MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Shareholders

The operating environment for businesses is changing decisively. Technology, customer expectations, compliance requirements and the need for continuity are reshaping how organizations invest, operate and grow. For organizations that are prepared, these shifts create not only complexity, but also meaningful opportunity.

Building a Higher-Quality Business for a More Connected and Fluidic Workplace

At Wepsol, we believe sustainable growth is built through disciplined execution and continuous investment in the right capabilities. FY 2025-2026 was a year of repurposing our focus areas and strengthening the quality of our businesses. We are preparing the company for a sustainable growth in the year to come. During the year, we faced challenges in all our business and in talent relation due to changing environment. We spent time, effort and resources in improving our processes and policies towards retention of people and profitability. This has resulted in short-term drop-in profits during the year.

We continued to strengthen our capabilities across Managed IT Services, Managed Print Services, GST Compliance and Retail Technology.

We also sharpened our sector focus across BFSI, Manufacturing, Healthcare, Retail and Logistics, where our solutions can deliver operational relevance, stronger customer engagement and meaningful long-term value.

Our Managed Print Services (MPS) business grew unoriginally and with lower profitability. MPS business remains an important pillar of Wepsol, supported by its recurring service model and our strong execution capabilities with deep customer engagement.

Our Managed IT Services (IMS) business is becoming increasingly strategic as we expand capabilities and deepen customer relationships. IMS is helping us build stronger enterprise engagement, higher-value service-led opportunities and a business mix that is better aligned to long-term customer needs.

Within our Retail Business, we continued to evolve the portfolio with greater emphasis on higher-value retail automation solutions. Our focus remains on deeper market penetration, stronger partner engagement and improved market visibility, while continuing to align the business toward better-quality opportunities.

As we enter FY 2026-2027, growth remains a clear priority. However, growth will require further significant investment in building capability.

We also need to invest in strengthen our ERP system and e-commerce platform. We will also be building AI agentic capabilities.

The above investments will requiring significant resources. We will also continue to invest in customer and partner relationships and in creating greater value for all our stakeholders. I believe the work undertaken during the year will establish a stronger foundation for the future and positioned Wepsol to pursue growth with greater confidence, in years to come.

We spent time, effort and resources in improving our processes and policies towards retention of people and profitability. This has resulted in short-term drop-in profits during the year.

On behalf of the Board, I thank our employees, customers, partners, shareholders, vendors, bankers and all our stakeholders for their continued trust and support. Together, I am confident that we will continue building a stronger Wepsol and creating sustainable value over the long term.

Warm regards,

Ram N Agrawal

WHY WE EXIST

When work is connected, growth follows.

Organizations today depend on technology, information, transactions and people working in sync. Yet many still operate across fragmented systems, disconnected workflows and avoidable complexity that constrain productivity, visibility and growth.

At Wepsol, we believe that when work is better connected, businesses perform better.

We exist to help organizations connect infrastructure, information, transactions and people in ways that make work simpler, smarter and more effective. Whether through secure enterprise infrastructure, managed services, workflow automation, document ecosystems or day-to-day business technology, our role is to remove friction from how work gets done and improve the quality of operating outcomes.

Our purpose is to transform workplaces and elevate work by building connected, fluidic ecosystems that improve efficiency, agility and growth. This means moving beyond stand-alone products and point solutions toward higher-value offerings that improve resilience, deepen customer engagement and support long-term business performance. It also reflects the way Wepsol itself is evolving - toward a more integrated, relevant and resilient business model.

As work continues to evolve, we seek to be a trusted partner that helps organizations operate with confidence, adapt with agility and grow sustainably through practical, scalable and outcome-led solutions.

Our purpose is to make these connections work better, creating sustainable growth and lasting value for our customers, partners and all our stakeholders.

Management Discussion and Analysis Report

1. Overview and Outlook: -

A Perspective on Global Economy: -

The Global economy witnessed uncertainties and challenges of far-reaching impact in the financial year 2026. AI driven Technology changes are bringing about a radical change in the way the global economy operates. Geopolitical tensions in the fourth quarter, particularly the conflict in the Middle East resulted in price shocks on energy front. This meant inflationary tendencies and uncertainty. Uncertainty translated into volatility in financial, energy and foreign exchange markets. Globally, Central banks orchestrated the monetary policies targeting inflation. Despite all these headwinds and AI driven upheavals, the Global economy grew moderately during the year. The outlook for the forthcoming year as per IMF is one of slow global growth with the recovery towards the end of the year.

