.09 Lakhs and ₹ 53.75 Lakhs in Fiscal 2020 and 2021 respectively. This could require us to expend considerable resources in addressing our distribution requirements, including by way of absorbing these excess freight charges to maintain our selling price, which could adversely affect our results of operations or passing these charges on to our customers, which could adversely affect demand for our products.

- 19. *We are in the process of expanding our operations and establishing a network of distributors in regions where we do not have a significant presence or prior experience. Any failure to expand into these new regions could adversely affect our sales, financial condition, result of operations and cash flows.

In order to cater to the growing market demand for our products and expand our presence across India, we are in the process of deepening our presence in rural and semi-urban regions of the states where we have been present for a considerable period. We may not possess the same level of familiarity with the economic condition, distributor network, end-customer base and commercial operations in the new regions we propose to enter into and therefore, we will be initially exposed to a degree of risk in realization and volume of sales. There can be no assurance that our expansion plans in these new regions will be successful, as our competitors may have more established brands, more experience in trends and deeper relationships with distributors in these regions. Further, having limited or no presence in such new regions as compared to some of our competitors, may lead to lower product pricing due to lack of brand presence and higher expenditure on brand building. As a result, it may be more expensive for us to manufacture and/ or distribute adhesives in these new regions and it may take longer to reach expected sales and profit levels than anticipated, which could affect the viability of these operations or our overall profitability. There can be no assurance that our products will gain market acceptance or meet the particular requirements of distributors and customers in these new markets and regions. If we do not successfully establish our operations, reputation and brand image in this these new markets and regions, our sales, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected.

- 20. *Our Company's logo and some other trademarks are not registered as on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. However, applications for registration our trademarks have been filed with the trademarks authority. We may be unable to adequately protect our intellectual property and/ or be subject to claims alleging breach of third-party intellectual property rights.

As on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we have made 26 applications under the Trademarks Act, 1999 to register our brands in the name of our Company with the trademark authority and hence, we do not enjoy the statutory protections accorded to registered logo and brands. These applications are at different stages of approval and some of them have been marked as objected by the relevant authority. Further, we have 19 trademarks including our logo ‘’, ‘’, ‘

‘’, and other brands which have been registered in the name of M/s. HP International. We have initiated appropriate steps for getting some of such registered trademarks transferred / transmitted in the name of our Company. We cannot assure you that our applications for registration / transfer / transmission of our logo and brands will be granted by the relevant authorities in a timely manner or at all. Our logo and other brands are significant to our business and operations. The use of our logo or other brands by third parties could adversely affect our reputation which could, in turn, adversely affect our business and results of operations. In the event our application is rejected by trademarks registry, our business, financial condition results of operation and cash flows would be adversely affected. Obtaining, protecting and defending intellectual property rights can be time consuming and expensive and may require us to incur substantial costs, including the diversion of the time and resources of management and technical personnel.

Further, while we endeavour to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights of others, there can be no assurance that we will not face any intellectual property infringement claims brought by third parties that may require us to introduce changes to our operations. Any claims of infringement, regardless of merit or resolution of such claims, could force us to incur significant costs in responding to, defending and resolving such claims and may divert the efforts and attention of our management and personnel away from our business. We could be required to pay third party infringement claims. In such cases, our financial conditions and business operations may be adversely impacted.

21. We may not be able to adequately protect or continue to use our intellectual property. In addition, the use of our brands or similar trade names by third parties could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We currently sell our products in India through a network of distributors, who further distribute our products to the end-use customers. We primarily sell our adhesive products under our brand labels inter alia “HP” and “Strong Weld”. We have registered certain trademarks in India (in the name of M/s. HP International) and may apply for further registrations in the future. The registration of intellectual property including trademarks is a time-consuming process and there can be no assurance that any registration applications we may pursue will be successful and that such registration will be granted to us. If we fail to register the appropriate intellectual property, or our efforts to protect relevant intellectual property prove to be inadequate, the value attached to our brand and proprietary property could deteriorate, which could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

In particular, the use of “HP” or “Strong Weld” or similar trade names by third parties may result in confusion among our customers and we are exposed to the risk that entities in India and elsewhere could pass off their products as our products, including spurious or imitation or look-alike products. For example, other manufacturers imitating our brands, and packaging design and material selling spurious products may adversely affect sale of our products, resulting in a decrease in market share due to a decrease in demand for our products. Such imitation or spurious products may not only result in loss of sales but also adversely affect the reputation of our brand and consequently our future sales and results of operations. In addition, a few of the products that we resell are manufactured by third-parties that also affix the our brands on such products. As we engage with these third-party manufacturers, there can be no assurance that such third-parties will not misuse the “HP” brand or affix it on products not authorized by us. In the event of such unauthorized use, we may be compelled to pursue legal action for the protection of our brand and intellectual property, which may divert our attention and resources thereby affecting our business operations.

Further, we protect most of our intellectual property including product and process improvements by relying on trade secret laws and confidentiality agreements. Our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate. Unauthorized parties may infringe upon or misappropriate our services or proprietary information. While our domain names cannot be copied, we may be unable to renew registration of our domain names and other parties could create an alternative domain name resembling ours that could be passed off as our domain name. In addition, despite our efforts to comply with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty whether we are infringing any existing third-party intellectual property rights which may force us to alter our processes, obtain additional licenses or cease significant portions of our operations. We may also be susceptible to claims from third-parties asserting infringement and other related claims. Regardless of their merits, such claims could materially and adversely affect our relationships with current or future distributors, result in costly litigation, delay or disrupt provision of services, divert management’s attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities, require us to enter into royalty or licensing agreements or require us to cease certain activities. Any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

22. We intend to utilise a portion of the Net Proceeds for funding our capital expenditure requirements. We are yet to place orders for such capital expenditure machinery.

We intend to utilise a portion of the Net Proceeds for funding capital expenditure for expansion of the production capacity towards purchase of machinery, equipment and utilities at our manufacturing facility at Village Narangi, Raigad. While we have obtained quotations from different vendors in relation to the major machinery and equipment required for funding such capital expenditure, we are yet to place orders for such machinery and equipment. Accordingly, orders worth ₹ 2,550.86 Lakhs, which constitute 100% of the total estimated costs in relation to expansion of the production capacities at Village Narangi, Raigad are yet to be placed. There can be no assurance that we will be able to place orders for such machinery and equipment in a timely manner or at all. Further, in the event of any delay in placement of such orders, the proposed schedule implementation and deployment of the Net Proceeds may be extended or may vary accordingly.

23. Stringent environmental, health and safety laws and regulations or stringent enforcement of existing environmental, health and safety laws and regulations may result in increased liabilities and increased capital expenditures.

Our operations are subject to environmental, health and safety and other regulatory and/ or statutory requirements in the jurisdictions in which we operate. We are subject to various national, state, municipal and local laws and regulations concerning environmental protection in India. Non-compliance with these laws and regulations could expose us to civil penalties, criminal sanctions and revocation of key business licenses. Environmental laws and regulations in India are becoming more stringent and the scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted with any certainty. In case of any change in environmental or pollution regulations, we may be required to invest in, among other things, environmental monitoring, pollution control equipment and emissions management.

As a consequence of unanticipated regulatory or other developments, future environmental and regulatory related expenditures may vary substantially from those currently anticipated. We cannot assure you that our costs of complying with current and future environmental laws and other regulations will not adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, or cash flows. In addition, we could incur substantial costs, our products could be restricted from entering certain markets and we could face other sanctions, if we were to violate or become liable under environmental laws or if our products become non-compliant with applicable regulations. Our potential exposure includes fines and civil or criminal sanctions, third-party property damage or personal injury claims and clean-up costs. The amount and timing of costs under environmental laws are difficult to predict.

24. Our business is working capital intensive. If we experience insufficient cash flows from our operations or are unable to borrow to meet our working capital requirements, it may materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business requires significant amount of working capital primarily as a considerable amount of time passes between purchase of raw materials and collection of receivables post sales to customers. As a result, we are required to maintain sufficient stock at all times in order to meet manufacturing requirements as well as extend credit period to customers as per the industry practise, thus increasing our storage and working capital requirements. Consequently, there could be situations where the total funds available may not be sufficient to fulfil our commitments and hence we may need to incur additional indebtedness in the future, or utilize internal accruals to satisfy our working capital needs. Our future success depends on our ability to continue to secure and successfully manage sufficient amounts of working capital. Further, our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions and the effect of events such as the COVID-19 pandemic, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner. For instance, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, some of our distributors had requested for modifications to their payment terms, which temporarily increased our cash flow requirements.

As we pursue our growth plan, we may be required to raise additional funds by incurring further indebtedness or issuing additional equity to meet our capital expenditures in the future. If we experience insufficient cash flows or are unable to borrow funds on a timely basis, or, at all, to meet our working capital and other requirements, or to pay our debts, it could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations. Management of our working capital requirements involves the timely payment of, or rolling over of, our short-term indebtedness and securing new and additional loans on acceptable terms, or re-negotiation of our payment terms for, our trade payables, collection of trade receivables and preparing and following accurate and feasible budgets for our business operations. If we are unable to manage our working capital requirements, our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected. There can be no assurance that we will be able to effectively manage our working capital. Should we fail to effectively implement sufficient internal control procedures and management systems to manage our working capital and other sources of financing, we may have insufficient capital to maintain and grow our business and we may breach the terms of our financing agreements with banks, face claims under cross-default provisions and be unable to obtain new financing, any of which would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. For further information on the working capital facilities currently availed of by us, see “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 249 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

25. Inability to meet the quality standard norms prescribed by the central and state governments could result in the sales of our products being banned or suspended or becoming subject to significant compliance costs, which could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

The quality of the products being manufactured by us is open to independent verification by agencies of the central and state governments, or various other regulatory authorities. Regulatory authorities including authorities under the Legal Metrology Act, 2009, may carry out inspection of our premises, plant, equipment, machinery, manufacturing or other processes and sample checks on any material or substance in relation to our product at short notice or without notice. The government authorities could impose fines or issue us show cause notices if the samples are not in conformity with the prescribed quality norms. Failure on our part to adhere to the quality norms prescribed by the government agencies could lead to recall of those batches and/ or the products in the relevant state, or we may be liable to pay a penalty. Any such order passed by the governmental authorities could generate adverse publicity about our Company and our products, which could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

26. Fluctuation in the prices of petro-chemicals which are affected by the prices of crude oil may affect our ability to price our products competitively.

The raw materials we use in our manufacturing process are primarily sourced from third party suppliers. Our raw materials include solvents, resins and other additives that are manufactured using derivatives of crude oil. Prices of these principal raw materials are subject to changes in the prices of crude oil and other petrochemical intermediates which are linked to international prices and are susceptible to significant volatility from time to time. As a result, we continue to remain susceptible to the risks arising out of raw material price fluctuations and in particular fluctuation of crude oil prices which could result in declining operating margins. While the variation in the price of such raw materials is typically passed on to the customer, our inability to do so in the future could adversely affect our ability to price our products competitively. Please also see the Risk Factor No. 16, “ – We do not have long- term agreements with our suppliers for raw materials, and an inability to procure the desired quality, quantity of our raw materials in a timely manner and at reasonable costs, or at all, may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.” on page 40 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

27. Improper storage, processing and handling of raw materials and finished products may cause damage to our inventory leading to an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and cash flows.

Our inventory primarily consists of raw materials including solvents, resins and other additives and finished products. Our raw materials, manufacturing processes and finished products are susceptible to evaporation, contamination and rusting (of tin containers), if not appropriately stored, handled and processed, which may affect the quality of the finished product. In the event such a contamination is detected at the facility during quality checks, we may be required to repair the storage vessels and discard the batches resulting in a temporary suspension of manufacturing activities and lower capacity utilizations, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows. Improper storage may also result in higher than usual spoilage of inventory due to adverse weather conditions or longer than usual storage periods, which may also require us to incur additional expenses in replacing that portion of the inventory and/ or incur additional expenses in maintenance and improvement of our storage infrastructure, which may adversely affect our profit margins.

28. Our inability to effectively manage our growth or to successfully implement our business plan and growth strategy could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

While we have experienced significant growth and have expanded our operations extensively over the years, we cannot assure you that our growth strategy will continue to be successful or that we will be able to continue to expand further, or at the same rate. The success of our business will depend greatly on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy. Our growth strategy includes growing our product portfolio, strengthening our brand, deepening our penetration in existing markets and expanding our presence in select new territories and expanding our manufacturing capacities. For further information, see “Our Business – Strategies” beginning on page 138 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Our success in implementing our growth strategies may be affected by our ability to identify new market opportunities, develop products, increase our existing network of distributors and ability to adapt to changes in the Indian or international regulatory environment applicable to us. Many of these factors are beyond our control and there can be no assurance that we will succeed in implementing our strategy. Any change in government policies and regulations including any ban imposed on a particular product by the respective governments, or any duties, pre-conditions or ban imposed by countries from where we source certain raw materials may have an adverse impact on our operations. In addition, there may be delays in the anticipated timing of activities related to such growth initiatives, strategies and operating plans; increased difficulty and cost in implementing these efforts; and the incurrence of other unexpected costs associated with operating the business. Any of these factors could adversely impact our results of operations. If, for any reason, the benefits we realize are less than our estimates or the implementation of these growth initiatives, strategies and operating plans adversely affect our operations or cost more or take longer to effectuate than we expect, or if our assumptions prove inaccurate, our results of operations may be materially adversely affected. Please also see the Risk Factor No. 2 “Our proposed capacity expansion plans relating to our manufacturing facilities are subject to the risk of unanticipated delays.” on page 31 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

29. Our manufacturing activities are dependent on the delivery of adequate and uninterrupted supply of electrical power at a reasonable cost. Any shortage or any prolonged interruption or increase in the cost of power could adversely affect our business, result of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

Adequate and cost effective supply of electrical power is critical to our operations. We have our manufacturing facility in Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra which depends on the delivery of an adequate supply of electrical power. For further details, see “Our Business – Manufacturing Facility” on page 138 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. There can be no assurance that electricity supplied to our existing manufacturing facility will be sufficient to meet our requirements or that we will be able to procure adequate and uninterrupted power supply in the future at a reasonable cost. If the per unit cost of electricity is increased by the state electricity board our power cost will increase. An interruption in or limited supply of electricity may result in suspension of our manufacturing operations. A prolonged suspension in production could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

30. We may be subject to unionization, work stoppages or increased labour costs, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our industry is labour intensive. The success of our operations depends on availability of labour and maintaining a good relationship with our workforce. As of June 30, 2021, we employed 380 employees across our manufacturing facility and registered and other offices. Although we have not experienced any major interruption to our operations as a result of labour disputes in the recent past, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any such disruption in the future as a result of disputes or disagreements with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations. We may also have to incur additional expense to train and retain skilled labour. We are also subject to a number of stringent labour laws that protect the interests of workers, including legislation that imposes financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. There can be no assurance that we will not experience labour unrest in the future, which may delay or disrupt our operations. Any labour unrest including labour disputes, strikes and lock-outs, industrial accidents, experienced by us could directly or indirectly prevent or hinder our normal operating activities and, if not resolved in a timely manner, could lead to disruptions in our operations. In the event of any prolonged delay or disruption our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

31. There have been some instances of delayed filing/ incorrect filings in the past with the Registrar of Companies which may attract penalties.

There have been some instances of delayed filing/ incorrect filings in the past with the Registrar of Companies which may attract penalties. For instance, in one of the forms for return of allotment filed with

RoC, we have wrongly recorded the consideration as ‘other than cash’ instead of ‘cash’. We are in process of taking effective steps to rectify the said error.

Although, no penalty has been levied on the Company for such delays/ defaults, however, it cannot be assured that even in future no such penalty shall be levied. Therefore, if the concerned authorities impose monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company or its directors / officers in relation to the same, our business and financial condition could be adversely affected.

32. Our inability to accurately forecast demand or price for our products and manage our inventory may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business depends on our estimate of the demand for our products from distributors. We estimate demand for our products based on market projections and past sales. If we overestimate demand, we may purchase more raw materials and manufacture more products than required. If we underestimate demand, we may manufacture fewer quantities of products than required, which could result in delayed or non-fulfilment of purchase orders resulting in loss of distributors, goodwill and business. If we under stock one or more of our products, we may not be able to obtain additional units in a timely manner, which could also adversely affect our goodwill and results of operations. In addition, if our products do not achieve widespread acceptance or our distributors change their procurement preferences, we may be required to incur significant inventory markdowns or may not be able to sell the products at all, which would affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. As such, our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

33. We may be subject to significant risks and hazards when operating and maintaining our manufacturing facilities, for which our insurance coverage might not be adequate.

As of March 31, 2021, we operated one manufacturing facility in India. We generally perform scheduled and unscheduled maintenance and operating and other asset management services. We also sub-contract certain maintenance services to third-parties who may not perform their services adequately. Manufacturing adhesives involves handling of certain chemicals which, if not handled properly, can be hazardous. In addition to natural risks such as earthquake, flood, lightning, cyclones and wind, other hazards, such as fire, structural collapse and machinery failure are inherent risks in our operations. They can cause significant personal injury or loss of life, severe damage to and destruction of property, plant and equipment and contamination of, or damage to, the environment and may result in the suspension of operations. The occurrence of any one of these events may result in our being named as a defendant in lawsuits asserting claims for substantial damages, including for cleanup costs, personal injury and property damage and fines and/ or penalties.

