Managing Director's Message:

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me immense pleasure to address you on behalf of the Board of Directors of Chambal Breweries & Distilleries Limited and to present our thoughts on the Company's journey and the path ahead.

Since its incorporation in 1985, the Company has built its identity around the trading and distribution of alcoholic beverages, with a focus on quality, customer reach and availability. Our endeavour has always been to deliver quality products to consumers while continuously improving efficiency and strengthening our market presence.

The journey of the Company, however, has also been marked by a challenging operating environment. Changes in government policies and regulatory conditions significantly impacted the liquor business, resulting in the Company remaining largely inactive in its principal business activities during the recent years. We recognise the challenges of the past, but we also believe that every period of transition creates an opportunity to reassess, rebuild and prepare for the future.

As we look ahead, our focus is on creating a sustainable and stronger platform for the Company's next phase of growth. We intend to remain attentive to emerging opportunities, evaluate viable avenues for business development and make prudent decisions that are aligned with the long-term interests of the Company and its stakeholders.

Our vision remains centered on quality, efficiency, responsible growth and expanding our reach. We believe that a disciplined approach, coupled with adaptability and sound governance, will be essential in building a stronger and more resilient organisation.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

As the management of the Company, we present this narrative overview and analysis of the financial and operational activities for the financial year ended 31 st March, 2026. This should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and accompanying notes.

Industry structure and developments

The Company operates in the trading and retailing sectors of Indian Made Foreign Liquor (IMFL) and beer. IMFL is the largest segment within India's alcoholic beverage industry and includes whisky, rum, brandy, vodka, and gin. Despite steady growth driven by rising disposable income and social acceptance, the industry is highly regulated. High taxation, production and retail restrictions, and state-controlled distribution systems continue to challenge growth and scalability.

Opportunities

- Growing Population & Rising Income: With 13 million people reaching drinking age each year, the premium segment continues to expand.
- Urbanization & Lifestyle Changes: Shifting lifestyles and urban growth are expanding the consumer base for branded alcoholic beverages.
- Product Diversification: Rising demand for flavored liquors and craft spirits offers scope for portfolio expansion.
- Online Liquor Platforms: The emergence of e-commerce in alcohol sales post-pandemic presents new distribution opportunities.
- Foreign Investment & Innovation: Enhanced capital inflow and modern production techniques contribute to product and operational efficiency.

Threats

- Regulatory Restrictions: Stringent licensing, taxation, and state monopolies create operational inflexibility.
- Health Awareness: Growing focus on health may shift demand away from alcohol.
- Economic Instability: Declines in disposable income may affect discretionary spending.
- Cultural and Regional Differences: Acceptance and regulation vary across states, impactng consistent expansion.
- Environmental & Counterfeit Challenges: Rising sustainability costs and illicit alcohol distribution affect brand trust and margins.

Segment-wise or product-wise performance

Due to continued unfavorable government policies, no business operations in IMFL and beer retail were carried out during FYs 2015-16 to 2025-26. However, the management remains committed to pursuing new business opportunities in the sector.

Outlook

The Company aims to optimize cost structures, identify growth channels, and capitalize on emerging market opportunities. Barring unforeseen circumstances. it remains cautiously optimistic about enhancing profitability and stakeholder value in the coming years.

Risks & concerns

The Indian alcoholic beverages industry, while promising, remains exposed to policy risk, high taxation, and licensing complexity. These factors, along with competitive pressure and social trends, require constant adaptability. Nevertheless, India remains a high -potential market due to its demographic and economic profile.

Internal control systems and their adequacy

The Company maintains a robust internal control system that aligns with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Controls are in place to safeguard assets, ensure transaction accuracy, and support operational efficiency. The Audit Committee periodically reviews internal audit findings and ensures timely corrective actions.