A Primer on the Indian Economy: -

The GDP grew by 7.7% during the year. Growth impulses were mainly driven by private consumption. Slew of measures by way of tax cuts, rationalization of Goods and Services tax and strong rural demand were the reasons for improved private consumption. Services sector grew by 9.3% and manufacturing by 10% in FY 26. Gross fixed capital formation rose from 6.4% YonY to 8.2% YonY in FY 26. This implies increased capital expenditure by both government and private sectors.

On foreign trade, exports declined marginally, which is attributable to softening global demand and uncertainties on the tariff front. Growth in imports improved, indicating stronger domestic demand and higher imports of capital goods and machinery.

Coming to the outlook for FY 27, the GDP is expected to grow around 6.6% Y on Y. The moderation in growth rates is on account of the challenges that manufacturing and agricultural sectors are expected to encounter in the coming year. Weaker export demand, moderation in domestic consumption and rising input and energy costs are expected to drag the manufacturing sector. Potential adverse impact of El-Nino on crop production and rural incomes could bring down the growth rate in agricultural sector. Services sector is expected to be primary driver of growth in GDP.

2. Business & Industry Overview: -

Net Working Capital: -

The operations of the company, particularly in the enterprise services business are working capital intensive as it must maintain supplies of spare parts and consumables across India for meeting customer service commitments. Further, since the customers are usually large corporates, banks etc, there are receivables for the products supplied and services rendered. Risk Management Process

The company has an established sound risk management process which is overseen by the Audit Committee of the Board through a structured framework. Strategic, Operational and Business risks are identified, and appropriate mitigating action plans are put in place by the company. They are reviewed periodically.

The following risks are identified as key risks by the company. The mitigating steps taken to counter them are also outlined below.

Revenue Concentration

The company has concentration of revenue coming in from industry segments like Banking, Financial services and Insurance. Further, a few customers also contribute to a fair share of the revenue for the company. Such concentration exposes the company to a risk inherent in that segment or for a particular customer.

Mitigants

We have adopted prudent norms based on which we monitor and prevent undesirable concentration in geography, industry or customer. The quest for diversified activities within the existing realm of overall management after due consideration of the advantages and disadvantages of each activity is consistent with company policy of increasing business volumes with minimum exposure to undue risks. Concentration of revenue from any segment of the industry is sought to be minimized over the long term by careful extension into other activities, particularly in areas the company has some basic advantage such as availability of land, technical or manpower resources.

Inventory Obsolescence Risk

The company needs to maintain printers for a period of more than 48 months. These models are constantly upgraded by the principal suppliers. However, the company needs to maintain adequate stocks of spares and toners at all its customer locations in order to meet the customer requirements. These spares may or may not be used. This leads to a risk of us maintaining obsolete stocks. At times we are required to maintain inventory for demo equipments, replacement for repairs and normal distribution stocks. Your company faces the risk of obsolescence in the event of not being able to sell or deploy the above stocks.

Mitigants:

Your company is conscious of these risks and tracks and monitors its inventory at regular intervals to minimize obsolescence. Your company continuously monitors the stock levels of such items and ensures they are within reasonable limits. Further, the company has an established policy framework to identify slow and non-moving stocks at an early stage.

Industry Risk

Your company is facing stiff competition from other players who are both organized large brand owners and unorganized local players. This competition forces the company to cut down its margins and reduce price of its products and services for both the existing customers and new potential customers.

Mitigants:

Your company has put in a focused approach towards monitoring all such competitive activities. Your company reviews its customer relationship strategy periodically and keeps providing innovative and new solutions. Your company is also focusing on moving up the value chain at the customer by providing Document Management solutions. Your company believes in providing value to the customers and has put in a dedicated team to manage the existing and new customers.

System Risks

These risks relate broadly to System capability, System reliability, Data integrity risks, coordinating and interfacing risks.

Mitigants:

IT department maintains repairs and upgrades the systems on a continuous basis with personnel who are trained in software and hardware. Password protection is provided at different levels to ensure data integrity. Licensed software is being used in the systems. The Company ensures "Data Security", by having access control / restrictions.

Succession Risk

This covers the risk of not being able to find suitable replacement in a timely manner for vital positions in the organization when they become vacant.