We maintain an amount of insurance protection that we consider adequate including insurance policy covering fire, damage to buildings, plant and machinery, stocks (raw materials and finished goods), vehicles and policy covering damage to stocks at our depots. We may not have identified every risk and further may not be insured against every risk because such risks are either uninsurable or not insurable on commercially acceptable terms, including operational risk that may occur and the occurrence of an event that causes losses in excess of the limits specified in our policies, or losses arising from events or risks not covered by insurance policies such as COVID-19 and other pandemics, or due to the same being inadequate, could materially harm our cash flows, financial condition and future results of operations. However, we cannot provide any assurance that our insurance will be sufficient or effective under all circumstances and against all hazards or liabilities to which we may be subject. In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, at acceptable cost or at all. Our insurance cover for property, plant and equipment, and inventory, as of March 31, 2021 was ₹ 4780 Lakhs, while our gross block of property, plant and equipment and inventory, was ₹ 2236.79 Lakhs and ₹ 3239.69 Lakhs respectively, and our total assets (including all current and non-current assets) were ₹ 8977.89 Lakhs as of March 31, 2021. Consequently, our insurance cover as a percentage of gross block of property, plant and equipment, and inventory, was 87.28%, and our insurance cover as a percentage of total assets (including all current and non-current assets) was 53.24%, as of March 31, 2021. To the extent that we suffer loss or damage, or successful assertion of one or more large claims against us for events for which we are not insured, or which exceeds our insurance coverage, or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, financial performance and cash flows could be adversely affected. For further information on our insurance arrangements, see “Our Business – Insurance” beginning on page 138 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus .

34. Restrictions on import of raw materials may adversely impact our business and results of operations.

We currently import a certain portion of our raw materials. Raw material imports are regulated by certain specific laws and regulations that permit concerned authorities to stop any import if it is deemed that the chemicals proposed to be imported may cause major accidents. While some raw materials we import are hazardous in nature, we cannot assure you that such regulations will not be made applicable to us or that such regulations will not evolve into more stringent regulations, which would place onerous requirements on us and consequently restrict our ability to import raw materials. While we have not in the recent past experienced any challenges in importing such materials, we cannot assure you that we will not experience any such challenges in the future. In the event we are unable to import these materials, there can be no assurance that we will be successful in identifying alternate suppliers for raw materials or we will be able to source the raw materials at favourable terms in a timely manner or at all. Any change in law or applicable governmental policies relating to imports, change in international geo-political situations, restriction on import of raw materials could have an adverse effect on our ability to deliver products to our distributors, business and results of operations.

35. Some of our manufacturing facility, offices and depots are located on licensed or rented or leasehold premises. If these leave and license or leasehold or rent agreements are terminated or not renewed on terms acceptable to us, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Registered Office, administrative office and manufacturing facility are located on premises that we have taken on rental/ leasehold/ leave and license basis from our Promoters. In addition, some of our depots are also located on rental premises. We typically enter into rent/ lease/ leave & licence agreements of varying terms for our depots with an option to renew such term. We may not be able to renew or extend these agreements at commercially acceptable terms, or at all. Further, we may be required to re-negotiate rent or other terms and conditions of such agreements. We may also be required to vacate the premises at short notice as prescribed in the lease agreements, and we may not be able to identify and obtain possession of an alternate location, in a short period of time. Occurrence of any of the above events may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. Further, any adverse impact on the ownership rights of our landlords may impede our effective future operations. Further, our leave and license and rent agreements shall expire in due course and in case of non-renewal of our licenses or rent agreements or if such agreements are renewed on unfavorable terms and conditions, we may be forced to procure alternative space. We may also face the risk of being evicted in the event that our landlords allege a breach on our part of any terms under these leave and license/ rent agreements and there is no assurance that we will be able to identify suitable locations to re-locate our operations.

36. Certain agreements may be inadequately stamped or may not have been registered or may not have necessary disclosure as a result of which our operations may be adversely affected.

A few of our agreements such as those relating to immovable properties, may not be stamped adequately or registered or may not have the necessary disclosures. The effect of inadequate stamping is that the document is not admissible as evidence in legal proceedings and parties to that agreement may not be able to legally enforce the same, except after paying a penalty for inadequate stamping. The effect of non-registration of documents required to be registered, is that such document will not have any effect on the property or be eligible to be received as evidence in legal proceedings. Any potential dispute due to non-compliance of local laws relating to stamp duty and registration may adversely impact the operations of our Company.

37. We are dependent on our Promoters, Directors, and a number of key managerial personnel, and the loss of or our inability to attract or retain such persons could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

We are dependent on our Promoters, Directors and key managerial personnel for setting our strategic business direction and managing our business. Certain of our Promoters, being Directors of our Company and several of our key managerial personnel have extensive experience in the adhesives sector. Our ability to meet continued success and future business challenges depends on our ability to attract, recruit and retain experienced, talented and skilled professionals. Without a sufficient number of skilled employees, our operations and manufacturing quality could suffer. Our experienced sales team has also developed a number of distributor relationships that would be difficult to replace. Competition for qualified technical personnel and operators as well as sales personnel with established distributor relationships is intense, both in retaining our existing employees and when replacing or finding additional suitable employees. If we cannot hire additional qualified personnel or retain them, our ability to expand our business will be impacted.

We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting and retaining suitable employees. The loss of the services of our key personnel or our inability to recruit or train a sufficient number of experienced personnel or our inability to manage the attrition levels in different employee categories may have an adverse effect on our financial results and business prospects.

38. An inability to renew quality accreditations in a timely manner or at all, or any deficiencies in the quality of our products may give rise to product liability claims and adversely affect our business prospects and financial performance.

We obtain and maintain quality certifications and accreditations from independent certification entities and also comply with prescribed specifications and standards of quality approved by the Government in connection with the products we manufacture. Such specifications and standards of quality is an important factor in the success and wide acceptability of our products. If we fail to comply with applicable quality standards or if the relevant accreditation institute or agency declines to certify our products, or if we are otherwise unable to obtain such quality accreditations in the future, in a timely manner or at all, our business prospects and financial performance will be materially and adversely affected.

Further, if our products are alleged or found to be defective, we may be subject to product liability claims. There could be instances in which our products do not meet the specifications. We have from time to time encountered certain claims with respect to the quality of our products. While we have not been required to recall our products and have resolved these claims amicably, we may be subject to product liability claims and litigation for compensation in the future which could result in substantial and unexpected expenditure and could materially and adversely affect our cash flow and operating results. Further, there can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully defend such claims. If any such claims against us are ultimately successful, we could be required to pay substantial damages, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Moreover, product failures or defects and any complaints or negative publicity, could result in a decrease in our sales. Even if certain of the product defects are attributable to raw materials supplied by our suppliers, we cannot guarantee that we would be able to recover all or part of the damages by claiming against our suppliers.

39. Some of our records are not traceable.

In the past, certain statutory records and registers required to be maintained by our Company have not been maintained in the manner as required under various applicable laws including the environmental laws, labour laws and certain other industry specific laws. Despite conducting searches of our internal records, we have not been able to trace the aforementioned documents for the past periods.

Further, we cannot assure you that our Company has maintained the statutory records in the proper manner or at all, in the past. While no legal proceedings or regulatory action has been initiated against our Company in relation to such statutory records as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we cannot assure you that such legal proceedings or regulatory actions will not be initiated against our Company in future. Although no regulatory action/ litigation is pending against us in this regard, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to penalties imposed by regulatory authorities in this respect.

40. Fluctuations in the average selling prices of adhesives could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

The average selling prices of our products may be subject to fluctuations depending on the market conditions. The average selling prices of our products are affected by the general market conditions, such as pricing by competition and raw material costs, which could have an impact on the businesses of our distributors and, in turn, their demand for our products. An inflexible pricing policy may result in reduction in sales because of reduced price competitiveness. While, we have not experienced any material fluctuation in our average selling prices, we cannot assure you that we will not experience declining average selling prices for our products or that our average selling prices can remain at the same level in the future. A decline in the average selling prices for our products could adversely affect our business and financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

41. Uncertainty regarding the manufacturing industry, housing and other real estate market, economic conditions and other factors beyond our control could adversely affect demand for our products and services, our costs of doing business and our financial performance.

Our financial performance depends significantly on the manufacturing industries, on the stability of the real estate, as well as general economic conditions, including changes in gross domestic product. Adverse conditions in or uncertainty about these markets or the economy could adversely impact our end-customers' confidence or financial condition, causing them to determine not to purchase home improvement products and services or delay purchasing or payment for those products and services. The state of the credit markets, including mortgages and consumer credit and other conditions beyond our control, could further adversely affect demand for our products and services, our costs of doing business and our financial performance. Any slowdown in these industries and economy is a major risk for the adhesives industry.

42. Information relating to the installed manufacturing capacity and capacity utilization of our manufacturing facility included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity may vary.

Information relating to the installed manufacturing capacity and capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by an independent chartered engineer in the calculation of the installed manufacturing capacity of, and actual production volumes at, our manufacturing facility. The assumptions and estimates include the standard capacity calculation practices of the adhesives and sealants industry after examining the period during which the manufacturing facility operated in a year, expected operations, availability of raw materials, downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies, and taking into account the number of working days in a year, number of days in a month, number of shifts in a day, and average number of batches per day. Actual manufacturing capacity, production levels and utilization rates may therefore vary from the information of our manufacturing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus or from the historical installed manufacturing capacity information of our manufacturing facilities depending on the product type. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed on our historical installed capacity information for our existing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

43. Our inability to collect receivables from our distributors or default in payment by them could result in the reduction of our profits and affect our cash flows.

Our operations involve extending credit for extended periods of time to our distributors in respect of our products and consequently, we face the risk of non-receipt of these outstanding amounts in a timely manner or at all, particularly in the absence of long-term arrangements with our distributors. While we typically operate on pre-sanctioned credit limits with distributors, we cannot guarantee that our distributors will not default on their payments. Our inability to collect receivables from our distributors in a timely manner or at all in future, could adversely affect our working capital cycle and cash flows. In Fiscals 2020 and 2021, our trade receivables were ₹ 1979.85 Lakhs and ₹ 2286.61 Lakhs, respectively, which represented 23.43% and 19.35% of our revenues for such years, respectively. Macroeconomic conditions could also result in financial difficulties, including insolvency or bankruptcy for our distributors and as a result could cause distributors to delay payments to us, request modifications to their payment arrangements, that could increase our receivables or affect our working capital requirements, or default on their payment obligations to us. An increase in bad debts or in defaults by our distributors may compel us to utilize greater amounts of our operating working capital and result in increased interest costs, thereby adversely affecting our results of operations and cash flows.

44. We have in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus included certain Non-GAAP Measures and certain other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. These Non-GAAP Measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the Indian adhesives industry, and therefore may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain Non-GAAP Measures and certain other industry measures relating to our operations and financial performance have been included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We compute and disclose such Non-GAAP Measures and such other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance as we consider such information to be useful measures of our business and financial performance, and because such measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors and others to evaluate the operational performance of Indian adhesives manufacturing companies, many of which provide such Non-GAAP Measures and other industry related statistical and operational information. Such supplemental financial and operational information is therefore of limited utility as an analytical tool, and investors are cautioned against considering such information either in isolation or as a substitute for an analysis of our audited financial statements as reported under applicable accounting standards disclosed elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

These Non-GAAP Measures and such other industry related statistical and other information relating to our operations and financial performance may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and are not measures of operating performance or liquidity defined by generally accepted accounting principles, and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other manufacturing companies. For further information, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Measures” beginning on page 239 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

45. Our Promoters will continue to retain majority shareholding in the Company after the Offer, which will allow them to exercise significant influence over us and potentially create conflicts of interest.

As on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Promoters hold approximately 95.31% of the pre-Offer paid-up Equity Share capital of our Company and will continue to hold [●]% of the post- Offer paid-up Equity Share capital of our Company. Accordingly, our Promoters will continue to exercise significant influence over our business policies and affairs and all matters requiring shareholders’ approval, including the composition of our Board, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation, the approval of mergers, strategic acquisitions or joint ventures or the sales of substantially all of our assets, and the policies for dividends, lending, investments and capital expenditures. This concentration of ownership also may delay, defer or even prevent a change in control of our Company and may make some transactions more difficult or impossible without the support of these stockholders. The interests of the Promoters as our controlling shareholder could conflict with our interests or the interests of its other shareholders. We cannot assure you that the Promoters will act to resolve any conflicts of interest in our favour.

46. Any failure or disruption of our information technology systems could adversely impact our business and operations.

Our business is dependent upon increasingly complex and interdependent information technology systems, including internet-based systems, to support business processes as well as internal and external communications. For instance, we have implemented an accounting and CRM software across our offices and manufacturing facility, to handle sales, purchase, inventory and financial reporting. The complexity of our computer systems may make us potentially vulnerable to breakdown, malicious intrusion and computer viruses. While we have not experienced any disruptions to our information technology systems in the past, we cannot assure you that we will not encounter disruptions in the future. Any such disruption may result in the loss of key information or disruption of our business processes, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations. In addition, our systems are potentially vulnerable to data security breaches, whether by employees or others that may expose sensitive data to unauthorized persons.

47. Changes in technology may affect our business by making our manufacturing facility or equipment less competitive.

Our profitability and competitiveness are to a certain extent dependent on our ability to respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a cost-effective and timely basis. Changes in technology may make newer generation manufacturing equipment more competitive than ours or may require us to make additional capital expenditures to upgrade our manufacturing facility. Our inability to continue to invest in new and more advanced technologies and equipment, may result in our inability to respond to emerging industry standards and practices in a cost-effective and timely manner that is competitive with other adhesive manufacturing companies and other methods of manufacturing. The development and implementation of such technology entails technical and business risks. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully implement new technologies or adapt our processing systems to emerging industry standards. If we are unable to adapt in a timely manner to changing market conditions or technological changes, our business and financial performance could be adversely affected.

48. We may undertake strategic acquisitions or investments, which may prove to be difficult to integrate and manage or may not be successful.

In the future, we may consider making strategic acquisitions of other adhesive manufacturing companies or other companies whose resources, capabilities and strategies are complementary to and are likely to increase our product portfolio and expand our distribution network. We may also enter into strategic alliances or joint ventures to explore such opportunities or make significant investments in entities that we do not control to capitalize on such business opportunities and there can be no assurance that such strategic alliances, joint ventures or investments will be successful.

It is also possible that we may not identify suitable acquisition or investment candidates or that if we do identify suitable candidates, we may not complete those transactions on terms commercially acceptable to us or at all. The inability to identify suitable acquisition targets or investments or the inability to complete such transactions may adversely affect our competitiveness or our growth prospects.

If we acquire another company we could face difficulty in integrating the acquired operations. In addition, the key personnel of the acquired company may decide not to work for us. These difficulties could disrupt our ongoing business, distract our management and employees and increase our expenses. There can be no assurance that we will be able to achieve the strategic purpose of such acquisition or operational integration or our targeted return on investment.

49. We have issued Equity Shares at prices that may be lower than the Offer Price in the last 12 months.

We have issued and allotted (i) 11,77,642 Equity Shares on rights basis on May 07, 2021; and (ii) 57,305 Equity Shares on rights basis on June 10, 2021, at prices which may be lower than the Offer Price. For further details, please see “Capital Structure – Notes to the Capital Structure – Equity Share capital history of our Company” beginning on page 82 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus .

50. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

We have in the past entered into transactions with certain enterprises over which our Directors have a significant influence. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis, we cannot assure you that we might have obtained more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties.

For further information on our related party transactions, please see "Restated Financial Statement – Related Party Transactions" beginning on page 186 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus . We cannot assure you that any such future transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our minority shareholders and will not have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

51. Industry information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus has been derived from an industry report commissioned by us for such purpose. There can be no assurance that such third-party statistical, financial and other industry information is either complete or accurate.

We have availed the services of an independent third-party research agency, CRISIL Limited, to prepare an industry report titled "Assessment of the Adhesives and Sealants market in India" dated July 2021, for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. This report is subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. None of our Company, the Book Running Lead Manager or any other person connected with the Offer has independently verified such information. Although we believe that the data may be considered to be reliable, the accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed and dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us, or the BRLM or any of our or its respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics. Further, there is no assurance that such information is stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. In addition, statements from such third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

52. If we are subject to any frauds, theft, or embezzlement by our employees, suppliers, contractors or distributors, it could adversely affect our reputation, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our operations may be subject to incidents of theft. We may also encounter some inventory loss on account of employee/ contractor/ distributor/ vendor fraud, theft, or embezzlement. Although we have set up various security measures in our manufacturing facility such as deployment of security guards and operational processes such as periodic stock taking, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any fraud, theft, employee negligence, loss in transit or similar incidents in the future, which could adversely affect our reputation, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

53. We face foreign exchange risks that could adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows.

We have foreign currency payables for supply of certain raw materials and equipment and are therefore, exposed to foreign exchange risk between the Indian Rupee and U.S. Dollars and other foreign currencies, if applicable. There can be no assurance that we will be able to avoid the effect of any adverse fluctuations in the value of the Indian Rupee against other relevant foreign currencies. Any significant fluctuation in the value of the Indian Rupee against such currencies may adversely affect our results of operations. Any appreciation of foreign currencies against the Indian Rupee may result in reduction of our margins and consequently have an adverse effect on business and result of operations.

