INDUSTRY STRUCTURE & DEVELOPMENT

The global economy improved slowly in financial year 2012-13 but it has not recovered to the extent it was anticipated in the beginning of the year. Several European economies experienced recession due to high unemployment, banking, emergency rescue efforts, fiscal tightening and sluggish growth. The financial crisis of Eurozone nations is weakening the strength of the economic bloc and adversely impacting global economic growth. However, the US economy showed early signs of recovery, mainly on account of manufacturing growth and prudent policy initiatives. The emerging economies were also impacted by global headwinds, with China registering economic slowdown, along with other BRIC nations. In 2012-13, China grew by only 7.8%, while India finished the race a close second at 5%.

Global textile fibre industry is expected to grow to 105 MMT by 2020. Of this, polyester will account for over 68% of global demand growth. India is poised to strengthen its global foothold with polyester production share rising to 10% of global volume from the current 8%. With supplies likely to remain above incremental demand, utilisation rates are expected to remain under pressure in the medium term.

The global fibre production for 2012 was estimated at 82.0 million tonnes, registering an increase of 1.2% over 2011. Cotton fibres production is estimated to be 26 million tonnes and Man Made Fibre (MMF) is likely to account for 55 million tonnes. The polyester fibre in the MMF segment accounted for an estimated 41.3 million tonnes (75%). Polyester and cotton together accounted for 82% of the fibre volumes produced in 2012. The global fibre demand is expected to increase by 3% on medium term due to rising population and increasing prosperity in the emerging markets. China emerged as the biggest manufacturer of all MMF fibres with 35.5 million tonnes production volume, accounting for 64.5% of global MMF production. On the price front, cotton fibre's clear downward trend from mid-2012 is putting pressure on all other fibres.

Indian textile industry has made a major contribution to the national economy in terms of direct and indirect employment generation and net foreign exchange earnings. India's textile sector contributes 4% to the country's gross domestic product (GDP), 14% of industrial production and 17% to country's export. The industry employs around 35 million people, and is the second largest provider of employment after the agricultural sector.

The most significant change in the Indian textile industry has been the advent of Man Made Fibre. India has successfully placed its innovative range of MMF textiles in almost all the countries across the globe. Man-made fibre production recorded an increase of 2 per cent during the year 2012-13. The MMF industry comprises fibre, filaments and yarns required for manufacturing apparel and non-apparel products. Although the preference for cotton yarn is high, a sizable segment of the Indian population prefers apparels made of polyester yarn and other synthetic materials as they are cheaper. The price competitiveness of polyester yarn vis-à-vis cotton yarn will support growth in demand for polyester yarn. As far as domestic scenario is concerned, signs are very encouraging. As per CRISIL Research Report on Man Made Fibre, the Polyester Filament Yarn (PFY) forms around 57% of the total Indian manmade textile production and about 27% of total textile production.

INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

India is the one of the world's largest producers of textiles and garments. Cotton and polyester are the major raw materials for India's textile industry. Cotton and polyester together account for around 90% of India's textile mill consumption of all fibres. India's per capita fibre consumption is around 5 kg, almost half the global level. Polyester is likely to play a dominant role in capturing the major incremental demand share to bridge this gap. The domestic prices of polyester and cotton witnessed less volatility during the year as compared to the volatility in cotton prices last year. This improved the profitability and viability of downstream textile industry. However, continued power shortage in key downstream textile and packaging manufacturing centres, especially in Southern India, limited polyester demand growth. The downstream polyester demand remained depressed earlier in the year, amidst subdued global markets due to high polyester inventories, lower margins and steep decline in the feedstock prices.

India's all fibre textile mill consumption is likely to grow at a 5.2% CAGR between 2012 and 2020 to 12.3 MMT. The CAGR growth for the demands for PFY and PSF (Polyester Staple Fibre) are expected to be 8.6% and 5.4%, respectively. Polyester is likely to account for a major 60% of incremental domestic fibre demand between 2012 and 2020. As per Technopak projections, India's total textile and apparel market size (domestic and export), estimated at $ 89 billion in 2011, is projected to grow at a 9% CAGR to reach $ 221 billion by 2021. The domestic textile and apparel market size was $ 58 billion in 2011 and is projected to grow to $ 141 billion by 2021. The key growth segments are technical textiles which is likely to see a 10% CAGR, followed by 9% in apparels and 8% in home textiles.

FILATEX INDIA LIMITED

The long term growth and development of this industry is fairly secured because of low base per capita consumption of textile fabric in India as compared to developed countries. In a growing economy with high population, it gets additional support. In the short term, volatility in crude oil prices may impact the growth of the industry. The profit margins of the industry eroded in last two years mainly due to addition of large capacity of Polyester POY and import of Nylon Filament Yarn (NFY). Substantial import duty concessions, under FTAs signed by the Government of India with ASEAN member countries has become the bane of the industry and emerged as a major threat for the Synthetic Fibre Industry.

The Indian textile industry is set for strong growth, buoyed by both rising domestic consumption as well as export demand. Abundant availability of raw materials such as cotton, wool, silk and jute and skilled workforce has made India a sourcing hub. The textiles sector has witnessed a spurt in investment during the last five years. The industry (including dyed and printed) attracted foreign direct investments (FDI) worth Rs 5,674.45 crore (US$ 1.04 billion) during April 2000 to February 2013.

