MISSION

“Elevate the quality of life of urban consumers by offering unparalleled convenience”

From the CEO's desk

Dear Shareholders,

It is my pleasure to present to you our Q4 and FY26 Shareholders' letter.

Turning to the quarter's updates, our Food GOV grew 22.6% YoY, which is the highest since demand normalised in the post-COVID period. While this acceleration is definitely exciting, we are particularly pleased to see this being driven by a sharper increase in order and user volumes as opposed to AOVs. These markers make us feel good about the durability of our demand and validate our push to keep solving for core user needs in food delivery. Apart from Bolt, One BLCK and 99-store that continue to drive user growth, the recently introduced Eat Right offering has gained currency with consumers with higher than platform AOVs. We continue to power ahead on the profitability journey with disciplined improvement in contribution margin and operating leverage with our best ever Adjusted EBITDA margins of 3.3% (+26 bps QoQ).

While many inputs on price, selection, convenience continue to be important to drive growth in food delivery, we believe that affordability will be the biggest amongst these to drive strong growth in food delivery. We have been relentless in our pursuit of winning ideas to open up affordability further and our experiments in 99-Store, quick food (Snacc) and more recently in affordable restaurant marketplace (Toing) have been attempts towards solving this use case. We proactively shut down Snacc during the quarter as we were not convinced on the steady state size of the category for the incremental complexity involved to run the business.

The quick commerce category continues to remain a very highly competitive segment in a multi-player market. The increasing competition has only made it clearer to us that increasing our staying power and doubling down on our differentiation is the only path to winning in the medium term. In a year where the number of players and competitive intensity has only increased, we would have paced the most forward in our unit economics to secure our staying power. Our contribution margin improved to -1.8% of GOV during the quarter and further improved to -1.1% for the month of Mar-26. Adjusted EBITDA losses reduced to INR 858 Cr; and we expect to continue demonstrating a glide-path towards profitability, without resorting to any short-term decisions. Getting to a CM of zero sooner also will allow us to incentivise growth for profitability rather than to see it as a tradeoff. While this focus has meant a temporary order volume slowdown, it has also offered us the opportunity to look inward and focus even harder on identifying more durable inputs for growth. All of this should come together in subsequent quarters to drive faster and profitable growth.

Beyond the staying power, we fully recognise that our long-term chances of winning are hinged strongly on our ability to drive differentiation and distinctive positioning for Instamart. With quick deliveries increasingly becoming a commoditised market, every participant in the category has to choose between being a differentiated platform or a value-led/price-led one. Having reflected hard, and been buoyed by early green shoots we are seeing with some differentiation efforts, we feel definitively that the right answer for Instamart's long-term success will be more differentiation-led and not value/price-led. While some of these efforts (like Noice, our clean-food private brand) have demonstrated strong stickiness to the platform, our job is very clearly cut out to be able to work with partner brands to solve for this differentiation across more categories and consumption occasions to allow consumers to feel a more broad-based difference in what Instamart can offer them.

Our Out-of-Home Consumption business continued its steady profitability trajectory in Q4. The Dineout platform crossed 52k average monthly active restaurant partners (9% QoQ). GOV grew 43% YoY to INR 1,245 Cr and Adjusted EBITDA margins expanded to 0.8% during the quarter through growing brand advertising revenue, consistent with the playbook that has made this segment a sustainably profitable business today. The GIRF (Great Indian Restaurant Festival), our flagship event further accentuated restaurant partner depth and advertising monetisation. With the category still significantly underpenetrated even in top-tier cities, and discretionary incomes expanding, in-restaurant dining is a secular growth opportunity.

On social security, Swiggy is actively facilitating E-Shram registration for our delivery partners through coordinated awareness campaigns and close collaboration with government-led initiatives. To date, approximately 100,000 delivery partners have registered on the E-Shram portal, unlocking access to accident, health and life insurance, pension, and other government-sponsored schemes, and importantly, establishing their eligibility for benefits that will flow through the Code on Social Security, 2020 as it is implemented for gig and platform workers.