54. Certain Promoters, also being the executive Directors of our Company, hold Equity Shares in our Company and are therefore interested in the Company's performance in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Certain of our Promoters, also being the executive Directors of our Company, are interested in our Company, in addition to their remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of their shareholding in our Company. We cannot assure you that they will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Promoters and Directors may take or block actions with respect to our business which may conflict with the best interests of our Company or that of minority shareholders. For further information on the interest of our Promoters and Directors of our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or remuneration or benefits, please see the chapters titles "Our Management" and "Our Promoters and Promoter Group" beginning on pages 164 and 179, respectively, of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

55. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

We have not declared dividend in the past. For further information, see "Dividend Policy" on page 185 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, cash flow, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements. The declaration and payment of dividends will be recommended by the Board of Directors and approved by the Shareholders, at their discretion, subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association and applicable law, including the Companies Act. We may retain all future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of the business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board in accordance with the dividend distribution policy adopted by our Board on July 07, 2021 and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including among others, our Company's profitability, capital requirements, financial commitments and requirements, including business and expansions plans, applicable legal restrictions and any other financing arrangements. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future. Accordingly, realization of a gain on Shareholders' investments will depend on the appreciation of the price of the Equity Shares. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value.

RISKS RELATING TO INDIA

56. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe and certain emerging economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia, Russia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and us. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. Following the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union ("Brexit"), there remains significant uncertainty around the terms of their future relationship with the European Union and, more generally, as to the impact of Brexit on the general economic conditions in the United Kingdom and the European Union and any consequential impact on global financial markets. For example, Brexit could give rise to increased volatility in foreign exchange rate movements and the value of equity and debt investments.

In addition, China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall long-term effect of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilizing effects. Any significant financial disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operation, and cash flows. These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets, and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows, and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

57. The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters or outbreak of global pandemics, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence could adversely affect the financial markets and our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, infectious disease outbreaks such as the COVID-19 pandemic and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition. Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war in India or globally may adversely affect the Indian securities markets. In addition, any deterioration in international relations, especially between India and its neighbouring countries, may result in investor concern regarding regional stability which could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. In addition, India has witnessed local civil disturbances in recent years and it is possible that future civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic or political events in India could have an adverse effect on our business. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the market price of the Equity Shares.

58. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

The Indian economy and its securities markets are influenced by economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries. Investors' reactions to developments in one country may have adverse effects on the market price of securities of companies located elsewhere, including India. Adverse economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficit, in other emerging market countries may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility in Indian securities markets and indirectly affect the Indian economy in general. Any of these factors could depress economic activity and restrict our access to capital, which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows, and reduce the price of our Equity Shares. Any financial disruption could have an adverse effect on our business, future financial performance, shareholders' equity and the price of our Equity Shares.

We are dependent on domestic, regional and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. Demand for our products may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. Economic growth in the countries in which we operate is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements namely export demand and movements in key imports, global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates, and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. Also, a change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect economic conditions prevalent in the areas in which we operate in general and our business in particular and high rates of inflation in India could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenues, and as such decrease our operating margins.

59. Majority of our revenue is derived from business in India and a slowdown in economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer and could adversely affect our results of operations.

We derive a majority of our revenue from our operations in India, accordingly, our performance and the growth of our business are necessarily dependent on the health of the overall Indian economy. A slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect the policy of the Government of India towards our industry, which may in turn adversely affect our financial performance and our ability to implement our business strategy.

The Indian economy's growth momentum took a back seat in Fiscals 2020 and 2021 as compared to previous years on account of the pandemic COVID-19. According to the Indian Central Statistics Organization, India's real GDP growth decreased from 4.2% in the Financial Year 2020 to -7.3% in the Financial Year 2021. As per various sources, the Indian economy has slowed further in Fiscal 2021. The Indian economy is also influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly emerging market conditions in Asia. A loss of investor confidence in other emerging market economies or any worldwide financial instability may adversely affect the Indian economy, which could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations and the market price of the Equity Shares. Any slowdown in the Indian economy or future volatility in global markets could increase in our borrowing costs, result in freeze in lending generally, thereby adversely affecting our business. Additionally, an increase in trade deficit, a downgrading in India's sovereign debt rating or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves could negatively affect interest rates and liquidity, which could adversely affect the Indian economy and our business. Any downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India could also adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Further, India's economy could be adversely affected by a general rise in interest rates, adverse weather conditions affecting agriculture, commodity and energy prices as well as various other factors. A slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect the policy of the Government of India towards our banking and finance industry, which may in turn adversely affect our financial performance and our ability to implement our business strategy.

India has from time to time experienced instances of social, religious and civil unrest and hostilities between neighbouring countries. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult and such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve higher degrees of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy. A number of countries in Asia, including India, as well as countries in other parts of the world, are susceptible to contagious diseases and, for example, have had confirmed cases of diseases such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1 and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine and more recently, the COVID-19 virus.

Other factors which may adversely affect the Indian economy are scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing of our developments and expansions; volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on India's principal stock exchanges; changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies, like political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries; occurrence of natural or man-made disasters; infectious disease outbreaks or other serious public health concerns; prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including in India's principal export markets; and other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India.

60. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as Indian GAAP, U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

Our Restated Financial Statements as at and for the year ended March 31, 2021 have been derived from our audited financial statements as at and for the year ended March 31, 2021 prepared in accordance with Ind AS, and our audited financial statements as at and for the year ended March 31, 2020 prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP and restated in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and the ICAI Guidance Note.

Ind AS differs in certain significant respects from Indian GAAP, IFRS, U.S. GAAP and other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries. If our Restated Financial Statements were to be prepared in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, cash flows and financial position may be substantially different. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our Restated Financial Statements and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus should be limited accordingly.

61. If there is any change in laws or regulations, including taxation laws, or their interpretation, such changes may significantly affect our financial statements.

Any change in Indian tax laws could have an effect on our operations. Any future amendments may affect our benefits such as exemption for income earned by way of dividend from investments in other domestic companies and units of mutual funds, exemption for interest received in respect of tax free bonds, and long-term capital gains on equity shares if withdrawn by the statute in the future, and the same may no longer be available to us. Any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability.

In addition, we are subject to tax related inquiries and claims. We may be particularly affected by claims from tax authorities on account of income tax assessment, service tax, past claims of central excise, state VAT, and GST that combines taxes and levies by the central and state governments into one unified rate of interest with effect from July 1, 2017. For further information on litigations arising out of such claims, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” beginning on page 251 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Further, the Government of India has announced the union budget for Fiscal 2022, pursuant to which the Finance Act, 2021 (“Finance Act”), wherein a few sections have become effective from April 01, 2021 and the remaining shall come into force as and when may be notified by the Central Government, has introduced various amendments. As such, there is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act, 2021 may have on our business and operations or on the industry in which we operate. In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

We cannot predict whether any new tax laws or regulations impacting our services will be enacted, what the nature and impact of the specific terms of any such laws or regulations will be or whether, if at all, any laws or regulations would have an adverse effect on our business.

62. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Further, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The RBI and the concerned ministries/ departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities.

In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, which has been incorporated as the proviso to Rule 6(a) of the FEMA Rules, investments where the beneficial owner of the Equity Shares is situated in or is a citizen of a country which shares land border with India, can only be made through the Government approval route, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. These investment restrictions shall also apply to subscribers of offshore derivative instruments. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained with or without any particular terms or conditions or at all.

We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further information, see “Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities” on page 307.

63. A downgrade in ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. Any adverse revisions to India’s credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available, including raising any overseas additional financing. A downgrading of India’s credit ratings may occur, for example, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our control. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favorable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

64. Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and China, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and China resulting in any military conflict in the region could adversely affect our business and operations. Such events may lead to countries imposing restrictions on the import or export of products or raw materials, among others, and affect our ability to procure raw materials required for our manufacturing operations. We could also be affected by the introduction of import tariffs in India, or in the countries to which we export our products, or changes in trade agreements between countries.

65. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against us, our Directors, the Book Running Lead Manager or any of their directors and executive officers in India respectively, except by way of a law suit in India.

We are incorporated under the laws of India and all of our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel reside in India. All of our assets are also located in India. Where investors wish to enforce foreign judgments in India, they may face difficulties in enforcing such judgments. India exercises reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with a limited number of jurisdictions. In order to be enforceable, a judgment obtained in a jurisdiction which India recognises as a reciprocating territory must meet certain requirements of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 (the “CPC”).

India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13, 14 and Section 44A of the CPC on a statutory basis. Section 44A of the CPC provides that where a certified copy of a decree of any superior court, within the meaning of that Section, obtained in any country or territory outside India which the government has by notification declared to be in a reciprocating territory, may be enforced in India by proceedings in execution as if the judgment had been rendered by a district court in India. However, Section 44A of the CPC is applicable only to monetary decrees and does not apply to decrees for amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalties and does not apply to arbitration awards (even if such awards are enforceable as a decree or judgment).

A judgment of a court of a country which is not a reciprocating territory may be enforced in India only by a suit upon the judgment under Section 13 of the CPC, and not by proceedings in execution. Section 13 of the CPC provides that foreign judgments shall be conclusive regarding any matter directly adjudicated upon except:

(i) where the judgment has not been pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction; (ii) where the judgment has not been given on the merits of the case; (iii) where it appears on the face of the proceedings that the judgment is founded on an incorrect view of international law or refusal to recognize the law of India in cases to which such law is applicable; (iv) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were opposed to natural justice; (v) where the judgment has been obtained by fraud; and/ or (vi) where the judgment sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law then in force in India. The suit must be brought in India within three years from the date of judgment in the same manner as any other suit filed to enforce a civil liability in India.

It cannot be assured that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it views the amount of damages awarded as excessive or inconsistent with Indian practice. A party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain prior approval from the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered pursuant to the execution of such foreign judgment.

66. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our products at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our clients thereby reducing our margins.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of transportation, wages, raw materials and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our clients, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or entirely offset any increases in costs with increases in prices for our products. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the Government has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

67. Fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on the value of our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

On listing, our Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the Stock Exchanges. Any dividends in respect of our Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time taken for such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares outside India, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares may reduce the proceeds received by Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated substantially in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the returns on our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

RISKS RELATING TO THE OFFER AND THE EQUITY SHARES

68. Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution. However, if the laws of the jurisdiction where the investors are located in do not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor's benefit. The value the custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emption rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in us would be reduced.

69. Rights of shareholders of companies under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and wide-spread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

70. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholding and sale of Equity Shares by the Promoters may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth, whether organic or inorganic, through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us (including under an employee benefit scheme) or disposal of our Equity Shares by the Promoters or any of our other principal shareholders or any other change in our shareholding structure to comply with minimum public shareholding norms applicable to listed companies in India or any public perception regarding such issuance or sales may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of our Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. There can be no assurance that we will not issue further Equity Shares or that our existing shareholders including our Promoters will not dispose of further Equity Shares after the completion of the Offer (subject to provisions of the applicable laws) or pledge or encumber their Equity Shares. Any future issuances could also dilute the value of shareholder's investment in the Equity Shares and adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Such securities may also be issued at prices below the Offer Price. We may also issue convertible debt securities to finance our future growth or fund our business activities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

71. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Offer.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to applicable Indian laws, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading in the Equity Shares may commence. Investors' book entry, or 'demat' accounts with depository participants in India, are expected to be credited within one working day of the date on which the Basis of Allotment is approved by the Stock Exchanges. The Allotment of Equity Shares in this Offer and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant's demat account with depository participant could take approximately five Working Days from the Bid Closing Date and trading in the Equity Shares upon receipt of final listing and trading approvals from the Stock Exchanges is expected to commence within six Working Days of the Bid Closing Date. There could be a failure or delay in listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise commence trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors' ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this risk factor. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

72. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under the current Indian tax laws and regulations, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. A securities transaction tax ("STT") is levied both at the time of transfer and acquisition of the equity shares (unless exempted under a prescribed notification) and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any gain realised on the sale of equity shares held for more than 12 months, which are sold using any other platform other than on a recognised stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, are subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Such long term capital gains exceeding ₹ 100,000 arising from the sale of listed equity shares on the stock exchange are subject to tax at the rate of 10% (plus applicable surcharge and cess). Unrealized capital gains earned on listed equity shares up to January 31, 2018 continue to be tax exempt in such cases. Further, STT will be levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange if the equity shares are sold on a stock exchange. With respect to capital gains arising in an off-market sale, long term capital gains are subject to tax at the rate of 10% (plus applicable surcharge and cess) without the exemption of ₹ 100,000. Short-term capital gains, arising from the sale of such equity shares on a stock exchange would be subject to tax at the rate of 15% (plus applicable surcharge and cess), while short term capital gains arising in an off-market sale would be subject to tax at a higher rate of 40% (plus applicable surcharge and cess) in the case of foreign companies and 30% (plus applicable surcharge and cess) in the case of other non-resident taxpayers.

The Finance Act, 2019 amended the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 with effect from July 1, 2020 and clarified that, in the absence of a specific provision under an agreement, the liability to pay stamp duty in case of sale of securities through stock exchanges will be on the buyer, while in other cases of transfer for consideration through a depository, the onus will be on the transferor. The stamp duty for transfer of securities other than debentures, on a delivery basis is specified at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount. As such, there is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act, 2019 may have on our Company's business and operations.

Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. In cases where the seller is a non-resident, capital gains arising from the sale of the equity shares will be partially or wholly exempt from taxation in India in cases where the exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Additionally, the Finance Act, 2020 does not require dividend distribution tax to be payable in respect of dividends declared, distributed or paid by a domestic company after March 31, 2020, and accordingly, such dividends would not be exempt in the hands of the shareholders, both resident as well as non-resident. Historically, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the equity shares.

Our Company cannot predict whether any tax laws or other regulations impacting it will be enacted, or predict the nature and impact of any such laws or regulations or whether, if at all, any laws or regulations would have a material adverse effect on our Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

73. The requirements of being a publicly listed company may strain our resources.

We are not a publicly listed company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. We will be subject to the Listing Regulations which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies. Further, as a publicly listed company, we will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management attention will be required. As a result, our management's attention may be diverted from our business concerns, which may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate experience and technical accounting knowledge, but we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely and efficient manner.

74. Our Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and may experience price and volume fluctuations following the completion of the Offer, an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop, the price of our Equity Shares may be volatile and you may be unable to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price or at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for our Equity Shares will develop or, if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a book building process. This price will be based on numerous factors, as described in the section “Basis for Offer Price” beginning on page 112. This price may not necessarily be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Offer is completed. You may not be able to re-sell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer price and may as a result lose all or part of your investment.

Our Equity Shares are expected to trade on NSE and BSE after the Offer, but there can be no assurance that active trading in our Equity Shares will develop after the Offer, or if such trading develops that it will continue. Investors may not be able to sell our Equity Shares at the quoted price if there is no active trading in our Equity Shares.

There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and the trading price of our Equity Shares after this Offer could fluctuate significantly as a result of market volatility or due to various internal or external risks, including but not limited to those described in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The market price of our Equity Shares may be influenced by many factors, some of which are beyond our control, including:

- the failure of security analysts to cover the Equity Shares after this Offer, or changes in the estimates of our performance by analysts;
- the activities of competitors and suppliers;
- future sales of the Equity Shares by us or our shareholders;
- investor perception of us and the industry in which we operate;
- our quarterly or annual earnings or those of our competitors;
- developments affecting fiscal, industrial or environmental regulations;
- the public’s reaction to our press releases and adverse media reports; and
- general economic conditions.
 - A decrease in the market price of our Equity Shares could cause you to lose some or all of your investment.

75. Future sales of Equity Shares by our Promoter may adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares.

After the completion of the Offer, our Promoter will own, directly, more than [●]% of our outstanding Equity Shares. Upon expiry of the lock-in period provided under the SEBI ICDR Regulations, our Promoter will be eligible to sell part or all of the Equity Shares held by it. Future sales of a large number of the Equity Shares by our Promoter, either in one sale or over a series of sales, could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares. Similarly, the perception that any such primary or secondary sale may occur could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares. No assurance may be given that our Promoter will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future, or that the market price of the Equity Shares will not be adversely affected by any such disposal, pledge or encumbrance of their Equity Shares.

76. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid amount) at any stage after submitting a bid, and Retail Individual Investors are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after bid/offer closing date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are required to block the Bid amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of equity shares or the Bid amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Similarly, Retail Individual Investors can revise or withdraw their Bids at any time during the bid/ offer period and until the Bid/ offer closing date, but not thereafter. While we are required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on all Stock Exchanges where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed, including Allotment, within six Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date or such other period as may be prescribed by the SEBI, events affecting the Investors' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. We may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events may limit the Investors' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing. Therefore, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors will not be able to withdraw or lower their bids following adverse developments in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows or otherwise between the dates of submission of their Bids and Allotment.

