MOVING UP IN THE CONSUMER STAPLES VALUE CHAIN

"Focused on improving the Company's brand visibility, we are well poised to meet the increasing demand and move up in the food value chain. We are actively diversifying our portfolio with more consumer staple products to create sustainable value for our customers, communities, and shareholders.

To capture the emerging opportunities in the domestic market, we have introduced GRM 2.0 – a renewed focus to guide our product, packaging, and marketing strategy.

GRM will be continually investing in its domestic brands, especially the value brand for the Indian markets - '10x'."

– Mr. Atul GargChairman and Managing Director

OPPORTUNITY LANDSCAPE

THE INDIAN PACKAGED FOODS INDUSTRY

Indian Packaged Foods Industry is expected grow 3.75x over the next decade

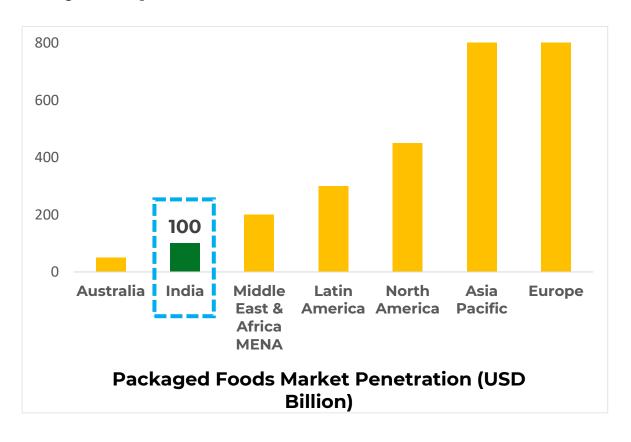

Source: Ambit Report on Consumer Staples, January 2021

OPPORTUNITY LANDSCAPE www.grmrice.com • 21

EXPECTED TO POST VOLUME-LED GROWTH

With 18% of the world's population India has a very low penetration

Potential opportunity to increase the Total Addressable Market (TAM), on account of:

- Rising per-capita Income
- Increasing awareness on Quality and Hygiene
- Digital tech-savvy consumers ready to experiment
- Growing proliferation of online Retailing and emergence of omnichannel presence

SHIFT TO ORGANISED MARKETS

Indian Staples Industry, largely dominated by the unorganised sector

Witnessing a shift to the organised segment, led by:

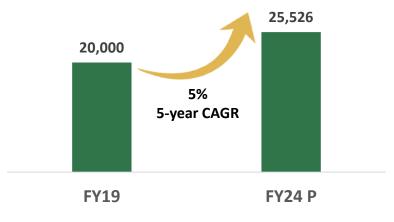

- Category premiumization of product and packaging
- Increasing acceptability of specialized products
- Stricter implementation of food regulations pertaining to safety standards
- Stricter tax and compliance requirements like GST
- Consumer preference shift towards healthy and hygienic packaged food post Covid-19 pandemic

GLOBAL RICE OPPORTUNITY

Market Size: ₹ 400,000 Cr Organised Share: 5%

■ Organised Market share (₹ Cr)

India is one of the biggest producers of rice globally contributing 23%.

Export Value of rice (USD bn)

INDIAN SPICES MARKET POTENTIAL

India is among the largest spice consumption markets globally

Indian Spices Industry

Market Size: ₹ 67,500 Cr

Organised Share: 36%

Organised Market share (₹ Cr)

Potential to Grow 2x to ₹ 50,000 Cr by 2025

Spices form the most attractive category in the packaged foods space, with strong growth prospects and expansion potential. Forming the center of the plate of almost every Indian meal, the India spices market is expected to gradually shift to branded category with 50% share by 2025.

- Adoption of new category of western/international spice blend indicate a growth potential of 18% in the next 5 years
- Multiple varieties of spice blend expected to witness at least three-fold adoption in India households
- Increasing trend for premiumization with better quality and packaging to cater the demand for high end/urban consumers
- Increased demand and brand stickiness for convenience-based products like wet spice-gravies, curries, ready to cook and ready to eat

GROWTH DRIVERS FOR GRM OVERSEAS

Changing Lifestyle

• Rising per capital income has enabled the consumers to experiment with new products rather than taking the brand's past laurels as a benchmark

Customer Preferences

• With Increasing awareness about health and hygiene, consumers prefer premium, branded, and healthy products over low quality and budget products

Greater Acceptability

• With the growing proliferation of online retailing and increasing penetration of the internet, consumers are aware of the latest trends and are ready to experiment with new products