Mitigants: -

Your company is conscious of this risk and has adopted a focused approach to groom replacements for vital positions in the organization.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of WeP Solutions Limited

Report on the Audit of Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of M/s WeP Solutions Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2026, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Changes in Equity and the Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended on that date and a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2026 and its profit, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SA's") specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Ind AS Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the Ind AS financial statements.

Key Audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. However, we have no key audit matters to be communicated in this report.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Directors Report along with the annexures, Corporate Social Responsibility Report and Corporate Governance Report (but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon) which we obtained prior to the date of this auditor's report, and the Chairman's statement, the Managing Directors Message, the Management Discussion and Analysis Report which is expected to be made available to us after that date.

Our opinion on the Ind AS financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether such other information is materially inconsistent with the Ind AS financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibility of Management and Board of Directors for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS

and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management and board of directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Ind AS financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism through the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the Ind AS financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Ind AS financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, make it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Independent Auditor's Report

"Annexure B" to the Independent Auditors Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of M/s. WeP Solutions Limited ("the Company"), as of March 31, 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing as specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

1. pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;
2. provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
3. provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Independent Auditor's Report

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the criteria for internal financial control with reference to financial statements established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India

1. Material accounting policy information to the Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2026

A. Material accounting policies

The material accounting policies applied by the Company in the preparation of its financial statements are listed below. Such accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the periods presented in these financial statements, unless otherwise indicated.

A.1. Statement of Compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as "Ind AS") as prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as amended from time to time. WeP Digital Services Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of the company, was amalgamated with the company with the Appointed date as 1st April 2021 in terms of scheme of arrangement framed under sections 230 and 232 of the Companies Act, 2013. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the scheme of arrangement and in accordance with the accounting standards. The amalgamation has been given effect to in the books of accounts as per appendix C of Ind AS-103 governing Business Combinations.

A.2. Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared in Indian Rupees (₹) which is the functional currency of the company.

These financial statements have been prepared on historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value or amortised cost at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods or services. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. All assets and liabilities have been classified as current and non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle.

A.3. Use of Estimates

"The preparation of these financial statements is in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS which requires the management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense for the periods presented.

The estimates and the underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which the changes are made.

Significant judgements and estimates relating to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities include useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets, provision for employee benefits and other provisions and recoverability of deferred tax assets.

A.4. Revenue Recognition

The Company earns revenue primarily from Managed Printing Solutions and Services, Manufacturing and Distribution of Retail Billing Products, trading in multifunctional printers and providing Digital Services like facilitation in filing of GST returns and provision of Information Technology infrastructure management services etc. to both enterprise and retail customers, pan India.

Revenue is recognised upon transfer of control of promised products or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration which the Company expects to receive in exchange for those products or services.

- Contracts with customers are considered for revenue recognition only if (a) the contract having commercial substance is approved and the parties have committed to perform their respective obligations; (b) respective rights of the parties with respect to goods or services to be transferred are identified; (c) the payment terms for goods or services to be transferred are clear and (d) it is probable that consideration would be collected in exchange for the goods or services that would be transferred to the customer. At the inception of the contract, either a transfer of distinct good or service to the customer or a series of distinct goods and services that are substantially the same and that have the same pattern of transfer to the customer are identified as performance obligation. Revenue is recognised when the performance obligation is satisfied by transferring the promised good or service to a customer and the customer obtains controls over it.

- In the case of provision of services such as Managed return filing services, use of ASP-GST software, where performance obligation is satisfied over time, revenue is recognised over time by measuring the progress to complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. In respect of revenue from licenses, where the customer obtains a "right to use", the revenue is recognised at the point in time when the license is made available to the customer and is recognised over the access period.

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established. Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis.

A.5. Inventories

Inventories are stated at lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using the weighted average method. Costs comprise direct materials and, where applicable, direct labour costs and those overheads that have been incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realisable value is the price at which the inventories can be realised in the normal course of business, after allowing for the cost of conversion from their existing state to a finished condition and for the cost of selling and distribution.

Obsolete, slow moving and defective inventories are identified from time to time and where necessary, a provision is made for such inventories.