Justification for “Holding Period” levels

The justifications for the holding levels mentioned in the table above are provided below:

Assets- Current Assets
Inventories	Inventory levels are maintained by our Company depending upon the demand scenario and delivery schedules. Our historical inventory days (calculated as closing inventory on balance sheet date divided by Cost of Goods sold over no. of days in the reporting period i.e. 328 days for Reporting period ended 31-Mar-2020 and 365 days for period ended 31-Mar-21) were 105 days as on March 31, 2020 and 135 days as on March 31, 2021. We have anticipated that going forward our inventory holding levels will stabilize in Fiscal 2022 to 130 days and continue the downward trend on account of better inventory management to 120 days in Fiscal 2023 and 110 days in Fiscal 2024.
Trade Receivables	Our Company gives credit facility to its customers in the normal course of business. Our outstanding Trade Receivables (calculated as closing trade receivables divided by Net sales from operations over no. of days in reporting period i.e 328 days for Reporting period ended 31-Mar-2020 and 365 days for period ended 31-Mar-21) were 77 days in Fiscal 2020 and 71 days in Fiscal 2021. Going forward, we anticipate providing credit period to our customers for 75 days each for Fiscal 2022, 2023 and 2024 as we continue to expand our operations and grow our business.
Liabilities–Current Liabilities
Trade Payables	Our Trade Payable days are derived from Restated financial statements (calculated as Closing Trade Payables as on balance sheet date divided by cost of goods sold over no. of days in reporting period i.e 328 days for Reporting period ended 31-Mar-2020 and 365 days for period ended 31-Mar-21). They were 86 days in Fiscal 2020 and 108 days in Fiscal 2021. We have assumed trade payables period of 80 days, 65 days and 60 days for the Fiscals 2022, 2023 and 2024 we intend to prune our creditor days going ahead and negotiate better pricing terms from creditors by purchasing Materials and availing limited credit from them.

OVERVIEW OF THE INDIAN ECONOMY

Review of GDP growth

GDP shrank 7.3% in fiscal 2021

With a population of over ~1.4 billion and estimated GDP of Rs 135 trillion in fiscal 2021, as per the estimates of National Statistical Office (NSO), India is the sixth largest economy in the world. The country has favorable demographics with the largest working population; ~67% of the total population in working age group of 15-64 years as on fiscal 2019 (Source: World Bank data indicators). In fact, India’s working population is more than total population of countries such as Russia, Brazil and the United States (US). Going forward, the working population is expected to increase further in the long run, thereby driving consumption and growth.

Fiscal 2021’s fourth quarter GDP growth estimate is at 1.6%, having turned positive in the second half of the year. GDP is estimated to have contracted by 7.3% for fiscal 2021 as per the NSO’s provisional estimates, a consequence of economic slowdown led by the pandemic. Despite the mild recovery, the Indian economy is still damaged due to the fierce second wave in the first quarter of fiscal 2022 that led to localised lockdowns in most states.

Nuances of GDP growth

Slight rebound in the second half

India's GDP rebounded in the second half of fiscal 2021, up 0.5% and 1.6% on-year in the third and fourth quarters, respectively.

Though the economy shrank as a whole in fiscal 2021, agriculture/ allied activities, electricity, gas, water supply and other utility services expanded. Contact-intensive trade, hotels, the transport and communication sector, and broadcasting services were hit the most and de-grew through the fiscal. Construction, a labour-intensive sector, was severely hit in the first half, but rebounded in the second half. Consequently, the pandemic pushed gross value added (GVA), the supply-side measure of the economy, of most sectors back by more than a year. GVA growth printed at -6.2%.

The situation remains grim. Dispersion of Covid-19 cases in the first quarter of fiscal 2022 reminds us of the September 2020 peak. But there is one critical difference: the number of cases appears to have exceeded the peak by over 4x, highlighting the enormous burden and reinstatement of lockdowns and restrictions. The impact is evident in high-frequency indicators, which continued to weaken in May.

The first half of fiscal 2022 will be supported by a base effect, though materially clouded by the pandemic's spread. Global growth and acceleration in vaccinations will support growth. However, continuation of the second wave and possible future waves ascribe a downside risk to CRISIL Research's forecast of 9.5% domestic real GDP growth in fiscal 2022.

Our key projections

	FY16	FY17	FY18	FY19	FY20	FY21E	FY22F

Lower rupee volatility with rising forex reserves

India's forex reserves swelled ~106%, at ~6.8% compound annual growth rate (CAGR) in the past twelve years, to $576 billion by fiscal 2021-end from $279 billion. Higher forex reserves have helped the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) rein in currency volatility, since it provides a cushion during uncertain market events. For instance, the rupee remained relatively stable during several periods of uncertainties triggered by events such as Grexit, Brexit and a hike in interest rates by the US Federal Reserve (Fed). However, reserves came under pressure in fiscal 2019 owing to a meltdown in emerging market currencies, led by the Turkish lira, and the apex bank's intervention in the derivative currency markets to arrest the rupee's slide. Again, recently in fiscal 2021, the rupee was under pressure due to the rising load of pandemic cases in India. Further, in April 2021, the exponential spread of the cases led to the domestic currency averaging 74.5/USD, depreciating 2.4% on-month from 72.8/USD in March 2021. Concerns over growth arising from the second wave and subsequent state-announced lockdowns affected the exchange rate.

Rising forex reserves reined in currency volatility

CPI inflation under input-price pressure

Inflation based on Consumer Price Index (CPI) crossed the upper limit of the RBI's target 2-6% range and averaged 6.2% in fiscal 2021. In April 2021, CPI moderated to 4.3% from 5.5% in the previous month, largely on account of a high base (inflation had risen to 7.2% on-year in April 2020). On a seasonally-adjusted basis, CPI inflation rose 0.6% on-month in April, with the rise broad-based across food, fuel and core inflation. Going forward, CRISIL Research expects CPI to moderate to 5.3% this fiscal, compared with 6.2 in fiscal 2021, driven by lower food inflation. Brent crude is expected to average $58-63 per barrel in calendar year 2021, which will not only raise fuel inflation, but also keep core inflation high through elevated costs.

Yield on the 10-year government security (G-sec) averaged 6.07% in April 2021, 13 basis points (bps) lower on-month owing to the RBI's continuous effort to leverage innovative measures to keep bond yields benign in the pandemic-hit economy. In its April 2021 policy review meeting, the central bank announced a new instrument, G-SAP (Government-Securities Acquisition Programme), to help ease supply pressure. CRISIL Research expects the 10-year G-sec yield to rise to 6.5% in March 2022, given that supply pressures could have a bearing on yields once the RBI starts normalising liquidity.

With several fundamental factors expected to trend in the right direction coupled with measures initiated by the government, India's long-term growth potential is expected to be healthy.

Raising the long-term potential

Reviving private consumption, lowering banks' non-performing assets (NPA), improving the investment climate and many such steps are critical to support domestic economic growth. Few steps taken by the government in this regard are detailed below:

- Post pandemic policies to revive the economy: The Indian government has initiated multiple measures to revive the economy from the pandemic stress including SIDBI schemes for special liquidity support for micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs); state compensation schemes; and increase in the threshold of default under Section 4 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). These are short-term measures, but are likely to support long-term growth as the economy recovers from the pandemic.
- Union Budget 2021-22: The growth-centric and expansionary Union Budget 2021-22 focuses on improving India's mid-term growth trajectory. Some of the key announcements include:
 - Recapitalising public sector banks: The RBI proposed to infuse Rs 20,000 crore into state-owned banks in fiscal 2022, given the increase in NPAs and slack credit demand
 - Cleaning up bank books: The government announced the formation of an asset management company and an asset reconstruction company to resolve stressed assets of public sector banks to consolidate, manage and dispose stressed assets
 - Reforms in manufacturing: Earlier, through the Atmanirbhar Bharat package, the government had provided a boost to the manufacturing sector via the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme. As much as Rs 1.97 lakh crore is expected to be spent over the next five years in sectors such as electronics, automobiles/auto components, pharmaceutical, telecom and textiles to enhance domestic manufacturing capacities. The budget further announced customs duty rationalism, with a focus on MSMEs
 - Roadmap for public sector investment: The budget also pushed for infrastructure creation by augmenting funds for the flagship National Infrastructure Pipeline and laying down a roadmap by increasing capital expenditure, monetising assets and developing instruments for infrastructure financing
- Improve investment climate through the ease of doing business: The government has initiated a number of measures to ease the business environment, such as Goods and Services Tax (GST) and insolvency law, introducing an online single-window model for providing clearances and filing compliances, establishing the Central Registration Center, removing the Foreign Investment Promotion Board for fast-track foreign investments, and setting up a National Investment and Infrastructure Fund. The country has adopted a carefully designed approach to reform, with an aim to improve the business regulatory environment over the course of several years and is now among the top 10 improvers. India's position in the World Bank's Ease of Doing Business (EODB) rankings improved from 142 in 2015 to 63 in 2020; thus, it has maintained its position in the top 100 for the third straight year. However, it is still far behind large Asian economies such as China and other BRICS (Brazil-Russia-India-China-South Africa) countries. The EODB rankings of two other BRICS countries, i.e., Russia and China, have also improved impressively, from 62 and 90 in 2015 to 28 and 31 in 2020, respectively.

EODB rankings

	Brazil	Russia	India	China	South Africa
2014	116	92	134	96	41

2019	109	31	77	46	82
2020	124	28	63	31	84

Moreover, India's ranking in terms of the Global Innovation Index improved from 81st in 2015 to 48th in 2020. However, among its BRICS peers, India continues to lag China and Russia.

- Monetary policy: The RBI's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) has decided to take an accommodative stance for 'as long as necessary' to mitigate the impact of the pandemic, while ensuring inflation remains within the target range going forward. In its June 4 meeting, the MPC retained the rates, with the repo rate at 4%, reverse repo rate at 3.35% and marginal standing facility at 4.25%. The RBI also announced more bond purchases under GSAP, one tranche for the current quarter, and higher purchases for the second quarter of fiscal 2022. In addition, the RBI allowed extension of the moratorium on term loan equated monthly instalments (EMIs) by a total of six months, till August 31, 2020
- Passage of key bills: The government has passed several key bills over the past few fiscals – the Companies (amendment) Bill, 2020, which seeks to lower the penalties and peruse the need to decriminalise some offences by making recommendations to the central government; the Banking Regulation (amendment) Bill, 2020, which strives to amend the act with regards to cooperative banks; and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Second Amendment) Bill, 2019, which aims at streamlining issues of troubled companies, protect corporate debtors and prevent unnecessary revocation of insolvency proceedings under the IBC

- Boost infrastructure: After a sharp slowdown in the Indian economy in fiscal 2021 due to the pandemic, infrastructure investments are expected to grow 17-20% in fiscal 2022, driven by government push to roads, railways and urban transport
- Manufacturing thrust: The government has made some progress in improving labour market efficiency through programmes such as Skilling India and Make in India. The sector has shown strong resilience despite the recent lockdowns and remained above the 50 expansion mark. However, the reform process has been gradual in the manufacturing sector
- Consumption growth: Given favourable demographics and rising disposable income, a burgeoning middle class population is expected to help recover and eventually boost consumption growth in India. However, keeping in mind the pandemic's impact, inflation and interest rates need to be in check to support consumption
- Development of the financial markets: To develop the financial markets, the government has instituted steps such as Jan Dhan Yojana, a better monetary policy framework, and passage of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Second Amendment) Bill, 2019. Further, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) approved the framework for business trusts in India -- real estate investment trusts (REITs) and infrastructure investment trusts (InvITs) framework, both of which are new asset classes for investors. While REIT allows monetisation of real estate assets, InvIT helps promoters monetise their completed infrastructure projects (having concessionaire/development agreement). In the budget, the government approved 100% foreign direct investment (FDI) for insurance intermediaries and increased FDI limit in the sector to 74% from 49%. This step, along with the emerging digital gold investment options and the platform for infra-debt financing, will help deepen the domestic financial markets
- Digitalisation: The government has been quick to board the technology bandwagon with its Digital India programme, which aims to speed up financial inclusion and deliver government services electronically by increasing internet connectivity and improving online infrastructure. Digitisation and digitalisation will create an efficiency-led growth spurt over the medium term. In its 2021-22 budget, the government announced certain initiatives in the digital space, including building a world-class fintech hub at Gandhinagar's GIFT City, conducting first-ever digital census, and allocation of Rs 1.15 lakh crore for railway digitization.

Amid these reforms, India's economic growth is currently recovering and is expected to pick up, after having dropped 7.3% in fiscal 2021, as four drivers – people learning to live with the new normal, flattening of the Covid-19 affliction curve, rollout of vaccinations, and investment-focused government spending – converge.

OVERVIEW OF INDIA'S ADHESIVES AND SEALANTS MARKET

Domestic market review

The Rs 135-140 billion (fiscal 2020) domestic adhesives and sealants market is broadly categorised into 1) industrial and 2) consumer and bazaar adhesives. The industrial segment caters to B2B industries such as packaging, footwear, paints, automotive, etc. The retail segment caters to industries such as furniture/wood work, building construction, arts and craft, electrical fittings, etc.

Market-wise split of adhesives (fiscal 2020)

Source: CRISIL Research

The adhesives and sealants market clocked 8-9% CAGR between fiscals 2015 and 2020, driven by growth in major end-user industries such as packaging, construction, electronics and woodworking. Construction investments logged 4-5% CAGR during the period, driven by an increase in spending on roads, railways and urban infrastructure. Moreover, the industry reflected healthy growth (7-8% CAGR) in the packaging segment. However, the adhesives market stagnated in fiscal 2021 because of the pandemic, de-growing at 1-2% CAGR to Rs 135 billion. Fortunately, the decline was restricted thanks to growth in food packaging and e-commerce industries, which catered to people forced to stay at home and ordered online. Moreover, redecorating spend increased, leading to higher usage of consumer and bazaar adhesives in the furniture market.

Our report focusses on the consumer adhesives market.

The Rs 55-57 billion (fiscal 2020) consumer adhesives industry clocked 8-10% CAGR between fiscals 2015 and 2020, driven by the rapidly growing furniture industry with booming real estate and rising income levels leading to an increased demand for interiors. Increased investment in building construction investment also contributed to its growth. The woodwork segment is the largest end-user for consumer adhesives, constituting ~55% of fiscal 2020 revenue. The market de-grew 1-2% in fiscal 2021, due to the pandemic-led reduced construction activity. However, the decline was restricted due to increased demand from the furniture segment due to work from home, which led to higher demand for home furniture. However, the economy recovered in the second half of fiscal 2021, leading to a rise in demand from end-user industries. The consumer adhesives market is expected to recover in fiscal 2022, following an expected GDP growth of 9.5% on-year and consequent recovery in infrastructure and construction activity.

The industry can be further classified based on technology into water-borne, solvent-borne, reactive and hot melt adhesives. PVA (poly vinyl acetate), a water-borne adhesive, dominates the market (25-27% of revenue) due to growing application in woodwork and furniture industry.

Among solvent-borne adhesives, PVC solvent cement is used for joining PVC pipes in the irrigation and building construction segments. SBR (styrene butadiene rubber) is used as a sprayable adhesive for foam and mattress applications. Chloroprene rubber has a wide range of applications from wood working to leather to foam applications, forming 12-13% of the market.

Reactive adhesives (15-16%) are dominated by epoxy adhesives. These also find application in the furniture, woodworking and tiling industries, and are used for their water and heat resistance along with durability. These are also used in the electrical, electronics and automotive space. Cyanoacrylates (FeviKwik) are used for bonding plastics, metal and rubber components. These are used in moulded furniture, signboards and a wide range of industrial applications. Silicone sealants (12-14% of the consumer adhesives market) are liquid adhesives. These create strong adhesive bonds resistant to chemicals, moisture and weathering, and are widely used for basic household repairs and areas around the sink or any piping due to their water-resistant nature.

Consumer adhesives market to clock 9-10% CAGR between fiscals 2021 to 2026

India's consumer adhesives industry is expected to clock 9-10% CAGR between fiscals 2021 and 2026 driven by economic recovery and growth in end-user industries. In particular, demand is expected to recover in fiscal 2022, growing at 14-15% on-year, on a low base of fiscal 2021, as the Indian economy recovers from the impact of the pandemic. Overall, growth of the consumer adhesives industry is expected to moderate and log a CAGR of ~8% between fiscals 2022 and 2026.

Consumer adhesives market on growth path

PVA dominates the consumer adhesives market

PVA continues to dominate in terms of its application in the furniture market. However, chloroprene rubber has also gained significance in wood and joinery applications due to lower prices and faster drying properties. Thus, we expect rapid growth in demand for chloroprene rubber close at the heels of healthy growth in the furniture market. However, PVA will continue to dominate the market at least till fiscal 2026, due to stronger bonding strength. Growing awareness of environmental friendliness of water-based adhesives has led to the sustenance of PVA demand.

The silicone sealants segment is also expected to witness healthy growth driven by rising construction investments and their wide application in sanitary ware and household repairs owing to superior properties. Healthy growth in the pipes and fittings market due to rising construction activity, coupled with rapid increase in irrigation spends and replacement of metal pipes will drive demand for PVC solvent cements.

