Independent Auditors' Report

To,
The Members,
Aaswa Trading & Export Limited.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of Aaswa Trading & Export Limited as at 31st March, 2014 and the related Profit and Loss Account and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to form a basis for our audit opinion.

Notes forming part of accounts1 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- a. The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost convention basis and as a going concern with revenues considered and expenses accounted for wherever possible on their accrual, including provisions/adjustments for committed obligations.

b. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles ('GAAP') requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision of accounting estimates is recognized prospectively in current and future periods.

c. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at historical costs.

d. Depreciation

The company has provided depreciation under written down value method on all assets at the rates and in the manner specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956, as amended by notification no. GSR 756 (E) dated December 16, 1993 together with circular no. 14 dated December 20, 1993, issued by the Department of Company Affairs.

e. Inventories

Inventories are valued at cost.

f. Employee Benefits

Provision for gratuity is determined as per the provisions of the Gratuity Act, 1972.

g. Sales and Purchases

Sales and Purchases accounted net of returns and discounts.

h. Recognition of Income and Expenditure

Income and expenditure are recognised on accrual basis.

i. Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liabilities are not provided for in the books of accounts. The same are separately disclosed in the notes forming part of accounts.

j. Taxes on Income:

Provision for current tax provision is made annually based on the tax liability computed after considering tax allowances and deductions.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing difference between the accounting income and the taxable income for the year that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Such deferred tax is quantified using the tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted as on the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax assets are recognised and carried forward to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Notes forming part of accountsk. Impairment Loss

Impairment loss is provided to the extent the carrying amount of assets exceeds their recoverable amounts. Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net selling price and its value. Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Net selling price is the amount obtainable from sale of the asset in the arm's length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, less the costs of disposal.

l. Provisions and Contingencies

Provisions are recognised when the company has a legal and constructive obligation as a result of a past event, for which it is probable that cash outflow will be required and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Contingent liabilities are disclosed when the company has a possible or present obligation where it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle it. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed.