In the years ahead relatively easier availability of raw materials, growing local and international demand and improved cost competitiveness of Indian manufacturers vis-à-vis their global competitors should permit strong growth in the PFY industry.

OPPORTUNITIES & CHALLENGES

Opportunities

- (i) Rapid urbanization, rising working population, an increase in disposable incomes and increasing affordability vehicles are driving demand in downstream industry
- (ii) Emerging non-apparel application of fibre
- (iii) Price competitiveness of PFY vis-à-vis cotton yarns
- (iv) Per capita consumption of Polyester in India is exceedingly low by world standards so there is a great scope for local demand.
- (v) Rural market will play important role in the economy which offers a major opportunity growth in the Polyester industry.
- (vi) Substantial gap in Demand & Supply
- (vii) Fast changes in fashion design, growing exports of textiles

Challenges

- (i) Unfavorable Exchange rate fluctuation
- (ii) International competition specially from China
- (iii) Inconsistent raw material supply
- (iv) Volatile and high raw materials prices due to middle-east crisis

COMPANY OUTLOOK

The Company's plant for Polyester Poly condensation having capacity of 216000 TPA and POY with capacity of 108000 TPA at GIDC Dahej has been commissioned and become fully operational during the year 2012-13. The Poly condensation unit brings the Company at par with other manufacturers of POY as company has also started making POY under Direct Melt Spinning Technology being used worldwide, by using PTA and MEG as raw materials. This will enable the Company to reduce operational costs and increase its profitability in coming years.

RISKS AND CONCERNS

The Company perceives the following main business risks:

- a) Unfavorable Exchange rate fluctuation
- b) High volatility in raw material prices
- c) Downstream industries might witness a slowdown, affecting demand for products

- d) Overcapacity of domestic PFY industry
- e) Volatility in crude oil prices
- f) Possible product substitution in the fibre market based on change in the prices of competitive fibres.
- g) International competition

The depreciation is Rs. 2111 lacs as compared to Rs. 952 lacs resulting in an increase of 122%. Increase in turnover is due to commissioning of plant for polyester Poly condensation and POY at GIDC, Dahej. The company has prepared these financial statements to comply in all material respects with the accounting standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 (as amended), and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis, except where stated otherwise. The accounting policies adopted in preparation of financial statements are consistent with those of previous year.

b) Use of estimates.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although, these estimates are based on the management’s best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

c) Fixed Assets & Depreciation

- i) Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any. Cost comprises the purchase price and any directly attributable cost of bringing the assets to its working condition for its intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

Borrowing costs relating to acquisition of fixed assets which take substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are also included to the extent they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use.

Subsequent expenditure relating to an item of fixed asset is added back to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses on existing fixed assets, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts are charged to the statement of profit and loss account for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

- ii) Depreciation has been provided on straight-line method on pro-rata basis at the rates & manner prescribed in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956 except for the following assets where higher rate of depreciation is charged to represent the useful life of these assets.

Description	Rates charged (SLM)	Schedule XIV Rate (SLM)
Plant & Machinery (pre-used)	8.33%	5.28
Plant & Machinery (Capital spares)	12.50%	5.28

- iii) Fixed assets costing below Rs.5,000/- are fully depreciated in the year of acquisition.
- iv) Depreciation on the amount of additions made to fixed assets due to upgradation / improvements is provided over the remaining useful life of the asset to which it relates.
- v) Depreciation on fixed assets added / disposed off during the year is provided on pro-rata basis.
- vi) Lease hold improvements are amortized over the primary period of lease or useful life, whichever is lower.

d) Expenditure incurred during the construction period

- i) Expenditure directly relating to construction activity is capitalized (net of income, if any), Indirect expenditure incurred during construction period is capitalized as part of the indirect construction cost to the extent, to which the expenditure is indirectly related to construction or is incidental thereto. - ii) Capital Work in Progress is stated at cost (including borrowing cost, where applicable) incurred during construction, installation/ pre-operative period relating to items or projects in progress.

Intangible assets, software etc. are accounted at their cost of acquisition and amortized over their estimated economic life not exceeding 5 years. Leasehold improvements are charged to the Profit & Loss Account over the primary period of lease.

f) Impairment of Assets

Consideration is given at each balance sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment of the carrying amount of the Company's fixed assets. If any indication exists, an asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An impairment loss is recognized whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is defined as value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor.

g) Investments

Investments are stated at cost less provision for diminution in value.

h) Leases

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the Company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the lower of the fair value and present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the lease term and disclosed as leased assets. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability based on the implicit rate of return. Finance charges are charged directly against income. Lease management fees, legal charges and other initial direct costs are capitalized.

If there is no reasonable certainty that the company will obtain the ownership by the end of the lease term, capitalized leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset or the lease term.

Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as expenses in the statement of Profit & Loss Account on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The deferred tax asset is recognized and carried forward only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that the assets will be realized in future.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) credit is recognized as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. In the year in which the MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognized as an asset in accordance with the recommendations contained in guidance note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the said asset is created by way of a credit to the statement of profit and loss account and shown as MAT Credit Entitlement. The company reviews the same at each balance sheet date and writes down the carrying amount of MAT Credit Entitlement to the extent there is no longer convincing evidence to the effect that Company will pay normal Income Tax during the specified period.

o) Provisions

A provision is recognized when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made.
