“Due to the IP centricity of our business model, we will ride the wave that approaches with the global economic ripples. In addition, the measures taken by our company on the personnel front are leading to a reduced attrition. We plan to continue strengthening our company’s culture by inducting an equally large number of freshers this year as well”, says Mr. Vishnu R Dusad, MD, Nucleus Software.

“In addition to the deep domain expertise our colleagues have in the field of Banking and Financial Services, as well as the cutting-edge technological platforms we have built, our company’s focus on operational excellence has helped us go live with some of the most complex implementations at a global scale in the last quarter. We continue to add various feathers to our cap of implementations of FinnOne Neo as well as FinnAxia, our flagship products. This success is reflected in our quarterly results”, says Mr. Parag Bhise, CEO, Nucleus Software.