A.6. Property, plant and equipment

An item of property, plant and equipment is recognised as an asset if it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. This recognition principle is applied to the costs incurred initially to acquire an item of property, plant and equipment and also to costs incurred subsequently to add to, replace part of, or service it. Borrowing cost directly attributable to the construction or production of qualifying assets are capitalised as a part of cost. All other repair and maintenance costs, including regular servicing, are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, as and when incurred.

All property, plant and equipment are stated at cost of acquisition or construction, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any. Cost includes all direct costs and expenditures incurred to bring the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Capital Work-in-Progress is stated at cost, comprising of direct cost and related incidental expenditure. Assets that are not ready for use in the manner as intended by the Management are shown as Capital work in progress

The gain or loss arising on disposal of an asset is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

A.7. Intangible assets

Software costs, both acquired and internally generated, are recognised as intangible assets only where they are clearly linked to long term economic benefits for the Company. They are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. All other costs on software are expensed in the Statement of Profit and Loss as and when incurred.

Expenditure during development phase of internally generated software is recognized as intangible assets if all of the following conditions are met:

- i) completion of the development is technically feasible;
- ii) it is the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- iii) it is clear that the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits;
- iv) adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset are available; and
- v) it is possible to reliably measure the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

Recognition of costs as an asset is ceased when the project is complete and available for its intended use, or if these criteria no longer apply.

Where development activities do not meet the conditions for recognition as an asset, any associated expenditure is treated as an expense in the period in which it is incurred.

A.8. Depreciation and amortization of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

Depreciation or amortization is provided on the straight-line method over the useful lives of assets as estimated by the management. The estimated useful lives of assets are as follows:

Assets	Useful Life applied (In Years)
Computers	3.00
Furniture and Fixtures - Owned Premises	10.00
Furniture and Fixtures - Leased Premises	5.00
Office Equipment	5.00
Plant and Equipments including Electrical installations	4.00
Computer Peripherals - on Use and Pay	4.00
Vehicles	8.00
Air Conditioners	4.00
Moulds, Dies & Patterns	5.00
Building	30.00

Individual Assets costing less than Rs 5,000 are depreciated in full in the year of purchase. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during the year is proportionately charged.

Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives as estimated by the management on a straight-line basis as follows:-

Assets	Useful Life applied (In Years)
Computer Software – ERP Systems	4.00
Computer Software	2 to 3 years
Technical Know-how	5.00

A.9. Impairment of Assets

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that the carrying amount of those assets may not be recoverable through continuing use.

If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is reviewed in order to determine the extent of impairment loss, if any. Where the asset does not generate cash flows that are independent from other assets, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Recoverable amount is the higher of the fair value, less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value, using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and risks specific to the asset, for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted. An impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as and when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income immediately.

A.10. Foreign Currency Transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transaction.

At the end of each reporting period, all monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rates prevailing as at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not translated.

The exchange difference arising on account of the difference between the rates prevailing on the date of transaction and on the date of settlement, as also on translation of monetary items at the end of the year is recognized as income or expense, as the case may be, in the Statement of Profit and Loss for the year.

A.11. Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss, are immediately recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial instrument and of allocating interest income or expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts future cash receipts or payments through the expected life of the financial instrument, or where appropriate, a shorter period.

a) Financial assets

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost, if these financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets, in order to collect contractual cash flows, and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Investment in subsidiaries / associates are accounted at cost.

Financial assets measured at fair value

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, if these financial assets are held within a business model, whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, or to sell these financial assets, and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets not measured at amortised cost, or at fair value through other comprehensive income, are carried at fair value through profit or loss.

Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses, on a forward looking basis, the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Company has applied the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables with effect from April 1, 2017.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the financial asset and substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

b) Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity is recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial Liabilities

Trade and other payables are initially measured at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method.

Interest-bearing bank loans, overdrafts and issued debt are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the settlement or redemption of borrowings is recognised over the term of the borrowings in accordance with the Company's accounting policy for borrowing costs.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Company derecognises financial liabilities when the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire.

A.12. Employee Benefits

i. Short Term Employee Benefits

Short Term Employees Benefits are recognized as an expense at the undiscounted amount in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the year in which the related services is rendered.

ii. Other long-term employee benefit obligations

Leave Encashment: Liability in respect of leave encashment as at the balance sheet date is determined based on actuarial valuation, by using the Projected Unit Credit Method and gains/losses for the year are recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

iii. Post Employment Benefits

Provident Fund : The Company contributes monthly at a determined rate. These contributions are remitted to the Employee Provident Fund Commissioner office and are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss on accrual basis.