Product-wise demand growth in consumer adhesives

Segment	CAGR (FY21-26)	Key demand drivers
PVA adhesives	7-9%	Rising wooden furniture market
PVC solvent cement/adhesive	9-11%	Growth in construction, irrigation spending, replacement of metal pipes with PVC pipes
SBR	11-13%	Growth in foams and mattress demand, due to rising demand for furniture
Chloroprene rubber	8-10%	Rising preference in wood working and foam application
Epoxy adhesives	8-10%	Rising demand due to strong adhesion and a wide range of applications in various surfaces
Cyanoacrylates	7-9%	A wide range of applications in wood, plastic, metal, fabric and ceramics
Silicone	10-12%	Rising construction usage and increasing applications in sanitary fittings repairs
Overall adhesives	8-10%

Key demand drivers

Rising demand for wooden furniture to drive demand

India's furniture market makes use of multiple types of adhesives, including PVA, SBR, chloroprene rubber, cyanoacrylates and epoxy. The industry is expected to be driven by several factors, which are contingent to parameters, such as growing urbanisation, increasing inclination towards more modular and compact furniture, and rising demand for durable and hybrid furniture. All these factors are expected to positively impact the growth of the furniture and thereby the consumer adhesives markets in the near term. Increased customer brand awareness and modern style requirements, coupled with rising player collaboration through online channels, are expected to support demand. The wooden furniture is no longer restricted to demand for dewans, backless sofas or chairs. Consumers today are looking for the finest range of latest international designs and trends for not just the living room, but also for kids' rooms, study rooms, home offices, outdoor areas and others. Thus, the furniture industry is now witnessing an expansion in its demand not just for utility purposes, but more as a style quotient for homes, offices and retail spaces.

Despite furniture demand coming to a standstill in the first quarter of fiscal 2021, due to the nation-wide lockdown, the industry has already bounced back and reached pre-pandemic demand levels by January 2021, driven by work-from-home and online classes of children. The pandemic made it necessary for everyone to stay inside their homes to prevent the spread of the virus, which led to a boom in household furniture demand. Several corporates helped their employees in setting up work-from-home stations by providing allowances. Similarly, online classes pushed parents to set up proper study tables for their children. This also led to an increase in online sales of furniture as people chose to stay home due to the fear of the virus. The trend is expected to continue as companies consider pivoting towards hybrid work models and increased acceptance of work-from-home. Overall, the industry grew, albeit at a slower pace of 2-3% on-year in fiscal 2021.

Furthermore, CRISIL Research expects demand for wooden furniture to be driven by the anticipated growth in affordable housing, commercial construction, rising income levels, desire for better standard of living, favourable working-age population to influence spending, nuclearisation of families, growing urban population, and better credit availability and increasing penetration of plastic money. Demand is expected to be further propelled by the initiatives of PMAY (Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana) for increasing rural households.

CRISIL Research estimates demand for wooden furniture to expand at a CAGR of 10-12% between fiscals 2021 and 2026.

Demand for electronics to witness a sharp growth of 19-24% CAGR

The electronics industry uses adhesives for various applications, including conformal coatings, protecting terminal electrodes, bonding of surface mount devices, among many others.

The electronics industry is one of the fastest-growing industries in India and, as per the Ministry of Electronics and IT, the market size of the industry is Rs 5,330 billion as of fiscal 2020. The industry is expected to grow at a strong pace of 15-20% over the medium term.

Infrastructure and increasing spending on building construction to drive construction activity

The construction industry makes use of adhesives and sealants across various applications, such as flooring and carpets, tile insulation, garage doors, resilient flooring, wall covering, pre-finish panels, perimeters of doors, drywall, lamination, and fixed window frames, among others. These applications primarily make use of three types of adhesives and sealants namely, epoxy, silicone and cyanoacrylates.

The industry is expected to grow at a medium pace, due to the government's push for the sector. The government has introduced multiple policies to boost the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP) and the Affordable Rental Housing Complex (ARHC) scheme, along with Housing for All and other investments in the industrial segment in a renewed push to the sector under the Atmanirbhar Bharat programme. CRISIL Research expects the investments in the construction sector to grow at a CAGR of 4-6% over the medium term.

Moreover, increasing demand from the real-estate sector and rising irrigation spending are expected to drive the demand for PVC-solvent cement.

Increasing demand for non-hazardous, green and sustainable adhesives

Demand for bio-based / green adhesives, such as starch and lignin, is increasing rapidly, as consumers are starting to realise the adverse effects of petroleum-based products. Consequently, manufacturers are spending huge amounts of capital for research and development of such adhesives.

Currently, hybrid adhesives are being increasingly used by end-user industries of adhesives, as they are considered to be green and sustainable alternatives for solvent-based adhesives.

Peer comparison

The consumer adhesives market is primarily dominated by Pidilite Industries, commanding 60-65% of the market. However, each product category has several organised as well as unorganised players, with organised players commanding over 75% of the market. The following table shows the various players present in different product segments:

Product portfolios of some of the key players

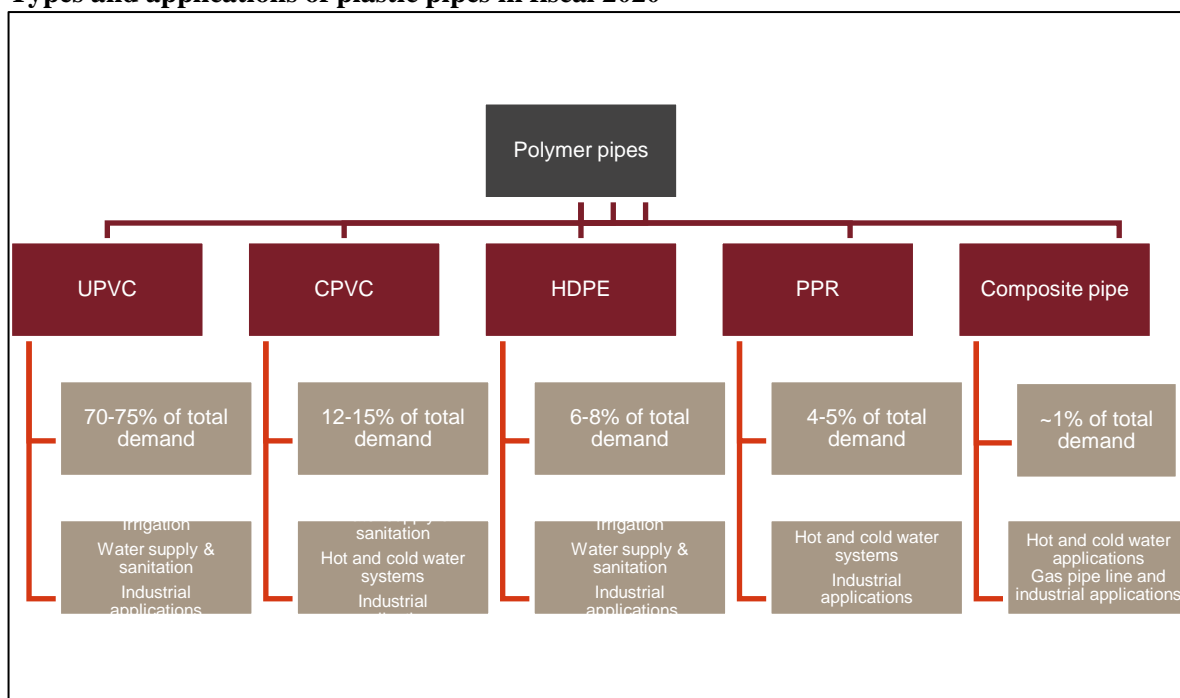

Pidilite Industries and Astral Adhesives are present across all consumer adhesive categories, including PVA, PVC solvent cement, SBR, chloroprene rubber, epoxy, cyanoacrylates and silicone, while the rest of the players have presence across 2-3 categories only.

AN OVERVIEW OF INDIA'S PVC (POLYVINYL CHLORIDE) ADHESIVES MARKET

PVC adhesives, also known as PVC solvent cement are adhesives, which are used for joining PVC adhesives. The process is similar to welding, since it melts two pieces of PVC into a single piece. A PVC adhesive consists of PVC resin, a solvent, and methyl ethyl ketone – which breaks the top layer of the pipes and fittings to be joined together. The single largest application of PVC adhesives is in the PVC pipes industry, where it is widely used to join pipes.

Plastic pipes are made of different types of polymers. The four key types are unplasticised polyvinyl chloride (u-PVC), which represents 70-75% of industry demand by volume, chlorinated polyvinyl chloride (CPVC) – 12-15%, HDPE – 6-8% and polypropylene (PPR) – 4-5%. Composite pipes, which have a mix of metal and plastic layers, are also used for similar applications.

Types and applications of plastic pipes in fiscal 2020

PVC adhesives are used for joining u-PVC and CPVC pipes. There are three broad product categories in the PVC adhesives market –PVC, u-PVC and CPVC, based on the category of pipe they are used for. Similar to PVC pipes, the PVC adhesives business is a largely B2C business, where the key customers are appliers, including contractors/plumbers, which are in charge of installing and fixing the pipes and fittings at a particular site.

Domestic market review

The size of the Indian PVC adhesives market was Rs 6.81 billion as of fiscal 2020. The market has grown at around 10% CAGR, in line with the rapid growth in the plastic pipes segment, which grew at a healthy CAGR of 10-11% over fiscals 2015 to 2020, reaching about Rs 330-340 billion. Industry growth was driven by rising demand from the construction and irrigation sectors. In the construction space, increasing investments in water supply and sanitation (WSS) projects, substitution of metal pipes with polymer pipes, and replacement demand propelled adhesive offtake. Initiatives such as Pradhan Mantri Krishi Sinchayee Yojana (PMKSY), Accelerated Irrigation Benefits Programme (AIBP), and Command Area Development and Water Management (CADWM) Programme fuelled the use of PVC pipes, and hence PVC adhesives in the irrigation sector.

Additionally, the industry received a boost from the government's Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT) scheme, which is aimed at providing basic services such as WSS and ensuring every household has access to a tap with assured water supply and a sewerage connection. As a result, demand for soil, waste and rain, and drainage pipes was robust. Among several variants of plastic pipes available in the market, demand for u-PVC and CPVC, in particular, has been rising, due to affordability, high quality and durability.

PVC Adhesives market by end-use in fiscal 2020

Others include PVC boards, sheets etc.

Source: CRISIL Research

In fiscal 2021, the PVC adhesives demand is estimated to have declined 9-11%, due to lower offtake from the plastic pipes industry, amid the economic slowdown driven by the Covid-19 pandemic. Construction spending across infrastructure sub-sectors shrank sharply in fiscal 2021, due to the pandemic, as supply chains got disrupted and labourers employed at construction sites migrated back to their home towns. This has indeed affected demand for PVC pipes from the urban infrastructure space. However, urban housing and infra segment aided recovery of demand in the third and fourth quarters of the fiscal. Infrastructure and urban housing started seeing green shoots of recovery from October 2021 and saw a smart recovery in the seasonally strong construction period of December to March 2021, because of improving government spending coupled with a recovery in real estate, leading to robust demand growth.

Among product types, u-PVC and PVC adhesives have the largest share, accounting for more than 80% of the market, while the balance demand comes from the CPVC adhesives segment.

Key growth drivers

Plastic pipes, especially CPVC, has been gaining prominence in the past decade

In the past decade, one of the most important changes in the pipes industry was the large-scale shift from metals to polymer-based pipes in most applications. This was especially true in the case of plumbing and piping applications in the construction industry. This evolution has allowed for greater research and development in specialised products by organised players for specific applications with the development of polymers, such as CPVC for hot and cold water plumbing, firefighting and transportation of industrial fluids. The CPVC segment, which poses technological barrier to entry, has also given branded players an opportunity to increase their market share. Until then, u-PVC dominated the plastic pipes industry with several unorganised players posing stiff competition to branded players.

Low per-capita consumption of PVC

India has a very low per-capita PVC consumption of about 2.4 kg, compared with the global average of 6 kg. We expect the per-capita consumption to rise and move closer to the global average, driving PVC consumption.

Investments in end-user segments to drive demand for PVC pipes and adhesives

Plastic pipes are primarily used in irrigation and WSS projects. Major demand sources are public-sector projects undertaken by the Central, state and municipal bodies. Key growth drivers of PVC are discussed below.

Among factors that will boost PVC demand, the top most is increased spending by state governments and municipal corporations to improve accessibility of water for a burgeoning population. Second comes the heightened government thrust on irrigation, urban infrastructure and real estate. The Central government has launched various schemes to support these three sectors. They include:

- PMKSY in the irrigation sector
- Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JNNURM), AMRUT, Swachh Bharat Mission and Smart Cities Mission in the urban infrastructure sector
- Housing for All scheme in the real estate sector

Apart from these, an increase in private sector investments, primarily in the real estate sector, will also boost demand. CRISIL Research expects demand for plumbing pipes and fittings to grow, with construction picking up pace in metros and tier-II and -III cities.

Irrigation

The irrigation sector is the key end-user segment for plastic pipes, accounting for 45-50% of demand. Of India's 160 million hectare (ha) of cultivated land, a little less than 50% is irrigated. Investment in the sector is expected to increase in the next five years, due to the push from state governments to increase irrigation penetration. However, in fiscal 2021, CRISIL Research expects investments to decline 8-12%, as states divert funds towards healthcare and other social sectors due to the pandemic. In fiscal 2022, the investment is expected to rise 10-15%, led by states such as Maharashtra, Karnataka and Madhya Pradesh, whose need to increase irrigation coverage is urgent. Construction spending in irrigation will rise to Rs 3.7 lakh crore over fiscals 2021-2025 from Rs 3.1 lakh crore during fiscals 2016 to 2020.

Urban infrastructure

Investments in urban infrastructure are estimated to decline 8-12% in fiscal 2021, as the pandemic has resulted in lower spending due to a loss of man days amid the lockdown, diversion of state funds to meet social and healthcare spending and labour migration. In fiscal 2022, the investment is expected to rise 15-20%, as the deferred projects of fiscal 2021 kick off and the government focusses on schemes, such as Swachh Bharat Mission, Jal Jeevan Mission, AMRUT and metro projects, a bulk of which were under implementation and have achieved financial closure. Over fiscals 2021 to 2025, CRISIL Research expects urban infrastructure to see Rs 2.9 lakh crore of spending, a 1.35x increase from the previous five fiscals. Half of the amount is expected to be in WSS projects, driven primarily by state governments and through Central government-sponsored programmes, such as Jal Jeevan mission, AMRUT and Swachh Bharat Mission.

After WSS, metro construction will attract the most investment in urban infrastructure development. CRISIL Research estimates that spending in metro rail will increase 1.3 times to Rs 1 lakh crore over the next five years. The bulk of these projects are under construction and have achieved financial closure. The lockdown and migration of labour drove investment lower in fiscal 2021. However, the projects that were deferred this fiscal are expected to restart in the next fiscal. A number of projects announced and being implemented by various state governments will drive the medium-term growth of the sector. A new metro rail policy was announced in the Union Budget for fiscal 2018, which is expected to attract the private sector into the segment.

Progress of key metro projects as of fiscal 2020

Metro projects	Status
Mumbai	Work for 3 lines in advanced stages, 4 more lines under implementation, total 13 lines approved
Pune	First 2 phases on track, 3rd phase awarded on PPP
Delhi	Phase 3 almost complete, phase 4 – 3 out of 6 corridors approval received
Chennai	Phase 1 ext. line to begin soon, phase 2 yet under planning
Hyderabad	Partial COD on 2 out of 3 corridors under phase 1
Bangalore	Still some time for phase 2 to end, cost revised upwards by ~20%

In fiscal 2017, the government launched the Smart Cities Mission to transform 100 cities in the country. The project had an approved budget of Rs 480 billion over five years. The scheme focuses on providing adequate and clean water supply, sanitation, solid waste management, efficient transportation, affordable housing for the poor, power supply, robust IT connectivity, e-governance, safety and security of citizens, health, and education. The selected cities were given a Central government assistance of Rs 2 billion in the first year and promised Rs 1 billion in each of the next four years, with a matching contribution from the state governments.

Real estate sector

Real estate is a key end-user sector for PVC pipes in India. Over the past few years, demand in the real estate sector has been sluggish. Developers had to delay giving possession of projects due to various reasons, including approval delays and financial issues. The government passed the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act in 2016 that put in place a regulatory system for the sector to boost the confidence of customers. Moreover, The Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana-Urban (PMAY-U), a scheme coming under the Housing for All by 2022 programme, witnessed healthy construction over past three fiscals, particularly in fiscals 2019 and 2020.