In line with our goal to empower 100,000 women across the Swiggy ecosystem by 2030 to cultivate a diverse ecosystem, this International Women's Day, we were proud to host the second edition of She The Change: Celebrating Women Chefs and Entrepreneurs, recognising over 30 exceptional women entrepreneurs and chefs from across the country, their remarkable drive and contributions to the food ecosystem.

Management Perspectives

1. Food delivery GOV has shown momentum growing over 22% YoY. What are the reasons and is it sustainable?

Food delivery GOV grew 22.6% YoY to INR 9,005 Cr in Q4FY26 (+0.5% QoQ), ahead of our guided range of 18-20%. This acceleration is the direct result of disciplined execution and the compounding effect of our focused launches across the "selection-speed-affordability" framework. This momentum led to a 15-quarter high in growth rate across our transacting user base (+21.4% YoY) and order volumes (+19.0% YoY).

In line with our goal of delivering industry-leading growth by making the platform accessible to more users across more occasions, we have continuously launched a series of innovative offerings across: a) Speed and Convenience: Our ultra-fast delivery service, Bolt, and the premium One BLCK have redefined convenience for time-sensitive users; b) Targeted Selection: Specialized offerings like Eat Right (health-focused), Desk Eats (workplace meals), and Food on Train have unlocked new use cases; and c) Affordability: The 99-Store has lowered the entry barrier for value-conscious consumers. Collectively, these speed and affordability propositions now account for approximately one fourth of our total platform volumes.

We have achieved this growth while maintaining a fine balance in consumer take-rates. While the expansion of the Swiggy One subscriber base has reduced average delivery fees, this has been effectively offset by our platform fee architecture. The total "Cost of Service" for our users (comprising delivery fees, platform fees, and membership costs) has trended down in recent quarters, ensuring that the platform remains affordable aiding sustainable growth.

We are confident of the stickiness of our recent efforts on the growth initiatives, and reiterate our sustainable medium term guidance of 18-20% YoY GOV growth.

2. Food delivery Adjusted EBITDA has grown nearly 9x in two years. What drove this, and what does it tell us about the path ahead for the overall platform?

Food delivery hit a lifetime high Adjusted EBITDA margin of 3.3% through structural contribution margin improvements (120 bps) and significant operating leverage (160 bps) over the last 2 years. Contribution margin improvements were achieved through;

- a) Ad-led revenue growth: We have expanded our take-rate by deepening our advertising ecosystem allowing higher visibility and high-intent traffic
- b) Delivery cost efficiency: Increased order density has unlocked significant operating leverage in our fleet costs. By optimizing order-per-hour efficiency, we have lowered the cost of delivery while maintaining speed and increasing driver partner earnings

c) Discounts to Habit: We have disciplined our platform-funded discounting. As specialized offerings like Bolt, 99 Store, and Eat Right build genuine consumer habits, we have successfully shifted the value proposition from "discount-led" to "utility-led"

3. Given newsflow of new competition in Food delivery, is there a risk to the growth trajectory? What are the tradeoffs between growth and profitability?

We believe that new entrants must find value vectors that established platforms do not already address. We have proactively pre-empted these openings through targeted innovations. We have been investing in affordability (99-Store, Toing), speed (Bolt, One BLCK), health (Eat Right), and occasion-specific propositions (Desk Eats, Food on Train). Each of these is an attempt to pre-empt the openings that new entrants typically seek. As a result, we do not see any near term risks to our underlying growth trajectory.

We also remain confident of our margin trajectory. This confidence is based on the structural nature of our profitability drivers, which are independent of short-term competitive shifts. Our profitability is driven by high-durable levers: a) Take-rate expansion through monetisation: As our GOV scales, the advertising pool grows incrementally, allowing us to expand contribution margins without taking aggressive pricing actions that could impact consumer demand; b) Operating leverage: As order density increases and fleet utilization optimizes, our per-delivery costs continue to moderate.

From a guidance perspective, our Adjusted EBITDA margin guidance of 5% of GOV in the medium-term remains unchanged and we continue to progressively move towards that goal.

4. Dineout / Out-of-Home Consumption has grown 43% with steadfast profitability. How should we think about the pace and trajectory of margin improvement from hereon ?

