We are unfortunately falling behind the projected pace for achieving our target of operating income for 2024 - 2025. Having acknowledged this reality head-on, I would like to analyse the business environment for fiscal 2025 - 2026, the results achieved over the past, and the challenges that have emerged. In fiscal 2024 - 2025, our business environment was significantly impacted by uncertainties surrounding economic outlook, shifts in market dynamics due to oversupply, and intensifying competition from the rising technological capabilities of emerging enterprises in the rest of our country and the suture industry in INDIA is increasingly facing challenges to its traditional technological supremacy.

Our core managerial team has excellent medical device industry experience and most of them have been associated with our Company since its formative years. CENTENIAL is committed to working closely with our suppliers and making far-reaching changes across our value chain by encouraging our business partners, suppliers and hospitals, nursing homes to adopt responsible and sustainable practices. However, we are confident that our integrated capabilities and execution brilliance will continue to drive our brand CENTENIAL prominence in INDIA. Further details of operations are given in the management discussion and analysis report, which forms part of this report.

The financial year 2024 - 2025 was a tough year but again this year we reaffirmed our strong medical devices base and our team focused on sutures – Absorbable and Non absorbable Sutures, yielding promising outcomes even in the face of extreme pricing and revenue pressures, intensified international competition and regulatory challenges. The competition in this business sector intensified during the year as more brands, both local and imported, entered the market to get a share of the demand. Your Company is fully committed to the global standards of excellence – from design and engineering to manufacturing and service. Your Company leverages the expertise and application knowledge of the global suture requirements for cardiovascular sutures in particular, to bring advanced atraumatic needle product development to our Indian Surgeons. Continuous innovation in the areas of design, research and development of atraumatic needle, simulation and validation, testing and services, are the key value creation driver for our company. Within the cardiovascular division, Centenial offers a wide range of product codes which includes over 300 codes produced catalogue that cover applications for CABG. Your Company enjoys deep manufacturing capabilities and know-how in Cardiovascular Sutures, materials and atraumatic needles, that makes it a trusted partner. Quality is of paramount importance for your Company. It has always been your Company's goal to consistently ensure high quality and product safety in all applications. As a part of CENTENIAL's strategy, your Company has also widened the scope of quality to include two additional aspects efficiency and reliability. Your Company has achieved continuous cost and efficiency improvements. At the same time, your Company aims for better synchronised control, capacity utilisation, and optimised logistics.

Despite these circumstances, the CENTENIAL growth domains have continued to show steady progress, as reflected in our growth rates for the past five years. However, we must acknowledge that the overall pace is somewhat behind our initial plans. The suture business, in particular, has encountered challenges such as increased competition making the return to a growth trajectory an urgent priority. However, external factors such as the price rise in raw materials, changes in domestic market dynamics due to oversupply have so far prevented us from reaching the desired level. Moving forward, we recognise the need to accelerate the phase of restructuring to swiftly enhance and stabilise profitability.

The quality and safety of our products are critical to our business and the Company's reputation of its brands, form the foundation of our relationships with SURGEONS and suppliers. Many of our brands have country wide recognition and our financial success is directly dependent on the success of our brands. The success of our brands can suffer if our marketing and advertising plans or product initiatives do not have the desired impact on a brand's image or its ability to attract confidence in our SURGEONS. Our market environment is highly competitive with international, regional and local competitors. In many of the markets and industry segments in which we sell our products, we compete against other products. Additionally, many of the product segments in which we compete are differentiated by price tiers. We are well positioned in the industry segments and markets in which we operate, often holding a leadership or significant market share position.