Substitution and replacement demand

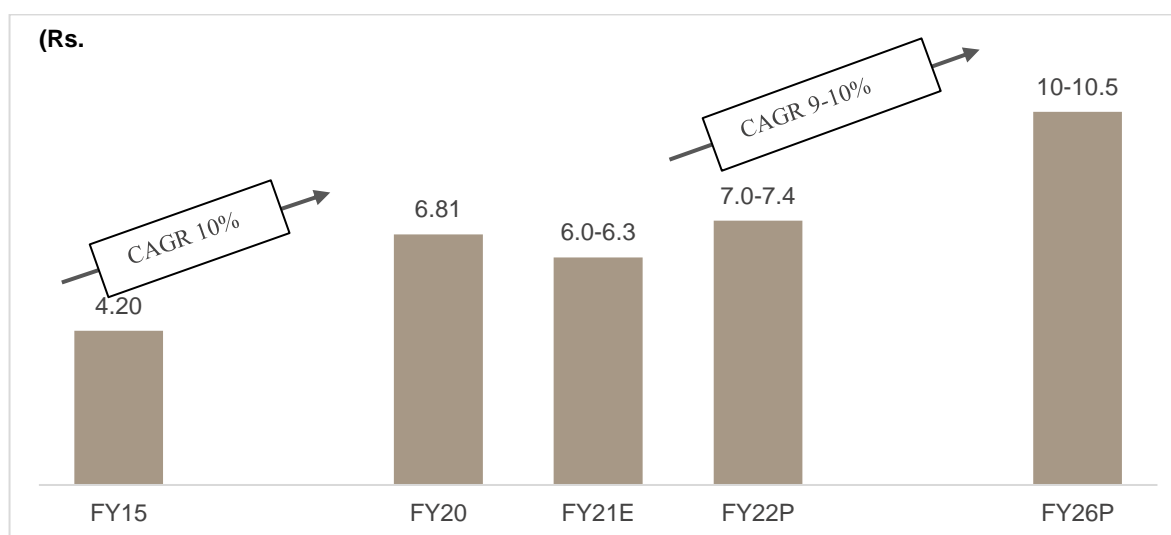

Plastic pipes have several advantages over metal pipes. For instance, raw materials used in manufacturing plastic pipes are derivatives of crude oil. Hence, prices of plastic pipes are correlated to crude oil prices. The fall in crude oil prices has comparatively lowered raw material prices, and, thus, plastic-pipe prices over fiscals 2015 to 2021. Superior real estate properties and low prices have accelerated the substitution of metal pipes by plastic pipes. The increase in the availability of raw materials (PVC, PE and PPR), following the commissioning of new petrochemical facilities in India will further support the plastic-pipes industry. Another factor driving long-term demand is the replacement of older pipes with plastic pipes.

Within the plastic pipes industry, CRISIL Research expects demand for PVC adhesives to be driven by increasing application of CPVC pipes.

Demand for PVC adhesives to be driven by rapid growth in plastic pipes industry

CRISIL Research expects PVC adhesives market to grow at a 9-11% CAGR between fiscals 2021 and 2026, due to increasing demand from the plastic pipes market. The market is expected to recover in fiscal 2022, growing at 16-17% on-year, due to an economic recovery after Covid-19 and the consequent rise in construction activity, which will lead to demand increase for pipes and fittings.

Outlook on PVC adhesives market in India

Source: CRISIL Research

In particular, the CPVC adhesives segment is expected to witness the maximum growth during fiscals 2021 to 2026, as CPVC pipes in India are still at a nascent stage and have huge potential due to factors, such as longevity, fire resistance, corrosion- and lead-free nature, and the ability to withstand high temperatures.

u-PVC adhesive demand will be driven by growth in the u-PVC pipes business, growing at an 8-10% CAGR between fiscals 2021 and 2026. These pipes find application in agriculture and plumbing for potable water supply and sewerage. Continuous replacement of galvanised iron pipes with these pipes has supported healthy demand growth in the past. Features such as affordability and longer life compared with metal pipes have aided this segment. Government initiatives, such as AIBP (Accelerated Irrigation Benefits Programme), also provide growth potential.

Overall, the share of the CPVC segment is expected to increase to over 20% from the current levels.

Peer comparison

Even while the PVC adhesives market is at an early-growth stage, competition has been growing with new companies entering the market. However, the organised sector dominates on the back of the increased brand awareness of end users.

The market has both core manufacturers and pipes and fittings players who have entered the PVC adhesive manufacturing space. While leading manufacturers include HP Adhesives Ltd., Astral Adhesives, and Ashirvad Pipes Pvt. Ltd., the latter category has Prince Pipes, Apollo Pipes, Jain Irrigation, and Supreme Industries, among others. However, these players manufacture very small volumes as compared with core manufacturers. Though the market is dominated by organised players, there are a large number of unorganised players who cater to small contractors and plumbers looking for low-cost products.

HP Adhesives Ltd. is the largest manufacturer, having 14-16% market share followed by Astral Adhesive with a share of 11-13%. Both players offer a wide range of solvent cements for various types of plastic pipes and fittings. Pidilite Limited and Ashirvad Pipes Pvt. Ltd. are also among the major manufacturers of PVC adhesives in the Indian market.

Strengths

- Consistently growing company with established brand presence

Our Company has grown from a single product to a multi- product adhesives company with sales across India (through pan-India distribution network) and also in international markets. Our revenue from operations has grown from INR 355.96 Lakhs in Fiscal 2010 to INR 11,816.16 Lakhs in Fiscal 2021, registering a CAGR of 37.5% in last 11 years. Over the years, our Company’s brands “HP” and “Strong Weld” in PVC adhesives product category have gained increasing acceptance on account of high product quality and efficient pricing. Despite Fiscal 2021 being impacted by COVID-19, our revenue from operations have grown by 39.82% between Fiscal 2020 to Fiscal 2021. This brand image has enabled us to introduce newer product categories through the existing distribution network initially and then to a larger customer base with an established goodwill. Increasing acceptance in newer product categories due to high quality and efficient pricing has further established Company’s brand reputation.

- Wide Product Portfolio and multiple SKUs

When we started our business activities, we only had one product category i.e. PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement. Over last few years, we have expanded our product portfolio to multiple product categories including silicone sealants, synthetic rubber adhesives, PVA adhesives and other sealants. Having a wide portfolio of product categories enables us to cross-sell to a large customer base (which, in our case, are majorly distributors) who in-turn reach out to large number of retail counters for serving the applicators and eventual end-customer. Having a wide product portfolio also enables our Company to efficiently compete with larger adhesive players in the market who also have a wide product offering. Our constant efforts are focused towards continuously identifying market demands and introducing relevant products with high quality. For the financial year ended on March 31, 2021, PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement generated revenues of INR 8,443.65 Lakhs which represents about 70.44% of our total sales. Silicone sealants, introduced in the year 2019, contributed approximately 7.99% in total revenue. PVA adhesives and synthetic rubber adhesives, introduced in the year 2018, together contributed about 5.33% in total revenue.

Within each product category, we have multiple SKUs in terms of grades, pack sizes for various applications thereby enabling us to meet the needs of diverse customer base. In PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement, we have 295 SKUs. Similarly in silicone sealants, we have 16 SKUs. In PVA adhesives, we have 75 SKUs. Our wide range of SKUs from 10 ml tubes to 200 litre drums help us cover both small jobs as well as project applications.

- Focusing on multiple end-user industries

We have over the last few years introduced new product categories which have diverse end-use applications. Initially when we started with PVC adhesives, we were primarily dependent on the PVC and cPVC pipes industry (irrigation, plumbing and water transport) for its growth. Subsequently, we have now established a good presence in silicone sealants, which has helped us to diversify into more end-user industries such as automobiles, electronic devices and appliances, glass and glazing, external weather sealing, general interior sealing, bathroom and sanitary, uPVC door and window industry, ACP panel industry, wood working (in case of PVA adhesives) and furniture, footwear, handicrafts, automotive, PVC flooring, AC ducting, upholstery, foam- mattresses, non-woven and thermal insulation leather, (in case of synthetic rubber adhesives). This expansion has facilitated a diversified product portfolio and has helped us create demand for our adhesives and sealants across various end-user industries.

- Diversified customer-base

- Extensive distribution network across India catering to customers

We have established our distribution network strategically over the last several years to meet our goals. Our distributors cater to retailers who, in turn, make the product available for end-users (typically plumbers, carpenters, masons, glazing contractors, etc). Our sales team services the retail network through the distributors by making regular visits. For the financial year ended on March 31, 2021, out of our total revenue from operations, our sales to distributors was about INR 8,573.79 Lakhs which represents 71.52% of our total sales. We have more than 750 distributors and no distributor constitutes more than 4% of our total sales. Top 10 distributors contributed not more than 20% of total sales in Fiscal 2021. Our distributors are also spread across the country having presence in 23 states and 4 union territories.

- Established presence in International markets

It is our Company's philosophy to develop and manufacture good quality products. This has helped our Company to develop and grow the exports business consistently. Our Company has received the prestigious NSF International certification in the year 2011. NSF is considered as a benchmark of quality and safety for products linked to drinking water distribution. Our customers in international markets are primarily from Middle East and Indian sub-continent and we have increasing presence in USA, Africa, South-East Asia and Europe. These customers are large distributors or organized retailers in their respective countries and our products are well accepted by these customers because of high quality. Our exports business constitutes 17.20% of sales in the Fiscal 2021 and has grown 17.30% CAGR over last 11 years. As of March 31, 2021, we have sold our products in 21 countries in recent months in spite of the impact due to the pandemic.

- Institutional sales to select large players

Due to our emphasis on product quality and efficient manufacturing at competitive pricing, select players from the end-user industry have relied upon our Company to procure adhesives for their markets. This business opportunity has helped us to develop larger customer base for our products. We have business relationship with large PVC pipe companies in this segment for over a decade. These products carry a co-branding/ private label strategy further strengthening our market position even in our own channel. These large customers are generally PVC pipe companies whose validation creates additional brand strength for us.

- Synergy of young and experienced management team with a committed employee base

We have a strong management team with considerable industry experience. Our Promoters, Mrs. Anjana Haresh Motwani and Mr. Karan Haresh Motwani have been instrumental in the growth of our business. Our Promoters have, between themselves, over four decades of experience in the adhesives industry. Mr. Karan Motwani, who joined the business in 2007, has 14 years of experience in this industry and has played a key role in introducing new product categories and expanding distribution network across the country while continuing to strengthen the presence in international markets. We are backed by a synergized crew of experienced and young support team which has been built up over the years and has been contributory in achieving the goals of our Company.

Our key business functions like sales, production, finance, HR and supply chain play key role in efficient day-to-day operations of the Company. We endeavour to maintain a balance of highly experienced and young professionals in the team. Our Board of Directors includes a combination of management executives and independent members who bring in significant business expertise including in the areas of administration and management, manufacturing, finance, compliance and audit.

As we are a fast growing organization, our team size has increased considerably in the last few years, particularly our sales team. We have a well-defined organization structure including our sales team. We have a cordial relationship with our employee base across offices, sales depots and manufacturing location.

- Efficient manufacturing set-up with scope for expansion

Our manufacturing facility is located at Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra which is at a distance of about 80 kms from Mumbai, Maharashtra. The land where our manufacturing facility has been established is owned by our Promoters and the same has been licensed out to our Company. Over last few years, we have expanded our manufacturing capacities by making incremental additions to our equipment with growth in our business. We have also made consistent investments in automation of our manufacturing facility which has in turn helped us in increased productivity.

We are also in the process of expanding by setting up an additional unit admeasuring about 5,397.53 sq. mtrs. (built-up) area on the adjacent plot. Our manufacturing facility is strategically located within proximity to JNPT port from where we receive key raw material supplies.

- Effective quality checks thereby reducing batch failure

We have developed rigorous quality control processes. We inspect all the raw materials we receive as well as work-in-progress and final products. We have implemented internal procedures to ensure quality control at various stages of production, from procurement of raw material, production to inventory storage. Our manufacturing facility has personnel responsible for monitoring the parameters of equipment, stability of materials, reporting any irregularities in the manufacturing process and making adjustments accordingly. These levels of quality checks ensure maintenance of our brand value for quality of products.

- R&D set up for constant product improvement and new product development

Our Company has extensive research and development experience. We focus on developing cost effective manufacturing processes as well as new and cost- efficient products. Our Company has a dedicated team of research and development personnel which is continuously engaged in developing new products and processes.

Strategy

- Continue to introduce new product categories

As a growth strategy, our Company is focused to introduce new product categories to cater to more end-users. This helps in strengthening the relationship with existing distribution network as they have a larger product basket to offer to their customers, at the same time, we onboard new distributors in untapped segments and regions. Identifying and developing new products and product categories is a continuous exercise that the management team engages into as we believe that the market opportunity is immense for high quality, competitively priced products in the Indian market.

- Further expand our distribution network across India and globally

Over the last several years, our Company has constantly expanded the distribution network across the country and this continues to be one of the core strategies of the Company to further expand the distribution network. Having a wider product portfolio and an established brand presence in existing products, provides confidence to new distributors to engage with our Company. While we believe in growing the distribution network, proper area marking and financial credibility check is done before appointing a distributor to ensure a good service and reputation in the market without hurting our existing channel. Profile of every distributor that is on-boarded is matched with our well-established criteria and the relationship with every new distributor is gradually built upon.

- Further strengthen brand image

Over last several years, our Company has made consistent efforts to strengthen the brands “Strong Weld”, “HP” and now in newer product categories like “Strong Seal” (for silicone sealant) and “Strong Fix” (for PVA and synthetic rubber adhesives) by undertaking several marketing and promotion initiatives. Going forward, our Company will strive to further bolster this brand image by undertaking marketing initiatives which will not only increase the visibility in the market but also create a strong brand recall. Though the bigger product category of PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement has helped us establish in the market, increasing marketing and sales promotion activities for newer product categories going forward will take our brand image to the next level.

- Expansion of manufacturing facility

We are in the process of carrying out capacity expansion plans at our existing manufacturing facility at Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra to aid our growth efforts and pan-India presence. We intend to use a part of the Net Proceeds towards expansion of our manufacturing facility. For further details on the expansion, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 94 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

- Increasing the size of the field staff will help secondary penetration

Our key focus is to increase our penetration in the markets where we currently operate by replicating the same proposition that has helped us grow in the past. There is significant untapped opportunity in rural and semi-urban areas that can be capitalized by expanding our sales team. As of March 31, 2021, we had a strength of 174 sales team members and intend to keep growing the team.

- Enhancing demand by incentivizing the product end- user i.e., applier

Our sales are driven by the appliers that are typically plumbers, carpenters, masons and glazing contractors. We offer incentives to these appliers through additional gifts on a select range of products. We also incentivize the distributors based on purchase volumes and payment practices. We intend to continue the marketing of our products through incentivization for the appliers which will help to ensure more loyalty.

- Plant automation to improve productivity

We intend to automatize the process of manufacturing and packaging. The plant & machinery at the facility under expansion is targeted to be more automated to reduce human intervention and thus decreasing the scope of human error. The entire activity will lead to higher efficiency and production output.

- Technology integration for all business functions

We believe that through investments in our technology infrastructure, we have been able to increase our operational efficiencies and achieve economies of scale. We also believe that such initiatives will drive cost efficiencies, improve customer service, reduce manual workload and integrating our business functions thereby improving our business processes.

- Continue to drive business based on people-centric policies and practices

We believe members of our workforce are a key part of our business success and therefore we maintain people-centric policies and practices. While our management leads us ably in achieving our growth and expansion goals, identification and retention of key talent is crucial to our business. We will continue to strive to provide a positive, safe and collaborative working environment to our employees and invest in structured training and upskilling programs for them. This will promote a culture of meritocracy and diversity and drive them give their best output.

Our Manufactured Products

Consumer and Bazaar Adhesives

PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement

PVC, cPVC and uPVC Solvent Cement is a solution of solvents and additives combined with resins. A more common way to distinguish solvent cement is by viscosity. Solvent cement viscosity can be classified into the following three categories:

- (i) Regular bodied (RD)
- (ii) Medium bodied (MD)
- (iii) Heavy bodied (HD)

PVC, cPVC and uPVC solvent cement is broadly used in PVC, cPVC pipes, uPVC pipes, electrical piping systems. We manufacture the solvent cement in all three viscosity categories in different colours including clear, yellow, orange, blue, grey and purple. The following table elaborates our product portfolio of solvent cement:

Product	Brand Name	Type	Application/ End Use
PVC, cPVC and uPVC Solvent Cement	- HP - STRONG WELD	PVC	- PVC pipes and fittings for irrigation, sewage and drainage - Electrical piping system
		cPVC	cPVC pipes and fittings for hot and cold plumbing system
		uPVC	uPVC pipes and fittings for high pressure plumbing system
		Primer & Cleaner	All Purpose

Synthetic Rubber Adhesives

Synthetic Rubber (SR) adhesives provide the advantage of high initial tack. They are based on adhesives that exhibit the ability to bond themselves to different surfaces. These dry surfaces bond immediately on application of the adhesive. Once the bond has been made, it is typically pressed or rolled to insure complete contact. The high initial tack of SR adhesives makes them ideal for a variety of applications.

We manufacture brushable and sprayable contact adhesive in different grades in clear, yellow and brown colours. The following table elaborates on our product portfolio of contact adhesive:

Product	Brand Name	Type	Application/ End Use
SR Adhesive	STRONG FIX	Brushable	Furniture Footwear Handicrafts Automotive PVC flooring

Product	Brand Name	Type	Application/ End Use
		Sprayable	AC ducting Upholstery Foam and Mattresses Non-woven Thermal insulation

PVA Adhesive

Polyvinyl acetate, commonly known as wood glue or carpenter's glue, is a widely available adhesive used for porous materials like wood, paper, cardboard and crafts.

We manufacture various grades of PVA adhesive including gold, silver and aqua. The following table elaborates on our product portfolio of silicone sealant:

Product	Brand Name	Application/ End Use
PVA Adhesive	STRONG FIX	Woodworking Other general purposes

Sealants

Silicone and Acrylic Sealant

Silicone sealant is a liquid form of adhesive, it looks, feels and acts like a thick gel. It has a different chemical make-up from other organic polymer-based adhesives. Unlike other adhesives, silicone keeps its elasticity and stability in both high and low temperatures. Furthermore, silicone sealant is resistant to other chemicals, moisture, and weathering. This makes it less likely to fail when building and repairing objects.

