Business Overview

Housing Loans

Serving the Underserved 'Missing Middle'

SRG Housing provides long-term home loans to rural and semi-urban borrowers overlooked by large commercial banks. Target customers are self-employed informal workers small traders, artisans, and business owners — who lack formal income documentation but demonstrate strong repayment capacity. AUM grew 79% over 2 years: INR 420 Cr (FY24) to INR 750 Cr (FY26), reflecting deep unmet demand in this credit gap.

Core Housing Portfolio with Self-Employed Focus

72% of AUM is dedicated to home construction, purchase, and extension loans. Over 74% of borrowers are self-employed. Avg. ticket size (HL): INR 16.99L keeping the portfolio granular and limiting single-borrower concentration risk. Yield on average (HL): 19.53%, generating industry-leading NIM of 10.65%, a direct function of operating in high-spread informal markets inaccessible to large banks.

Field-Based Underwriting

88% of loans sourced directly by own employees — low DSA dependency eliminates mis-selling risk and preserves underwriting integrity. Field officers physically visit borrower businesses to map daily cash flows via surrogate income analysis. This proprietary credit assessment methodology is the primary competitive moat, creating a structural barrier that cannot be replicated by algorithm-driven lenders.

Prudent Risk Management with Low LTV

Conservative LTV of ~53% ensures strong borrower equity contribution, substantially reducing default risk during volatile economic cycles. GNPA (HL) stable at 1.64%, NNPA (HL) at 0.60%. Capital Adequacy Ratio: 38.62% — nearly 2.6x the regulatory minimum — providing an expansive runway for leveraged growth.

Working Capital for Micro-Entrepreneurs

SRG's LAP segment which is 29% of AUM, INR 292 Cr serves micro-entrepreneurs in rural markets who require working capital or emergency liquidity. This segment commands a 20.97% lending rate, with average LTV of 47.40%.

Ultra-Conservative Collateral Margins

A strict LTV of 47.4% means every LAP loan is backed by more than double the property value in collateral — effectively creating a 2x+ safety buffer. GNPA on the LAP book stands at 2.10%, only marginally above the HL segment (GNPA: 1.64%), validating the collateral-first underwriting discipline. Even in distress scenarios, the collateral cushion absorbs significant value erosion before principal is impaired.

Micro-Ticket Granularity & Dual-Check Underwriting

Average ticket size of ~INR 10.7 Lakhs, repayment capacity is assessed through an 'Asset-Income' dual-check — validating both property value and the stability of the borrower's local business cash flows.