The medical device industry is highly competitive. CENTENIAL competes with many domestic and foreign medical device companies ranging from small start-up enterprises that might sell only a single or limited number of competitive products or compete only in a specific market segment, to companies that are larger and more established than us, have a broad range of competitive products, participate in numerous markets, tenders and have access to significantly greater financial and marketing resources than CENTENIAL. In addition, the medical device industry is characterized by extensive product research and development and rapid technological advances. The future success of our business will depend, in part, on our ability to design and manufacture new competitive products and enhance existing medical devices / products. Our medical devices / product development efforts may require us to make substantial investments. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully develop new medical devices / products, enhance existing medical devices / products or achieve market acceptance of our medical devices / products, due to, among other things, our inability to identify viable new medical devices / products; maintain sufficient liquidity to fund our investments in development of medical device / product ; obtain adequate intellectual property protection; gain market acceptance of new medical devices / products; or successfully obtain regulatory approvals from CDSCO. In addition, our competitors currently may be developing, or may develop in the future, medical device / products that provide better features, clinical outcomes or economic value than those that we currently offer or subsequently develop. Our failure to successfully develop and market new medical devices / products or enhance existing medical devices / products could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Your Company has been vigorously working to keep its surgeons abreast of technological advancements through revamp and upgradation of atraumatic needles with latest technology so as to ensure better sustainability. Your Company is working on a range of new atraumatic needles and combinations of atraumatic needles and sutures, products and services to consistently exceed SURGEONS expectations. This year CENTENIAL also emphasised on training its employees in PRODUCT THINKING for better and newer ways of marketing so as to foster a culture of innovation and substantial progress. We already have a capable organization with immense trust and loyalty of our surgeons. As we move ahead in our journey, we may need swift adaptation and tough decisions, especially for evolving to a product portfolio that is more focused on latest atraumatic needles innovation. As we look ahead, we see a year of continuing challenges but at the same time we are geared up to make the company more efficient, to take on the current and future competitive challenges. We are convinced that your support and cooperation will strengthen CENTENIAL. I would also like to express my appreciation to each of you, for your support and understanding as we move on into the new financial year with great hope.

I have repeatedly emphasized that the key players in executing these strategies are our employees. No matter how excellent the strategies may be, they cannot be realized without the commitment of the employees who carry them out. Particularly in building a solutions-based business model, it is crucial to shift the mindset of our employees from the traditional daily approach to a multifaceted perspective that drives the creation of new businesses. Through daily communication with our employees, I sense that an awareness of the need to take on new challenges is gradually taking shape, but the concrete steps to translate this awareness into action are still ahead of us. We as a company must continue to provide clear direction in this regard. Another important point is to expand this mindset in INDIA. To support this effort, we are holding business meetings to solicit proposals for new hospital businesses and medical devices / products, focused primarily on our existing businesses, inviting ideas from all our overseas suppliers and the winning ideas will receive support for commercialisation under the business division. I believe this initiative will not only provide an opportunity for each individual to meet the spirit of challenge and experience success, but also foster connections among our employees. In addition, we have strengthened our human resources strategy by introducing Workday integrated human resources platform — that enables us to manage the data of our employees. I believe this has laid the groundwork for fully leveraging our company's resources to execute our strategies of accelerating business portfolio transformation and building solutions-based business models.

In addition to the initiatives already mentioned, we will continue to invest in measures to create a comfortable environment for and enhance the skills of our workforce, including measures for work style reform and reskilling. As I explained in my earlier annual reports message, these measures are designed with the intention of incorporating “the principle of fair equality of opportunity” and “the right to equal liberty,” two important social principles into our organization. If we are to translate these social principles into corporate principles, it means ensuring that all employees are given equal opportunities to excel and the liberty to think freely through the establishment of an optimal work environment and the implementation of policies that recognize and encourage taking on challenges. Of course, equality does not mean uniformity. Our employees have diverse personalities and abilities, so our evaluation systems must not be one-size-fits-all. I believe that by developing systems and environments where employees from diverse backgrounds can leverage their unique strengths, we will move closer to realizing our company's ideal vision.

Years have passed since I took up the role of Chairman & CEO, I see it as my responsibility to take a sincere look back at our progress, including a review of performance, to ensure sustainable growth and enhance corporate value as we move toward our 2025 – 2026 goals. Since the COVID-19 pandemic eased, I have participated in discussions with our suppliers on behalf of CENTENIAL. Engaging in discussions with some of the world's leading companies has been a valuable opportunity, highlighting just how much work remains to be done. Running a company is, of course, not something that can be done by one person alone; rather, it is a long-distance relay race. To that end, we are making steady progress in key talent management, including succession planning. I believe that when the time comes to pass the baton, it should be done with the company already in a state of strong momentum. The transformation toward 2025 - 2026 is still work in progress. While the business environment has changed since last year's goals formulated, our overall direction remains the same. I believe that addressing challenges while staying true to our core focus of becoming a leading suture / medical device manufacturing company is the key to meeting our expectations.