Acrylic sealant is a sealing material, mainly obtained from acrylic resins. Overcoat painting can be carried out on acrylic sealant for interior and exterior decoration.

These sealants are commonly used to bind or seal surfaces such as plastic, metal and glass together. Being resistant to high temperatures they are commonly used in automobiles, electronic devices, solar panels, doors and windows. These are also widely used in glazing, external weather sealing general interior sealing, bathroom and sanitary, and exterior applications in relation to construction.

We manufacture these sealants in various grades in clear, white, black, grey and customized colours. The following table elaborates on our product portfolio of sealants:

Product	Brand Name	Type	Application/ End Use
Silicon and Acrylic Sealant	STRONG SEAL	Acetoxxy	Automobiles Electronic devices and appliances Glass and glazing External weather sealing General interior sealing Bathroom and sanitary
		Neutral	UPVC and aluminum door and window industry
		Acrylic	ACP (aluminum composite panel) industry

Other Sealants

We also manufacture gasket shellac, metal pipe-fitting sealants and PVC pipe lubricants. Gasket shellac sealant is a slow-drying, hard setting liquid designed to coat, seal and repair most gaskets. It is used on flanged surfaces, gaskets, threaded assemblies and hose connections. Gasket shellac are manufactured in standard grade in black colour. Rubber lubricant is used for simple, quick, watertight joint in drainage pipes. Metal thread sealants are used to make a leak-proof joint on threaded metal pipes and fittings including chrome plated bathroom fittings.

We sell the above products under our own brand names and also manufacture the same for select third-party companies as per their requirements.

Ancillary Products

Ball Valve

A ball valve is a shut off valve that controls the flow of water by means of a rotary ball. By rotating the ball a quarter turn (90 degrees) around its axis, the water can be blocked or released. They are characterized by a long service life and provide a reliable sealing over the life span, even when the valve is not in use for a long time. They are utilized the most when water needs to be shut off to carry out cleaning or repair and maintenance of the water inlet or outlet lines. We outsource the manufacturing of ball valves as it does not enjoy economies of scale in India. This outsourced as per our specification and we sell them to our customers under our brand name.

Tapes

PTFE Tape

Polytetrafluoroethylene (PTFE) film tape, also known as Teflon tape or plumber's tape, is commonly used in plumbing for sealing pipe threads. The tape is made in various widths and wound on a spool, making it easy to wind around pipe threads. This tape lubricates allowing for a deeper seating and unscrewing even after long periods of time.

Typically, the tape is wrapped around a pipe thread multiple times before the pipe is screwed into place. It is commonly used commercially in applications including pressurized water systems and central heating systems. We outsource the manufacturing of PTFE tapes and get them made in various sizes and white and yellow colours. We sell them under our brand name.

Masking Tape

Masking tape is a type of pressure-sensitive tape made of a thin and easy-to-tear paper, and an easy release pressure-sensitive adhesive. It is available in a variety of widths and lengths. It is used mainly during painting, carpentry and other interior project work to protect expensive materials and surfaces like glass, laminates and others from getting stained.

The adhesive is the key element to its usefulness, as it allows the tape to be easily removed without leaving residue or damaging the surface to which it is applied.

We outsource the manufacturing of masking tapes in various sizes and sell in our own brand name.

FRP Products

Fiber-reinforced plastic (FRP) is a composite plastic made up of polymer that is supported with fiber glass and polyester resins for strength. Composite plastics refers to those types of plastics that result from bonding two or more homogeneous materials with different material properties to derive a final product with certain desired material and mechanical properties. Fiber-reinforced plastic is useful in terms of corrosion protection because it helps in preventing corrosion due to force application and deformation such as stress corrosion cracking. Fiber-reinforced plastic may also be known as fiber-reinforced polymer.

The portfolio of FRP products includes:

- (i) FRP Manhole Covers
- (ii) FRP Water Gully Cover
- (iii) FRP Recessed Cover
- (iv) FRP Overhead Tank Cover
- (v) FRP Molded Gratings

Manufacturing Facility

We operate from our manufacturing facility in Village Narangi, Raigad, Maharashtra. Our manufacturing facility is supported by infrastructure for storage of raw materials, manufacture of adhesives, storage of finished goods, together with a quality control and research & development laboratory.

We source raw materials from suppliers based on quality specifications and cost effectiveness. Easily available materials are procured from suppliers located in close proximity to our manufacturing facilities to minimise inward freight costs and reduce the cost of raw materials. Whereas certain chemicals, resins and additives are imported from preferred suppliers across China, Germany, Japan, US etc.

The power requirements for this facility are met through the local state power grid and power back-ups to operate packaging lines and general lighting, while water is procured from the third-party water supplier.

The information relating to the installed production capacity of our manufacturing facility, as included above and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates that have been taken into account by the Chartered Engineer for calculation of our capacity. These assumptions and estimates include the standard capacity calculation practice of the adhesives and sealants industry after examining the calculations and explanations provided by us. The assumptions and estimates taken into account include the following: (i) Number of working days in the FY 2019-20: 258; (ii) Number of working days in the FY 2019-20: 288; and (iii) Batch per day is considered on 8 hour working of the plant per day.

Actual production levels and utilization rates may vary from the capacity information of our manufacturing facility included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and undue reliance should not be placed on such information. Please see Risk Factor No. 42 “Information relating to the installed manufacturing capacity and capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity may vary.” on page 53 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus .

Proposed Expansion Plans

In order to meet the growing demand for adhesives and sealants, we propose to expand our facility to increase capacities for manufacturing our existing products and also begin manufacturing Epoxy Adhesives and Spray Paint to further expand our market base.

This proposed expansion shall be on a land parcel that is owned by our Promoters and taken on Leave and License basis by us, which is adjacent to our existing manufacturing unit. The unit is being set-up for the purpose of manufacturing our existing products PVC, cPVC and uPVC Solvent Cement, Synthetic Rubber Adhesive, PVA Adhesives, Silicone Sealant, Gasket Shellac, PVC pipe Lubricants as well as begin manufacturing of new products such as epoxy adhesives and spray paint. Consistent with past practice, we will look to add capacity in a phased manner to ensure that we utilize our capacity at optimal levels.

Post completion of our proposed expansion plans, the expansion unit is expected to have an estimated installed capacity of 25,489 MTPA and is expected to be operational during Fiscal 2024. Please also see the chapter titled “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 94 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The information on our proposed expansion plans are indicative and remain subject to the potential problems and uncertainties that construction projects face including cost overruns or delays. We are in the process of obtaining various consents, approvals and acknowledgements from regulatory authorities that are routine in nature in relation to the proposed expansion at the Facility.

Also see, Risk Factor No. 2 “Our proposed capacity expansion plans relating to our manufacturing facility are subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation and cost overruns.” on page 31, and “Government and Other Approvals - Approvals applied for but not received ” beginning on page 258 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Procurement of Raw Materials

The primary raw materials used in the manufacture of adhesives include solvents like acetone, methyl ethyl ketone, cyclohexanone, toluene and resins and other additives. Primary raw materials for sealants include silicon polymers, silicone oil, silica and catalysts. In Fiscal 2020 and 2021 the cost of raw materials and components consumed represented 64% and 68.70%, respectively, of our revenue from operations. Raw materials are primarily transported to the manufacturing facilities by road. We source raw materials from a number of suppliers mainly based in and around the states in which we have our manufacturing facilities. We also import a few raw materials including resins, polymer and others from Japan, China, Germany and USA.

Manufacturing Process

Adhesives

Inspection of Raw Materials: The incoming materials are inspected upon delivery pursuant to quality control specifications. Raw materials are accepted and stored only after they have passed the relevant quality control tests.

Mixing: Relevant solvents are selected and weighed pursuant to the product codes for each batch of product to be manufactured. Solvents are then loaded and mixed. For PVA adhesives, water is mixed with polymers and other raw materials are added in the mixer and mixed. Temperature controls are to be followed as per the defined process to get the optimum output from the batch. Colour, as per the requirement, is added after the mixture is mixed and the required viscosity levels are achieved.

Testing: Samples of the batches made are tested and inspected pursuant to the quality control requirements and the product specifications in respect of density, viscosity, adhesion, flexibility, level of drying and colour (if any).

Packaging and Storing or Transportation: After passing quality control tests, the solvents and adhesives manufactured are packed, labelled and transported to the depots as per the inventory management system.

Sealants

Inspection of Raw Materials: The incoming materials are inspected upon delivery pursuant to quality control specifications. Raw materials are accepted and stored only after they have passed the relevant quality control tests.

Vessel Preparation: Vessel is prepared along with the required raw materials in accordance with the specifications of the product manufacturing norms.

Mixing: The prepared vessel is attached to the mixer for mixing, other additives are gradually added to this mixture. Temperature is kept under check as per the manufacturing norms. Colour, as per the requirement, is added after the mixture is mixed and the required viscosity levels are achieved.

Testing: Samples of the batches made are tested and inspected pursuant to the quality control requirements and the product specifications in respect of density, viscosity, adhesion, flexibility, level of drying and colour (if any).

Packaging and Storing or Transportation: After passing quality control tests, the sealants manufactured are packed, labelled and transported to the depots as per the inventory management system.

Inventory Management

Our finished products are stored on-site at our manufacturing facility and at our depots. We produce a quantity of finished products that is determined based on a combination of confirmed and expected orders.

Distribution Network and Sales

Our distribution network and infrastructure comprises depots operated by us, distributors that we engage with and the applicators community in India. For the year ended March 2021, we distributed our products across 23 states and 4 union territories in India and we had depots located across 4 states in India.

Our depots operate as primary freight destination points and secondary freight origin points. Finished products are dispatched from our manufacturing facilities to our depots and are subsequently dispatched from our depots to individual distributors.

We supply our products to the distributors based on purchase orders issued. Each of our depots comprises a depot head, area sales managers and frontline sales officers. The frontline sales officers and area sales managers operate in the field and collect orders from distributors in their respective areas, which are then posted on the CRM software. Upon receipt of orders, the products are dispatched from the inventory maintained at the depot after due verification of the credit cycle of the distributor. Inventory at the depot is replenished on arrival of products from the manufacturing facility, based on the prevailing sales trends and demand forecast by the sales team.

Engagements with distributors and the applier community

Our distributor network is well integrated with our marketing and promotional activities and helps in strengthening our brand image. For instance, some of our distributors display advertising boards for our products at their outlets to attract consumers. We also consistently engage with our distributors and the appliers community by distributing branded merchandise and conducting a range of activities such as carpenters' meets and plumbers' meets. We also incentivize distributors based on purchase volumes and payment practices. See "Pricing" on page 151 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Appliers are incentivised through additional gifts on a select range of products. These engagements help us improve our brand image, sales and applier's loyalty.

Pricing

All materials are pre- printed with a prescribed Maximum Retail Price ("MRP") which includes all applicable taxes. Distributors are offered various types of discounts and incentives based on the volumes purchased and payment practices followed. We offer turnover discounts to distributors on the basis of volume of business with select distributors over a period of time.

Logistics

Our raw materials and finished products are primarily transported by road. Our suppliers directly deliver our raw materials to our manufacturing facility. We outsource the delivery of our products to third-party logistics companies. We rely on freight forwarders to deliver our products from our manufacturing facility to our depots and onwards to distributor outlets. We do not have long-term contractual relationships with our freight forwarders.

Utilities

Our business operations require use of power. Our power requirement for our manufacturing facility is sourced from the state power grid. Our manufacturing processes require uninterrupted supply of power in order to ensure that we are able to manufacture quality products. To ensure uninterrupted supply of power we have also installed back-up diesel generators at our manufacturing facility. We require minimal amounts of water for our manufacturing activities and rely on third party water supplier for the supply of water. Also see " – Manufacturing Facilities" on page 147 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Brand building & Marketing

We have invested significantly in the promotion of the brands "HP" and "Strong Weld" and our sales promotion expenses in Fiscal 2019-20 and 2020-21 were ₹ 313.28 Lakhs and ₹ 11.75 Lakhs, respectively representing 3.70% and 0.09% of our revenue from operations in such periods, respectively. We believe this investment in the promotion of our brand is one of the key factors that has enabled us to build awareness, grow our network of distributors across multiple regions, we will continue to benefit from the same historical investments in the brand as we execute our future growth plans.

We utilise a number of avenues to promote our brand and products, including our network of distributors and our relationship with the end- use appliers.

Technical Collaborations

We do not have any technical collaborations as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Information technology

We believe that an appropriate information technology infrastructure is important in order to support the growth of our business. Our IT infrastructure enables us to track procurement of raw materials, sale of finished goods and orders from distributors. We utilize accounting and CRM software which covers sales, purchase, inventory and financial reporting, across all our depots and the manufacturing facility.

Competition

The Indian adhesives and sealants industry has historically been dominated by few major players and presents significant entry barriers. These market entry barriers include the development of an extensive distribution network through long-term relationships with distributors, marketing cost and activities and the establishment of a distinct brand to gain product acceptance. We compete with such players on the strength of our distribution network, quality, brand recognition and ability to leverage our distributor relationships to connect with the end- use appliers.

We believe we are well-positioned to compete with these companies given our differentiated strategy where we seek to fulfil unmet product requirements, while at the same time offering a wide range of adhesive products across India. A significant amount of investment is required for the establishment of brand reputation and to penetrate into the sales network in India. With over three decades of operating history and the quality of our products, our product development capability and our range of adhesives for different applications, we believe that we have the competitive strengths in the adhesives market in India. For further information on the competition we face in the markets in which we operate, please see the chapter titled “Industry Overview” beginning on page 118 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Quality Control

We place significant emphasis on quality control. Our quality management system with respect to our manufacturing facility has been certified to conform to ISO 9001:2015 and NSF/ANSI 14 requirements, subject to periodic audits conducted by ISO and NSF.

We inspect the raw materials we receive, work-in-progress and final products. We have implemented internal procedures to ensure quality control at various stages of production, from procurement of raw material, production to inventory storage. Our manufacturing facility has personnel responsible for monitoring the parameters of equipment, stability of materials, reporting any irregularities in the manufacturing process or the final output and making adjustments accordingly.

Health and Safety

Our activities are subject to pollution control laws and various regulations which govern, among other matters, the storage and handling of flammable substances. For further information, please refer to the chapter titled “Key Industry Regulations and Policies” beginning on page 155 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We continue to ensure compliance with applicable health and safety regulations and other requirements in our operations.

We have complied, and will continue to comply, with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. We have obtained, or are in the process of obtaining or renewing, all material consents and licenses from the relevant governmental agencies that are necessary for us to carry on our business. For further information, please see the chapter titled “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page 258 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Insurance

We have purchased insurance in order to manage the risk of losses from potentially harmful events, including: (i) insurance policy covering fire, damage to buildings, plant and machinery, stocks (raw materials and finished goods); (ii) motor insurance policies covering the vehicles and (iii) policy covering damage to stocks at our depots. These insurance policies are renewed periodically to ensure that the coverage is adequate. Our insurance covers our manufacturing facility and all of our operational depots.

Classification into current and non-current:

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current / non-current classification.

- It is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the Company's normal operating cycle;
 - It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
 - It is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting date; or

 - It is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting date; or the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.
- Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current only

The Restated Financial Statements have been presented in Indian Rupees (INR), which is the Company's functional currency. All financial information presented in INR has been rounded off to the nearest two decimals of Lakh, unless otherwise stated.

2.2 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, are stated at cost of acquisition or construction less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Cost of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price net of any discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recovered from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use, other incidental expenses, decommissioning costs, if any, and interest on borrowings attributable to acquisition of qualifying asset up to the date the asset is ready for its intended use.

It includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy based on Ind AS 23 – Borrowing costs. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of PPE when completed and ready for intended use.

Assets in the course of construction are capitalised in the assets under construction account. At the point when an asset is operating at management's intended use, the cost of construction is transferred to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment and depreciation commences. Costs associated with the commissioning of an asset and any obligatory decommissioning costs are capitalised where the asset is available for use but incapable of operating at normal levels until a year of commissioning has been completed. Revenue generated from production during the trial period is capitalised.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognized when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to

Statement of Profit and Loss during the year in which they are incurred.

Property, plant and equipment's residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and changes, if any, are treated as changes in accounting estimate.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives

The estimate of the useful life of the assets has been assessed based on technical advice which considers the nature of the asset, the usage of the asset, expected physical wear and tear, the operating conditions of the asset, anticipated technological changes, manufacturers warranties and maintenance support, etc. Based on management's evaluation, the Company uses straight-line method and has used following useful lives to provide depreciation of different class of its property, plant and equipment:

Assets Category -	Estimated Useful Life
Building	30 years
Plant & Machinery	15 years
Furniture & Fixtures	10 years
Vehicles	10 years
Computer & Software	3-6 years
Office Equipments	5 years

Based on the management's assessment of useful life, certain items of property plant and equipment are being depreciated over useful lives different from the prescribed useful lives under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013. Management believes that such estimated useful lives are realistic and reflect fair approximation of the period over which the assets are likely to be used.

Depreciation on addition to property plant and equipment is provided on pro-rata basis from the date of acquisition. Depreciation on sale/deduction from property plant and equipment is provided up to the date preceding the date of sale, deduction as the case may be. Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in Statement of Profit and Loss under 'Other Income'.

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, as appropriate.

