Mr Arvind Uppal, Chairman Whirlpool of India Limited said, "Whirlpool has delivered a very strong quarter across all financial levers. Underlying growth momentum in the home appliances industry continues to be very healthy. Despite the headwinds due to the re-emergence of COVID and inflationary trends, we remain optimistic about the longer term trends for our business."

Mr Vishal Bhola, Managing Director Whirlpool of India Limited said, "It was a really strong end to the year with an acceleration in topline growth and profitability. The performance came on the back of strong and broad based double digit volume growth. All categories and geographies showed continued momentum which helped end the year with the business growing ahead of markets. We continue to be optimistic about our short and medium term prospects."