In this challenging business environment, we expect some of these difficulties to persist long-term. However, we are making steady progress in new business development by manufacturing suture materials, raw materials for the suture material and corporate transformation, which is bringing us closer to our ideal vision. With a strong commitment to accelerating this momentum and putting our business back on a growth trajectory, we remain determined to achieve our target of operating income before special items for the year 2025 - 2026, a key milestone toward our fiscal 2025 – 2026 goals.

Our team enters 2025 – 2026 with confidence. CENTENIAL is an established leader in key growth cardiovascular suture markets, with a large and differentiated portfolio of medical devices, backed by well-respected brands. CENTENIAL have the footprint to command a meaningful presence in the Indian healthcare market, as well as the flexibility to move quickly and make sound business decisions. CENTENIAL has an exceptional track record for execution, underscored by our consistent ability to deliver steady growth in both revenues and margins. Finally, CENTENIAL has a sound strategy, a proven management and sales team, and dedicated employees. CENTENIAL moves forward committed to capitalising on these strengths to achieve our financial targets and reward the support of our shareholders. Board membership criteria

The Company inducts eminent individuals from diverse fields as directors on its Board. The nomination and remuneration committee work with the entire Board to determine the appropriate characteristics, skills and experience required for the Board as a whole and for individual members. Members are expected to possess the required qualifications, integrity, expertise and experience for the position. They should also possess deep expertise and insights in sectors / areas relevant to the Company, and ability to contribute to the Company's growth.

The age limit for all Directors is 70 years. A Director's term may be extended at the discretion of the committee beyond the age of 70 years with shareholders' approval by passing a special resolution, based on the explanatory statement annexed to the Notice, indicating the justification for the extension of appointment beyond 70 years, as the case may be. Based on the disclosures received from all the independent directors and also in the opinion of the Board, the independent directors fulfil the conditions specified in the Companies Act, 2013, the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 and are independent of the Management.

Selection of new Directors

The Board is responsible for the selection of new Directors. The Board delegates the screening and selection process to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which consists exclusively of independent directors. The committee, based on defined criteria, makes recommendations to the Board on the induction of new directors.

Membership term

The Board constantly evaluates the contribution of members and periodically shares updates with the shareholders about reappointments consistent with applicable statutes. The current law in India mandates that two-third of the non-independent directors be liable to retire by rotation every year, and one-third of them mandatorily retire by rotation and qualifies the retiring members for reappointment. Executive directors are appointed by the shareholders for a maximum period of five years but are eligible for reappointment upon completion of their term. An independent director shall hold office for a term of up to five consecutive years on the Board of the Company and will be eligible for reappointment on the passing of a special resolution by the shareholders.

Board member evaluation

One of the key functions of the Board is to monitor and review the Board evaluation framework. The Board works with the nomination and remuneration committee to lay down the evaluation criteria for the performance of the Chairman, the Board, Board committees, and executive / non-executive / independent directors through peer evaluation, excluding the director being evaluated.

Independent directors have three key roles – governance, control and guidance. Some of the performance indicators, based on which the independent directors are evaluated, includes:

- The ability to contribute to and monitor our corporate governance practices
- The ability to contribute by introducing international best practices to address business challenges and risks
- Active participation in long-term strategic planning
- Commitment to the fulfilment of a Director's obligations and fiduciary responsibilities; these include participation in Board and committee meetings

To improve the effectiveness of the Board and its committees, as well as that of each individual director, a formal and rigorous Board review is internally undertaken on an annual basis.

Further, the evaluation process was based on the affirmation received from the independent directors that they met the independence criteria as required under the Companies Act 2013 and SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

Disclosures regarding the appointment or reappointment of Directors

The Companies Act, 2013 provides for the appointment of Independent Directors. Sub-section (10) of Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013 (effective April 1, 2014) provides that independent directors shall hold office for a term of up to five consecutive years on the Board of a Company and shall be eligible for reappointment for another term of five years on passing of a special resolution by the shareholders of the Company. Accordingly, all Independent Directors were appointed by the shareholders either at the general meeting or through a postal ballot as required under Section 149(10). Further, Section 149(11) states that no independent director shall be eligible to serve on the Board for more than two consecutive terms of five years. Section 149(13) states that the provisions of retirement by rotation, as defined in sub-sections (6) and (7) of Section 152 of the Act, shall not apply to such independent Directors.