Residual value of Plant & Machinery is considered as 5% of the cost and for other assets as Rs.100.

2.3 Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at acquisition cost, net of accumulated amortization.

The Company amortize intangible assets over their estimated useful lives using the straight line method. The estimated useful lives of intangible assets are as follows:

Intangible assets	Estimated Useful Life
Trade Mark	5 years

Intangible assets with finite lives are assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortization period and the amortization method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end.

2.4 Capital work in progress

Projects under which tangible fixed assets are not yet ready for their intended use are carried at cost, comprising direct cost and related incidental expenses.

2.5 Impairment

At the end of each reporting year, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. Where a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.6 Inventories

Raw materials and stores, work in progress, traded and finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of raw materials and traded goods comprises cost of purchases.

Cost of work-in-progress and finished goods comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure. Fixed overheads are allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Cost of inventories also include all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost includes the reclassification from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges relating to purchases of raw material. Costs are assigned to the individual items in a group of inventories on the basis of weighted average cost basis. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Costs of inventories are determined on First in First out (FIFO) basis. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Cost of inventory comprises all costs of purchase, duties, taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from tax authorities) and all other costs incurred in bringing the inventory to their present location and condition.

2.7 Revenue recognition

Sale of goods

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. The Company recognises revenues on sale of products, net of discounts, sales incentives, rebates granted, returns, sales taxes/GST and duties when the products are delivered to customer or when delivered to a carrier for export sale, which is when title and risk and rewards of ownership pass to the customer. Export incentives are recognised as income as per the terms of the scheme in respect of the exports made and included as part of export turnover. Revenue from sales is recognised when control of the products has transferred, being when the products are delivered to the customer, the customer has full discretion over the channel and price to sell / consume the products, and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer's acceptance of the products. Delivery occurs when the products have been shipped to the specific location, the risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customer, and either the customer has accepted the products in accordance with the sales contract or the acceptance provisions have lapsed.

Company has 3 main streams of revenue:

i. Sale of goods to distributors – Company recognize revenue when the goods are delivered to its customer since the customer does not have right to return material unless it has confirmation from the Company.

ii. Sale of goods to OEM

iii. Export sales – Company recognize revenue when the goods are delivered on FOB basis; since the customer does not have right to return material unless it has confirmation from the Company.

Revenue is measured net of discounts, incentives, rebates etc. given to the customers on the Company's sales. The Company's presence across different marketing regions within the country and the competitive business makes the assessment of various type of discounts, incentives and rebates as complex and judgemental.

Dividend & Interest income

Dividend income from investments if any to be recognised only when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established (provided that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably).

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

2.8 Leases As a lessee

The company recognises a Right-of-use (ROU) Asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received.

The right-of-use asset is subsequently depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The estimated useful lives of right-of-use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property and equipment. In addition, the right-of-use asset is periodically reduced by impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for certain re-measurements of the lease liability.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, company's incremental borrowing rate. Generally, the company uses its incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate. The lease liability is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.9 Foreign exchange translation

The functional currency of the Company is Indian Rupees which represents the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions are generally recognised in profit or loss. Monetary balances arising from the transactions denominated in foreign currency are translated to functional currency using the exchange rate as on the reporting date. Any gains or loss on such translation, are generally recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the Statement of Profit and Loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a net basis within other gains/(losses).

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined.

2.10 Income taxes

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's current tax is calculated using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Financial Statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in Other Comprehensive Income or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT)

Provisions of MAT are not applicable as company has opted to pay tax under section 115 BAA of Income Tax Act, 1961.

Current and deferred tax expense is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

2.11 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs, if any, general or specific, that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets is capitalized as part of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

The Company determines the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation as the actual borrowing costs incurred on that borrowing during the year less any interest income earned on temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets, to the extent that an entity borrows funds specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset. In case if the Company borrows generally and uses the funds for obtaining a qualifying asset, borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation are determined by applying a capitalisation rate to the expenditures on that asset.

Borrowing cost includes exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the finance cost.

2.12 Provisions & Contingencies

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Provisions for restructuring are recognised by the Company when it has developed a detailed formal plan for restructuring and has raised a valid expectation in those affected that the Company will carry out the restructuring by starting to implement the plan or announcing its main features to those affected by it.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, it's carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). The measurement of provision for restructuring includes only direct expenditures arising from the restructuring, which are both necessarily entailed by the restructuring and not associated with the ongoing activities of the Company.

A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not require an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits or the amount of such obligation cannot be measured reliably. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which likelihood of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

2.13 Employee Benefits

(a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the year in which the employees render the related service are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the year and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

(b) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

(i) Defined contribution plan

Provident Fund: The Company's contributions to statutory provident fund in accordance with the Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 which is a defined contribution plan, are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period of accrual. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund.

Superannuation Fund: Employees of the Company above a prescribed grade are entitled to receive retirement benefits under the Company's superannuation fund scheme. The contributions made by the Company to the approved Employees' Superannuation Fund Scheme under the scheme administered and managed by a trust, towards defined contribution plan for eligible employees are charged to Profit and Loss in the period of accrual.

(ii) Defined benefit plans

The Company provides for retirement benefits in the form of Gratuity. Benefits payable to eligible employees of the Company with respect to gratuity is accounted for on the basis of an actuarial valuation as at the Balance Sheet date. The present value of such obligation is determined by the projected unit credit method and adjusted for past service cost and fair value of plan assets as at the balance sheet date through which the obligations are to be settled.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses and the return on plan assets (excluding net interest) is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge/credit recognised in Other Comprehensive Income ("OCI") in the period in which they occur.

Remeasurements recognised in OCI is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

(iii) Other employee benefits

Compensated absences which accrue to employees and which can be carried to future periods but are excepted to be encashed/ availed within twelve months immediately following the year end are reported as expenses during the year in which employees perform the services that the benefit covers and the liabilities are reported at the undiscounted amount of the benefits. Where the availment or encashment is otherwise not excepted to wholly occur within the next twelve months, the liability on account of the benefit is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method.

2.14 Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

(a) Financial assets

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

At initial recognition, financial asset is measured at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in following categories: a) at amortized cost; or

b) at fair value through other comprehensive income; or

c) at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

Business model assessment

The company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages Company's of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The company business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios and is based on observable factors such as:

- (i) How the performance of the business model and the financial assets held within that business model are evaluated and reported to the entity's key management personnel
- (ii) The risks that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held within that business model) and, in particular, the way those risks are managed
- (iii) How managers of the business are compensated (for example, whether the compensation is based on the fair value of the assets managed or on the contractual cash flows collected)

(iv) The expected frequency, value and timing of sales are also important aspects of the Company's assessment

The business model assessment is based on reasonably expected scenarios without taking 'worst case' or 'stress case' scenarios into account. If cash flows after initial recognition are realised in a way that is different from the Company's original expectations, the Company does not change the classification of the remaining financial assets held in that business model, but incorporates such information when assessing newly originated or newly purchased financial assets going forward.

The Solely payments of Principal and Interest test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

The most significant elements of interest within a lending arrangement are typically the consideration for the time value of money and credit risk. To make the SPPI assessment, the Company applies judgement and considers relevant factors such as the currency in which the financial asset is denominated, and the period for which the interest rate is set.

In contrast, contractual terms that introduce a more than de minimis exposure to risks or volatility in the contractual cash flows that are unrelated to a basic lending arrangement do not give rise to contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the amount outstanding. In such cases, the financial asset is required to be measured at FVTPL.

Amortized cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortized cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method (EIR).

Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss. When the financial asset is derecognized, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in OCI is reclassified from equity to Statement of Profit and Loss and recognized in other gains/ (losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

Fair value through profit or loss: Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortized cost or FVOCI are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income.

Equity instruments: All equity investments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading and contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS103 applies are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Company may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The Company makes such election on an instrument- by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable.

If the Company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to P&L, even on sale of investment. However, the Company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity.

Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognized in the profit and loss.

(iii) Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, the Company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on financial assets.

For recognition of impairment loss on financial assets and risk exposure, the Company determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If in subsequent years, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognizing impairment loss allowance based on 12 month ECL.

Life time ECLs are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The 12 month ECL is a portion of the lifetime ECL which results from default events that are possible within 12 months after the year end.

ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Company in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (i.e. all shortfalls), discounted at the original EIR. When estimating the cash flows, an entity is required to consider all contractual terms of the financial instrument (including prepayment, extension etc.) over the expected life of the financial instrument. However, in rare cases when the expected life of the financial instrument cannot be estimated reliably, then the entity is required to use the remaining contractual term of the financial instrument.

ECL impairment loss allowance (or reversal) recognized during the year is recognized as income/expense in the statement of profit and loss. In balance sheet ECL for financial assets measured at amortized cost is presented as an allowance, i.e. as an integral part of the measurement of those assets in the balance sheet. The allowance reduces the net carrying amount. Until the asset meets write off criteria, the Company does not reduce impairment allowance from the gross carrying amount.

Company measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses for Trade receivables (i.e.'simplified approach').

(iv) Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset is derecognized only when

- a) the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset is transferred or
- b) retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where the financial asset is transferred then in that case financial asset is derecognized only if substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset is transferred. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognized.

(b) Financial liabilities

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and at amortized cost, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Presently company has not included transaction costs based on materiality.

(iii) Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss as finance costs.

2.15 Cash & cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the Balance Sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.16 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new ordinary shares and share options and buyback of ordinary shares, if any are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

2.17 Offsetting financial instrument

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle financial asset and liability on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

2.18 Segments reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. Chief Financial Officer assesses the financial performance and position of the Company and makes strategic decisions. Chief Financial Officer has been identified as Chief Operating Decision Maker.

2.19 Earnings per share Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax by weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for treasury shares, bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares).

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit after tax after considering the effect of interest and other financing costs or income (net of attributable taxes) associated with dilutive potential equity shares by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares including the treasury shares held by the Company to satisfy the exercise of the share options by the employees.

2.20 Measurement of EBITDA

The Company has opted to present earnings before interest (finance cost), tax, depreciation and amortisation (EBITDA) as a separate line item on the face of the Statement of Profit and Loss for the period. The company measures EBITDA based on profit/(loss) from continuing operations.

2.21 Uncertainty relating to the global health pandemic on COVID-19 -

In assessing the recoverability of receivables including unbilled receivables, contract assets and contract costs, goodwill, intangible assets, certain investments, the Company has considered internal and external information up to the date of approval of these financial statements including credit reports and economic forecasts. The company has performed sensitivity analysis on the assumption used herein. Based on the current indicators of future economic conditions, the Company expects to recover the carrying amount of these assets

3 Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of

3.1 Estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the year end date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Company based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Company. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

(a) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

As described in the significant accounting policies, the Company reviews the estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets at the end of each reporting period. Company has determined useful life assets based on expert opinion. Useful lives of intangible assets is determined on the basis of estimated benefits to be derived from use of such intangible assets. These reassessments may result in change in the depreciation /amortisation expense in future periods.

(b) Fair value measurements and valuation processes

Some of the Company's assets and liabilities are measured at fair value at each balance sheet date or at the time they are assessed for impairment. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the Company engages third party valuers, where required, to perform the valuation. Information about the valuation techniques and inputs used in determining the fair value of various assets and liabilities require estimates to be made by the management and are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

(c) Actuarial Valuation

The determination of Company's liability towards defined benefit obligation to employees is made through independent actuarial valuation including determination of amounts to be recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss and in Other Comprehensive Income. Such valuation depend upon assumptions determined after taking into account discount rate, salary growth rate, expected rate of return, mortality and attrition rate. Information about such valuation is provided in notes to the financial statements.

(d) Impairment of trade receivables

As per Ind AS 109 impairment allowance has been determined based on expected credit loss method.

(e) Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The Company has applied judgments that significantly affect the determination of the amount and timing of revenue from contracts with customers

(f) Effective interest rate

For the requirement of Ind AS 109 and Ind AS 116, company has used incremental borrowing rate as the rate for discounting and amortising. This incremental borrowing rate reflects the rate of interest that the company would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar nature and value in a similar economic environment. Determination of the incremental borrowing rate requires estimation.

FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL ASSETS AND FINANCIAL LIABILITIES

XXXI(F)

The fair value of other current financial assets, cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, trade payables, commission payable and other financial liabilities (including creditors for expense etc.) approximate the carrying amounts because of the short term nature of these financial instruments.

The amortized cost using effective interest rate (EIR) of non-current financial - term deposits is not significantly different from the carrying amount.

The amortized cost using effective interest rate (EIR) of Borrowing (non current and current) is not significantly different from the carrying amount, based on management estimate that interest rates has not changed materially.

Financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired include cash and cash equivalents, security deposits, term deposits, and other financial assets.

- Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3 - Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The following table presents fair value hierarchy of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

XXXI(G)

The Company is exposed to various financial risks. These risks are categorized into market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Company's risk management is coordinated by the Board of Directors and focuses on securing long term and short term cash flows. The Company does not engage in trading of financial assets for speculative purposes.

(A) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include borrowings.

(i) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's debt obligations with floating interest rates.

Interest rate sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings. With all other variables held constant, the Company's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

		(₹ in Lakh)
Years		Outstanding Borrowing Amount	Increase/decrease in basis points	Impact on profit before tax
2021
INR	Variable Interest Rate Borrowings	2,582.07 (₹ in Lakh)	+100	25.82 (25.82)
USD	Variable Interest Rate Borrowings	210.76 ($ in '000)	-100	2.11 (2.11)
2021
INR	Variable Interest Rate Borrowings	1,894.67 (₹ in Lakh)	+100	18.95 (18.95)
USD	Variable Interest Rate Borrowings	234.60 ($ in '000)	-100	2.35

(ii) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in foreign exchange rates relates primarily to the Company's operating activities (when revenue or expense is denominated in a different currency from the Company's functional currency).

Foreign currency sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the foreign currency exchange rate, with all other variables held constant, of the Company's profit before tax (due to changes in the fair value of monetary assets and liabilities). The Company's exposure to foreign currency changes for all other currencies is not material.

Amt in $
	Outstanding Borrowing Amount	Increase/ decrease	Impact on profit before tax
2021	4,27,175	+5%	21,358.75
		-5%	(21,358.75)
2020	2,00,255	+5%	10,012.75
		-5%	(10,012.75)

(B) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying value of the financial assets. The objective of managing counterparty credit risk is to prevent losses in financial assets. The Company assesses the credit quality of the counterparties, taking into account their financial position, past experience and other factors.

The Company limits its exposure to credit risk of cash held with banks by dealing with highly rated banks and institutions and retaining sufficient balances in bank accounts required to meet a month's operational costs. The Management reviews the bank accounts on regular basis and fund drawdowns are planned to ensure that there is minimal surplus cash in bank accounts. The Company does not foresee any credit risks on deposits with regulatory authorities and lease deposits and/or any other financial assets.

(C) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company manages its liquidity risk by ensuring, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due.

The table below summarizes the maturity profile of the Company's financial liabilities:

There has been disruption to regular business operations due to the measures taken to curb the impact of the pandemic. The Company's plants, warehouses and offices were shut post announcement of nationwide lockdown. Most of the operations have resumed post lifting of lockdown. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an RIB had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the Designated Intermediary and use his/ her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 had extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till March 31, 2020. Further, SEBI vide its circular no. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days during this phase.

Phase III: The commencement period of Phase III is yet to be notified. In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing is proposed to be reduced to three Working Days.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the FDI Policy of the Government of India and FEMA and the circulars and notifications issued thereunder. While the FDI Policy prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. The Government has from time to time made policy pronouncements on foreign direct investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases.

The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DPIIT”), formerly known as Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion issued the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2020 (“FDI Policy”) by way of circular bearing number DPIIT file number 5(2)/2020-FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020, which with effect from October 15, 2020, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect as on October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular. Up to 100% foreign investment under the automatic route is currently permitted in the “Manufacturing” sector. For details, see “Key Industry Regulations and Policies” on page 155.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI.

Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country (“Restricted Investors”), will require prior approval of the Government, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made a similar amendment to the FEMA Rules. Each Bidder should seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Offer. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder shall intimate our Company and the Registrar in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Offer Period.

As per the existing policy of the Government, OCBs could not participate in this Offer.

The Equity Shares offered in the Offer have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or any other applicable law of the United States and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold within the United States, except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. Accordingly, the Equity Shares are only being offered and sold (i) within the United States only to persons reasonably believed to be “qualified institutional buyers” (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act and referred to in this Prospectus as “U.S. QIBs”) in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, and (ii) outside the United States in offshore transactions in compliance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act and the applicable laws of the jurisdiction where those offers and sales occur. For the avoidance of doubt, the term “U.S. QIBs” does not refer to a category of institutional investors defined under applicable Indian regulations and referred to in this Prospectus as “QIBs”.

The Equity Shares have not been and will not be registered, listed or otherwise qualified in any other jurisdiction outside India and may not be offered or sold, and Bids may not be made by persons in any such jurisdiction, except in compliance with the applicable laws of such jurisdiction.

For further details, see “Offer Procedure” beginning on page 283 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The above information is given for the benefit of the Bidders. Our Company and the Book Running Lead Managers are not liable for any amendments or modification or changes in applicable laws or regulations, which may occur after the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Bidders are advised to make their independent investigations and ensure that the number of Equity Shares Bid for did not exceed the applicable limits under laws or regulations.