In FY26, Dineout business has now delivered its first full year of profitability. Ever since we acquired Dineout (in May-22), the thesis was to grow the offering as a high engagement adjacency to the core Food delivery proposition, offering a wrapper around restaurant experiences with additional revenue streams for the ecosystem. On a full year basis, we have achieved 0.6% EBITDA margin from -12% (in FY23) for the platform while incrementally unlocking significant growth for our restaurant partners.

We now have over 52k active restaurant partners on Dineout, growing at 36% YoY with restaurant additions at a multi quarter high. Cross-sell from Food delivery to dining, has created a compounding organic flywheel of brand recognition for the restaurant and consumer retention for the platform. This under-penetrated market continues to grow faster, command higher AOVs with a premium customer wallet, bringing together the premium dining and entertainment experience under one umbrella. We believe that this market continues to grow faster than Food delivery, and can achieve a 5% Adjusted EBITDA margin profile over the medium term.

5. How have the two initiatives of Toing and Snacc fared?

The Platform Innovations segment exists as a deliberate sandbox and a structured home for experiments that test new consumer propositions and business models. The thesis has always been that unlocking the next wave of growth requires challenging existing paradigms, not just optimising them. We launched, tested, and shut down Snacc within the fiscal year. The micro-kitchen model requires a high density of demand in micro markets to operate on sustainable economics. We proactively shut down Snacc during the quarter as we were not convinced on the steady state size of the category for the incremental complexity involved to run the business.

Toing is a recent extension of our affordability push targeting budget-conscious consumers through a restaurant-marketplace model with a brand identity distinct from Swiggy's primary platform. We are currently in an experimentation phase and will share more details as we endeavour to find the product market fit for this offering.

6. Quick commerce growth seems to have decelerated. What is the near and medium term growth outlook for the business?

We had addressed this question in our Q3FY26 shareholders' letter where we had called out the nature of competitive intensity at play in the sector and the choices we are making which makes it extremely tough to predict near term growth outlook. We had also tested the saliency and velocity of user behaviours through the no-fee campaign and decided to roll it back in January'26 thereby choosing to forgo such inducement-led volume gains. Despite this, we have delivered better sequential volume growth in Q4 (8.2% vs 5.5%, adjusted for number of days).

We reiterate that a platform's growth choices should be indexed on economics versus absolute volume increase, as theoretically one can grow significantly higher volumes in the short term in a large addressable market. However, the sustainability of that approach is questionable considering the high operating variable costs in the business as well as the expiry date attached to higher than sustainable consumer inducements. We have made massive strides of changing the contribution margin profile of the business by 450 bps in a year.

The medium term opportunity in this sector remains very attractive and we see ourselves well placed to appropriate a large share of the industry growth from here, having achieved sustainable unit economics. We see ourselves growing to over 1 lakh crore Net order value business with 4-5% EBITDA over the medium term.

7. Can you elaborate more on your contribution margin improvement from -5.6% to -1.8% (-1.1% for Mar-26) over the last one year and the structural choices made during the year to drive this?

We had set a goal of contribution margin breakeven latest by Q1FY27 back in Q4FY25 when our CM loss had peaked at -5.6%. The peak CM loss was due to the strategic investment choices that were made in establishing our network infrastructure to cater to the consumer needs of the evolved quick commerce offering.

We have since made substantial progress of 450 bps of CM improvement till Mar-26 and are confident of achieving the break-even guidance in Q1FY27 (in line with our goal). We are perhaps the only player in the industry who has made such rapid progress in the CM trajectory in a short time. This has been achieved by increased monetisation, larger basket size (increased AOV), operating leverage in both fixed and semi-variable costs, and consumer incentive rationalization.

In response to heightened sector competition and the prevalence of irrational discounting even on low-value transactions, we made the deliberate choice to prioritize margin integrity over vanity volume. By actively pivoting away from unprofitable low AOV consumers and related orders, we have significantly changed the order mix by halving their share during this period. We also repurposed our consumer incentives to move away from direct wallet subsidy to a concept which focuses on sustainable growth, building long-term shopping habits, and attracting a high-retention customer cohort. As a result, our NOV to GOV ratio improved by 330 bps from a low of 68.7% to 72.0%.