Board and executive leadership compensation policy

In order to adapt to the changing business context and the highly competitive environment that we operate in, our executive compensation philosophy has evolved to reward long-term sustainable performance. Our executive compensation policy moves away from a predominantly cash-based compensation structure to a total rewards structure where a significant portion of the rewards is in the form of stock incentives.

The nomination and remuneration committee determine and recommends to the Board the compensation payable to the directors. All Board-level compensation is approved by the shareholders and disclosed separately in the financial statements. Remuneration for the executive directors comprises a fixed component and a variable component, including stock incentives. The committee makes a periodic appraisal of the performance of the executive directors based on a detailed performance matrix. The annual compensation of the executive directors is approved by the committee and placed before the shareholders at the shareholders' meeting or via postal ballot.

The executive directors of the Company are entitled to an annual / half-yearly variable pay, including stock incentives, which is subject to the achievement of certain periodic milestones by the Company, as determined by the Board. The Board may reserve the authority to set such milestones on a GAAP or non-GAAP basis.

As required under the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 effective April 1, 2019, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will recommend to the Board the payment of remuneration to senior management. The compensation payable to the independent Directors is limited to a fixed amount per year as determined and approved by the Board, the sum of which does not exceed 1% of net profits for the year, calculated as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The Board reviews the performance of independent directors on an annual basis.

In accordance with the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015, no employee, including key managerial personnel or director or promoter of a listed entity, shall enter into any agreement for himself or on behalf of any other person, with any shareholder or any other third party with regard to compensation or profit-sharing in connection with dealings in the securities of the Company, unless prior approval for the same has been obtained from the Board of Directors as well as public shareholders by way of an ordinary resolution. During the year, there were no such instances. Executive Director / CFO Anuradha Kashikar voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for her services rendered to our Company.

The Company normally has Four regular Board meetings in a year. Independent directors are expected to attend at least four quarterly Board meetings and the AGM. The Board believes that the above compensation structure is commensurate with global best practices in terms of remunerating non-executive / independent directors of a company of similar size, and adequately compensates for the time and contribution made by our non-executive / independent directors. The Terms and Conditions of Appointment of Independent Director and is available at the website of the company: <http://www.centenialindia.com/corporate.html>.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT

Your Company's management believes that it has been objective & prudent in making estimates and judgements relating to the financial statements & believes that these financial statements are a fair representation of your Company's operations and profits for the year. To survive and thrive, in a sector in constant transition, suture makers need to transform themselves. Analysts are of the view that "globalization" is no longer a matter of choice and suture businesses' long-term success depends on it. The businesses that ride the next wave of growth will be those that understand the trends and refine their strategies, business models and portfolios according to a truly Indian mindset.

A. Industry structure and developments

The global surgical sutures market is witnessing steady growth primarily due to the increasing number of surgical procedures performed globally. The favourable reimbursement scenario for several surgical procedures and the launch of advanced sutures are further contributing to the growth of this market. However, the presence of alternative wound care management products and the growing preference for minimally invasive surgeries are some of the factors expected to limit the growth of this market to a certain extent. The Company registered sales of Rs. 5,351.62 Lakhs in the financial year ended March 31, 2025 and net loss after tax of Rs.146.36 Lakhs. The technical functioning of the manufacturing facility as indicated by the above-mentioned results, the capacity utilisations was quite satisfactory and production levels has selectively improved as required.

Based on type, the market has been segmented into absorbable and non-absorbable sutures. In 2017, absorbable suture accounted for the largest share of the market and is expected to maintain its position during the forecast period. This can be attributed to the ability of the suture to provide temporary support to wound until it heals significantly. Furthermore, it is cost effective as it dissolves in the body after a certain period. Non-absorbable sutures are majorly used on skin wound closure where stitches can be removed after few weeks or in a stressful internal environment where absorbable sutures are unable to fulfil the requirement. Special silk, stainless steel wires, synthetics polypropylene, polyester, and nylon are the major material used for non-absorbable sutures. Based on the type of filament, the sutures market has been segmented into monofilament and multifilament sutures. Multifilament accounted for the maximum market share due to its greater strength, more flexibility, and pliability. Increased number of complicated surgeries, availability of more products, and high cost over monovalent sutures are likely to drive the segment in the coming years. Based on application, the surgical sutures market is divided into ophthalmic surgery, cardiovascular surgery, orthopaedic surgery, neurological surgery, and others. Cardiovascular surgery accounted for the largest market share and is expected to expand at the fastest CAGR during the forecast period. This can be attributed to the increasing incidence rate of cardiovascular diseases and technological advancements in diagnostics, imaging, and surgical tools. The others segment includes gynaecology and obstetrics surgery, urology, gastrointestinal surgery, general surgery, and oral surgery. The increasing number of obese population and rise in the number of women's health issues are likely to drive this segment significantly over the forecast period. Asia Pacific is expected to grow at a rapid pace over the forecast period owing to the introduction of technologically advanced products due to investment by market players in this region, high volume of surgeries, and growing consumer disposable income levels. China, Japan, and India are the major markets in the Asia Pacific region. Increasing medical tourism is another key factor for the rise in the number of surgical procedures and thereby sutures market in the region. Finished goods prices witnessed a sudden drop. Thankfully, due to your company's wide range of products and through an optimum mix of inventory management and buying strategy, we could withstand this shock, and this partially impacted the profit margins during the year.

Quality

We have been able to create a consistent and credible track record of excellence due to our determined efforts to sustain world-class infrastructure and quality standards. We are continuously delivering and exceeding the expectations of our surgeons. We follow the philosophy of 'Quality for all patients and Surgeons'. Across all our manufacturing sites, we have put in place quality systems that cover all areas of business processes from supply chain to medical device delivery to ensure consistent quality, efficiency and safety of products. Regular audit programmes validate our attempts to deliver consistent quality. Quality risk management procedures are established and followed for internal audits, failure inquiries and implementation of permanent corrective measures. Our quality management systems are continually monitored, evaluated, and upgraded to meet evolving industry regulations and best practices. We continue to strengthen the quality process with the implementation of digitisation and Quality Management System (QMS) tools. The use of these tools enables us to keep pace with the growing number of processes and documentation in R&D and manage compliance and risk efficiently. Your Company has been consistently meeting the Quality Objectives of ISO 9001:2015, ISO 13485:2016, WHO-GMP, ISO 14001:2015, ISO 45001:2018 and medical devices are in conformity to medical device directives 93/42/EEC, Medical Device Rules, 2017.

B. Opportunities and Threats

The surgical industry depends largely on new surgical applications and surgeries. In the last few years, the increase in the allocation of funds for such purposes has been on the increase and as such the opportunity of growth in surgical items is unlimited. However, there exists untapped potential in the nursing home sector. The Company has arrangement / understanding with various distribution markets and sell various items which are required in the nursing home market. The Company continued to mitigate the risk of this volatility by effecting payments towards our imports out of our Export Earnings as much as possible and by taking adequate cover. To negate the impact of competition, our competitors have for long been dumping their medical devices / products in the Indian market at low prices. The possibility of competitors pursuing an irrational pricing approach cannot be ruled out. This may create pressure on our margins. Sentiment-driven currency changes can also impact domestic prices and profitability. The country is expecting a normal monsoon this year, any shortfall may lead to fall in the rural demand thereby unfavourably impacting some patients / user segments.

C. Product Performance

The overall growth of business in the country has not been upto the desired levels because of restricted funding. However, in view of unrestricted imports, competition, sales and profitability of the Company has been affected.

D. Outlook

During the current financial year there has been a slight improvement in the market conditions resulting in an increase in despatches and satisfactory sales price realisations. It is expected that this trend will continue. Further, slow growth rate of the Indian economy has been projected and the Company expects its growth to be slow.

E. Risks and Concerns

Your Company has from its inception been conscious and has regularly evaluated the risks and threats that control it and converted these threats into opportunities to its best advantage. The management believes that your Company's business is subject to a number of risks. Many of the components of the regulatory regime are established or articulated by the relevant regulatory authorities, including Food and Drug Administration & CDSCO. The Risk Management in your Company has been functioning effectively and has been contributing to the mitigation of the risks that would have otherwise impacted our Company.