We continue to see significant improvement in both our mature stores and geographical profitability with the top decile of stores across geographies now operating at 3-5% contribution margin and the most mature city operating at close to ~3% CM at the consolidated city level.

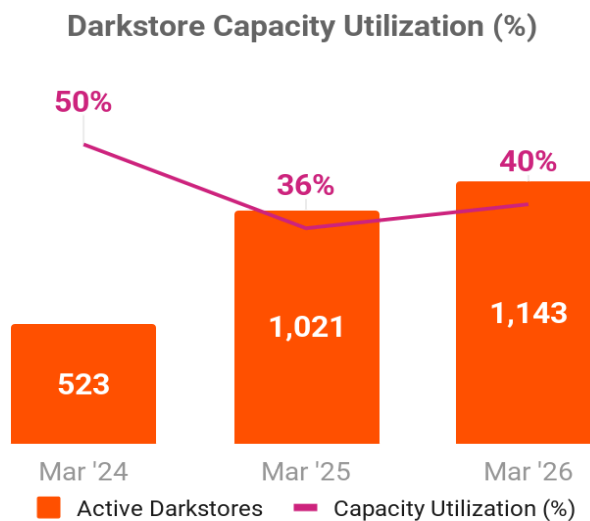

8. Instamart has added very few stores over the past year while peers have been expanding aggressively. Is the restrained pace a reflection of strategy, financial caution, or a different view of the market?

Our store expansion strategy has been designed backwards from our choice of geographical expansion and the relevant coverage in those cities to cater to >90% of the addressable demand. We also densified the network to achieve the best in class delivery experience and cater to the ever widening assortment choices on the platform. As a result, our store count increased 2.2x from 523 to 1,143 and more importantly, the dark store footprint area went up by 3.2x over the last two years (from 1.5 million sq ft to 4.8 million sq ft).

This rapid expansion was a necessary investment to make and compete effectively on the consumer proposition. This burdened the CM trajectory of the overall platform in the short-term which has now started to demonstrate visible operating leverage as the utilization improves. We will continue to see compounding operating leverage with increased utilization from the current ~40% and can comfortably double our business without the need to add additional stores (other than those required for densification due to maxing out on utilization).

Having achieved the densification and geographical coverage increase, store expansion hereafter will be a derivative of growth and utilization. Also, the time to operationalise a new store from the point of decision is less than 90 days and therefore we can remain agile to the market opportunity and growth curve without having to commit large store expansion numbers in the short term.

9. What is Instamart’s positioning amidst what is rapidly becoming a cluttered market, with serious players having limited differentiation driving significant value-led competition? What will drive MTU growth and frequency?

Quick commerce is a crowded space as categories with large TAMs, clear consumer love, and growing penetration will always attract capital and competition. However, as we take a closer look, while many players are indeed participating in the category, some differences do start becoming apparent. There are a set of players that either already occupy or intend to occupy higher salience in the convenience retailer archetype, and there are another set of players that are now taking aim at the price-led/value-led retailer archetype. It’s almost an absolute imperative for any platform to pick a choice to improve chances of long-term success.

Our intention is to definitely play in the convenience segment, and cement our positioning on top. While a right to play in this segment will be predicated on reliable delivery, width of assortment (~ 50k SKUs) and live SKU availability, our strategy to build a distinctive and durable business is to shape stronger positioning for Instamart as a destination for everyday upgrades as opposed to just everyday essentials. While serving all latent need states for our core consumers today, we want to improve their experience on the platform by offering differentiated assortment/propositions that make it easier to upgrade to a better lifestyle. We believe that there's a huge opportunity in democratising the growing aspiration of the Indian consumer by providing exclusive access, and are seeing early green shoots in our efforts with Noice, our clean-label brand. When we are able to work with our partner brands to make our consumers notice these upgrades across more and more categories/consumption occasions, it will cement the desired imagery/positioning around Instamart and increase stickiness significantly versus today. In the end, improving the everyday convenience aspect while doubling down on this assortment positioning will drive MTU growth and frequency. While we have definitely begun the journey here, it's not a flip of a switch and we are fully committed to making this more and more visible over the next 1-2 quarters.