F. Internal control systems and their adequacy

Your Company has a proper and adequate system of internal controls to ensure that all assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorised use or disposition and that transaction are authorised, recorded and reported correctly. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors regularly reviews the findings of the internal auditors, adequacy of internal controls, financial controls, compliance with the accounting standards, as well as recommends to the Board, the adoption of the quarterly and annual results of the Company and appointment of auditors. The Audit Committee also reviews the related party transactions, entered by the Company during each quarter. Further, the Secretarial Auditors review on periodical basis through their own systems and check list the compliances part with respect to the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015, as amended and other SEBI regulations as may be applicable to the Company.

G. Discussion on financial performance with respect to operational performance

The Financial Statements comply in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015] and other relevant provisions of the Act. The Company remains a zero-debt company. The Company had also approached CRISIL Limited for review of its existing ratings, which had assigned CRISIL A3 for its Non-Fund based Bank Facilities. The Company's performance about the domestic sales volumes, remained reasonable for the year on account of slight slowdown and competition experienced at domestic surgeries in medical industry. On the export business front, despite stiff competition, your company successfully exported to strategic accounts with wide range of products and thus achieved a healthy growth. By a combination of a better product mix helped by speciality products and continual improvement in the efficiency of operations the Company has managed to keep its operating margins at reasonable levels for all the four quarters, although during second half the EBIDTA levels, dropped due to slowdown, falling prices and some legacy input costs on account of our inevitable coverage of 2-3 months.

Summary of the financial performance of the Company is presented below:

Information other than the financial statements and auditors' report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Board's Report including Annexures to the Board's Report, and Business Responsibility Report but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") concerning the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, (changes in equity) and cash flows of the Company by the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records by the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but does not guarantee that an audit conducted by SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken based on these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has an adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and
- (3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding the prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2025, based on the criteria for internal financial control over financial reporting established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Notes to Ind AS Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2025

1 Corporate information :

CENTENIAL SURGICAL SUTURE LTD. ("the Company") is a public limited company domiciled and incorporated in India and having its registered office at F-29, MIDC, Murbad, Thane 421401, MAHARASHTRA. The Company's shares are listed on BSE Limited (BSE) in India. The Company is inter alia engaged in the development, manufacturing and supply of Medical Devices. The Company's manufacturing units are located in the State of MAHARASHTRA at Murbad, Thane.

2 Significant accounting policies :

2.1 Basis of preparation :

- (i) The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"), read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016.

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are consistent for all the periods presented.

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees, which is the Company's functional currency and all values are rounded off to the nearest Lakhs with two decimal places, except when otherwise indicated.

- (ii) The Ind AS standalone financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost convention basis, except for the following :
 - certain financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value;
 - defined benefit plans - net defined benefit (asset) / liabilities – Fair value of plan assets less present value of defined benefit obligation .

2.2 Current and non-current classification :

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Act. Based on the nature of the products and the time taken between acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its normal operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current or non-current classification of assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and non-current liabilities.

2.3 Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions :

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Estimates and judgments are reviewed on an ongoing basis. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstance. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimating uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below :

- a) Impairment of Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE) :

The evaluation of applicability of indicators of impairment of assets requires assessment of external factors (significant decline in asset's value, significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment, market interest rates etc.) and internal factors (obsolescence or physical damage of an asset, poor economic performance of the asset etc.) which could result in significant change in recoverable amount of the PPE.

- b) Determination of the estimated useful lives :

Useful lives of all PPE are based on the estimation done by the Company's Management which is in line with the useful lives as prescribed in Part 'C' of Schedule II to the Act. In cases, where the useful lives are different from those prescribed in Schedule II and in case of intangible assets, these are estimated by management based on technical advice, taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating conditions of the asset, past history of replacement, anticipated technological changes, manufacturer's warranties and maintenance support. (Refer note 3).

c) Current and deferred taxes :

Significant management judgment is required to determine the amount of current and deferred taxes that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies.

d) Employee benefits :

Management's estimate of the Company's obligation is determined based on actuarial valuation. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, these liabilities are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The parameter most subject to change is the discount rate. In determining the appropriate discount rate for plans operated in India, the Company's management considers the interest rates of government bonds. Future salary increases and gratuity increases are based on expected future inflation rates for India.

Retirement and other employee benefits :

- i) Retirement benefits in the form of provident fund (where contributed to the Regional PF Commissioner) is a defined contribution scheme. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Company recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognized as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognized as an asset to the extent that the pre-payment will lead to, for example, a reduction in future payment or a cash refund.
- ii) Gratuity liability under the Payment of Gratuity Act is a defined benefit obligation and is provided for on the basis of an actuarial valuation on projected unit credit method made at the end of each financial year. The gratuity plan has been funded by policy taken from Life Insurance Corporation of India. Actuarial gains and losses for defined benefit plan are recognized in full in the year in which they occur in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
- iii) Accumulated leave, which is expected to be utilized within the next 12 months, is treated as short-term employee benefit. The Company measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.
- iv) The Company treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method at the year-end. Actuarial gains / losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss and are not deferred. The Company presents the entire leave as a current liability in the balance sheet, since it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for 12 months after the reporting date.

Refer note 43 for details of the key assumptions used in determining the accounting of these plans.

2.4 Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE) :

Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE) are stated at cost of acquisition or construction (including directly attributable expenses thereto), net of impairment loss if any, less depreciation / amortisation. Cost includes financing costs of borrowed funds attributable to acquisition or construction of qualifying fixed assets, up to the date the assets are put to use. If significant parts of an item of PPE have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of PPE. An item of PPE is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the combined use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of PPE is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Cost of assets not ready for intended use, as on the reporting date, is shown under capital work-in-progress. Advances given towards acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding as at reporting date are disclosed as "other non-current assets".

Depreciation / Amortization :

- i) Leasehold land is depreciated over the period of the lease.

- ii) Depreciation on cost of PPE is provided on straight-line method (SLM) over the useful lives as specified in Part 'C' of Schedule II of the Act. Useful lives are reviewed by the Company's management at each Balance Sheet date and revised, if appropriate. In case of a revision, the unamortized depreciable amount is charged over the revised remaining useful life.
- iii) Depreciation on additions / deletions to PPE during the year is provided for on a pro-rata basis with reference to the date of additions / deletions except low value of items costing Rs.5,000.00 or less which are fully depreciated in the year when the assets are put to use.
- iv) Depreciation on subsequent expenditure on PPE arising on account of capital improvement or other factors is provided for prospectively over the remaining useful life.
- v) Intangible assets are recorded at its acquisition price and amortized on the straight-line method over a period of three years.

2.5 Impairment :

The carrying amounts of PPE are reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine if there is any indication of impairment based on internal / external factors. Assessment of indication of impairment of an asset is made at the year end. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the asset's net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the Company measures its 'value in use' on the basis of estimated discounted cash flows of projections based on current prices.

After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

2.6 Inventories :

Inventories comprise of all costs of purchase, conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Raw materials are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is ascertained on a moving weighted average basis, except for goods in transit which is ascertained on a specific identification basis.

Work-in-progress, finished goods and traded goods are carried at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis. In case of work-in progress and manufactured finished goods, cost includes material, labour and production overheads. Fixed production overheads are allocated on the basis of normal capacity of production facilities.

Net realisable value of work-in-progress is determined with reference to the estimated selling price less estimated cost of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale of related finished goods. Raw materials held for production of finished goods are not written down below cost, except if it is estimated that the cost of the finished product will exceed its net realisable value.

2.7 Foreign Currency Transactions :

Initial recognition :

Foreign currency transactions are translated in the functional currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the functional currency and the foreign currency, prevailing at the date of transaction.

Conversion :

Foreign currency monetary items as at balance sheet date are translated using the closing exchange rate on that date.

Exchange differences :

Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the year end exchange rates are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which they arise, except exchange differences arising from the translation of qualifying cash flow hedges to the extent that the hedges are effective, which are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI).

2.8 Operating Lease :

Ind AS 116 defines a lease term as the noncancellable period for which the lessee has the right to use an underlying asset including optional periods, when an entity is reasonably certain to exercise an option to extend (or not to terminate) a lease. The Company considers all relevant facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive for the lessee to exercise the option when determining the lease term. The option to extend the lease term is included in the lease term, if it is reasonably certain that the lessee would exercise the option. The Company reassesses the option when significant events or changes in circumstances occur that are within the control of the lessee.