10. We have been reading media reports about the shortage of gig economy workers due to seasonal migration and election in key states. What has been the impact due to this?

Currently, we are navigating a significant confluence of the peak harvest season and major state elections which has triggered a temporary but widespread migration of the gig workforce over the last four weeks that has constrained delivery partner supply across the entire industry.

We have seen a momentary increase in our promised delivery times across some cities due to the above and have had to make some hard choices on demand throttling via surges and long distance calibration of serviceability in high demand areas. We expect the situation to start normalising over the next couple of weeks.

11. What is the cash balance as of Q4FY26?

As at March 31, 2026, Swiggy's consolidated cash and cash equivalents stood at INR 15,053 Cr.

Our net working capital deployed in the business went up by 252 crores on a sequential basis owing to increased collection cycles which is expected to normalise in the coming quarter. Our capex investments of 188 crores were primarily on the warehouse infrastructure investments (overall warehousing footprint increase of over 50% on a YoY basis) as well as the relocation of our corporate headquarters. We expect the overall capex investments to meaningfully come down in FY27 with significant head room having been created over the last 2 years in our dark store and warehousing infrastructure network build-out.

We believe that Non-GAAP financial information, when taken collectively with financial measures prepared in accordance with Ind AS, provides an additional tool for investors to use in assessment of our ongoing operating results and trends because it provides consistency and comparability with past financial performance.

Non GAAP measures used by us are defined below :

Adjusted Revenue = Consolidated Revenue from operations as per financials plus (i) user delivery charges collected and passed on to delivery partners (net of any discounts, including free delivery discounts provided through Swiggy One membership program), plus (ii) fee from user (that is not already included in revenue from operations) collected and netted off from platform funded discounts given for corresponding orders.

Adjusted EBITDA = Profit/loss as per financials excluding (i) tax expense (ii) other income (iii) depreciation and amortization expense (iv) finance cost (v) exceptional items (vi) share in net loss of an associate (vii) share based payment expense and (viii) rental expenses pertaining to 'Ind AS 116 leases'

These measures should be considered in addition to, not as substitutes for, or in isolation from, measures prepared in accordance with Ind AS.

4. The Statement has been prepared on the basis of the consolidated annual financial statements and has been approved by the Holding Company's Board of Directors. The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Statement that gives a true and fair view of the consolidated net loss and other comprehensive income, and other financial information of the Group including its associate in accordance with the Ind AS prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations. Further, in terms of the provisions of the Act, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its associate, are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act, for safeguarding of the assets of the Group, and its associate, and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively, for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial results, that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. These financial results have been used for the purpose of preparation of the Statement by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.
5. In preparing the Statement, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associate, are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and of its associate, to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting, unless the respective Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.
6. Those respective Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the companies included in the Group and of its associate.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Statement

7. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act will always detect a material misstatement, when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error, and are considered material if, individually, or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this Statement.
8. As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:
 - Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Statement, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
 - Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls;
 - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors;
 - Conclude on the appropriateness of Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associate, to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Statement or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associate to cease to continue as a going concern;
 - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Statement, including the disclosures, and whether the Statement represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation; and
 - Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial statements of the entities or business activities within the Group, and its associate, to express an opinion on the Statement. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of financial information of such entities included in the Statement, of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the Statement, which have been audited by the other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Walker ChandioK & Co LLP

9. We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the Statement, of which we are the independent auditors, regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
10. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
11. We also performed procedures in accordance with circular issued by the SEBI under Regulation 33 (8) of the Listing Regulations, to the extent applicable.

12. The Statement includes the Group's share of net loss after tax of ₹ 4 crores, and total comprehensive loss of ₹ 4 crores for the year ended 31 March 2026, in respect of one associate, based on their annual financial information, which has not been audited by its auditor. This financial information has been furnished to us by the Holding Company's management. Our opinion, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of aforesaid associate, is based solely on such unaudited financial information. In our opinion, and according to the information and explanations given to us by the management, this financial information is not material to the Group.

7. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Statement or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern; and