IND AS 116 : Leases:

The company recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received.

The right-of-use asset is subsequently depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The estimated useful lives of right-of-use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property and equipment. In addition, the right-of-use asset is periodically reduced by impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for certain re-measurements of the lease liability.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, company's incremental borrowing rate. Generally, the company uses its incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following :

- Fixed payments, including in-substance fixed payments;
- Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- Amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee; and
- The exercise price under a purchase option that the company is reasonably certain to exercise, lease payments in an optional renewal period if the company is reasonably certain to exercise an extension option, and penalties for early termination of a lease unless the company is reasonably certain not to terminate early.

The lease liability is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. It is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, if there is a change in the company's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if company changes its assessment of whether it will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option.

When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The company presents right-of-use assets that do not meet the definition of investment property in 'property, plant and equipment' and lease liabilities in 'loans and borrowings' in the statement of financial position.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The company has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short term leases of real estate properties that have a lease term of 12 months. The company recognises the lease payments associated with these leases as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Under Ind AS 17

In the comparative period, Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased assets during the lease term, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as expense in the Statement of Profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term, unless such payments are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increases.

2.9 Revenue recognition :

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for goods and services provided in the normal course of business, net of discounts and taxes:

- i. Revenue from sale of goods is recognised on transfer of significant risk and rewards of ownership of products to the customers.

- ii. Interest income is accounted for on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.
- iii. Dividend income is recorded when the right to receive payment is established.

2.10 Employee benefits :

a) Short term employee benefits :

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits and are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

b) Post-employment benefits :

Defined benefit plans

Most of the employees are covered under Employees' Gratuity Scheme, which is a defined benefit plan. The Company contributes to a fund maintained with Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) on the basis of the year-end liability determined based on actuarial valuation. Net interest expense and other expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Defined benefit plans

Provision for long-term employee benefits comprise of compensated absences. These are measured on the basis of year end actuarial valuation in line with the Company's rules for compensated absences. Remeasurement gains or losses are recognised in statement of profit and loss in the period in which they arise.

2.11 Financial instruments :

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Financial assets :

Initial recognition and measurement :

Financial assets are recognized initially at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets (other than financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit and loss) are added to the fair value of financial assets. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at fair value through profit and loss are recognised immediately in Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent measurement:

For the purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified into below categories:

- Financial assets at amortised cost;
- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

Financial assets including derivatives at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) :

Financial assets are measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortised cost of fair value through other comprehensive income on initial recognition. The transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are immediately recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Financial Liabilities :

Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as measured at amortised cost or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL). The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables.

Equity instruments issued by the Company are classified as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities.

2.12 Income and deferred taxes :

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Income Tax Act, 1961. Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.

2.13 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets :

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of obligation. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

A disclosure by way of a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Contingent assets are not recognised or disclosed in the financial statements.

2.14 Earnings per share :

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders, by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to the equity shareholders, by the weighted average number of equity and equivalent diluted equity shares outstanding during the year except where the results would be antidilutive.

2.15 Cash and cash equivalents :

Cash and cash equivalents include cheques in hand, cash at bank and deposits with banks having original maturity of not more than three months.

2.16 Fair value measurement :

The Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for, both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The Company's management regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. If third party information is used to measure fair values, then the management assesses the evidence obtained from the third parties to support the conclusion that such valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS, including the level in the fair value hierarchy in which such valuations should be classified.

When measuring the fair value of a financial asset or a financial liability, the Company uses observable market data as far as possible. Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1 : Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 : Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Level 3 : Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

The Company recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred. In determining the fair value of its financial instruments, the Company uses a variety of methods and assumptions that are based on market conditions and risks existing at each reporting date. The methods used to determine fair value includes discounted cash flow analysis, available quoted market prices and dealer quotes. All methods of assessing fair value result from general approximation of value and the same may differ from the actual realised value. Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair value is included in the note 2.11 on financial instruments.

Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible timing differences only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. In situations where the Company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, all deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that such deferred tax assets can be realized against future taxable profits. At each reporting date, the Company re-assesses unrecognized deferred tax assets. It recognizes unrecognized deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date. The Company writes-down the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax asset can be realized. Any such write-down is reversed to the extent that it becomes reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available.