Gratuity : The Company provides for gratuity (a defined benefit retirement plan) to all the eligible employees. The benefit is in the form of lumpsum payments to vested employees on retirement, on death while in employment, or termination of employment for an amount equivalent to 15 days' salary, payable for each completed year of service. Vesting occurs on completion of five years of service. Liability in respect of gratuity as at the balance sheet date is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation, using the Projected Unit Credit Method. Re-measurement gains and losses of the net defined benefit liability/ (asset) are recognised immediately in other comprehensive income. The service cost, net interest on the net defined benefit liability/ (asset) is treated as a net expense within employment costs and are recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

iv. Employee Stock Options

All employee services received in exchange for the grant of any share based remuneration are measured at their fair values. These are indirectly determined by reference to the fair value of the share options awarded. Their value is appraised at the grant date and excludes the impact of any non-market vesting conditions (for example, profitability and sales growth targets).

All share-based remuneration is ultimately recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, with a corresponding credit to Employee Stock Compensation Reserve. If vesting periods or other vesting conditions apply, the expense is allocated over the vesting period, based on the best available estimate of the number of share options expected to vest. Non-market vesting conditions are included in assumptions about the number of options that are expected to become exercisable. Estimates are subsequently revised, if there is any indication that the number of share options expected to vest differs from previous estimates. Once vested, no adjustment is made to expense recognised in prior periods if, ultimately, fewer share options are exercised than originally estimated. Upon exercise of share options, the proceeds received (net of any directly attributable transaction costs) up to the nominal value of the shares issued are allocated to share capital with any excess being recorded as Securities Premium.

A.13. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for intended use. All other borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they are incurred.

A.14. Earning Per Share

In accordance with the Ind AS 33 "Earnings Per Share", basic / diluted earnings per share is computed by taking the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year.

A.15. Taxation

Tax expense for the year comprises of current tax and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on the taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit, as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss, because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. In contrast, deferred tax assets for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax are recognised as an expense or income in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except when they relate to items credited or debited either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws in India, which gives rise to future economic benefits in the form of adjustment of future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. Accordingly, MAT entitlement is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when the asset can be measured reliably and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with it will fructify. Such asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and the carrying amount of MAT credit asset is written down to the extent there is no longer a convincing evidence for the effect that the company will pay normal income tax during the specified period.

A.16. Warranty Cost

The Company accrues the estimated cost of warranties at the time when the revenue is recognised. The accruals are based on the Company's historical experience of material usage and service delivery cost.

A.17. Provisions

Provisions are recognized in the balance sheet when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, which is expected to result in an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits which can be reliably estimated. Each provision is based on the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the balance sheet date. When appropriate, provisions are measured on a discounted basis.

Constructive obligation is an obligation that derives from a Company's actions where:

- (a) by an established pattern of past practice, published policies or a sufficiently specific current statement, the Company has indicated to other parties that it will accept certain responsibilities; and
- (b) as a result, the Company has created a valid expectation on the part of those other parties that it will discharge those responsibilities.

A.18. Leases

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for land and buildings. The Company, at the inception of a contract, assesses whether the contract is a lease or not lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a time in exchange for a consideration. This policy has been applied to contracts existing and entered into on or after April 1, 2019.

The Company recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the end of the lease term.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted using the Company's long term borrowing rate. It is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, if there is a change in the Company's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if the Company changes its assessment of whether it will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero. The Company has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets (assets of less than INR 5,000 in value). The Company recognises the lease payments associated with these leases as an expense over the lease term.

A.19. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, demand deposits with bank, and other short term highly liquid investments, with original maturities of 3 months or less.

Cash flow Statement:- Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. Cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities are segregated.

32 : Financial Instruments

This section gives an overview of the significance of financial instruments for the Company and provides additional information on balance sheet terms that contain financial instruments.

The details of material accounting policies, including the criteria for recognition, the basis of measurement and the basis on which income and expenses are recognised, in respect of each class of financial asset, financial liability and equity instrument is disclosed in Note 1 to the financial statements.

(i) Classification of Financial Assets and Liabilities

All financial assets and financial liabilities are valued at amortised cost.

(ii) Fair Value Hierarchy

There are no financial assets or liabilities of the Company, which, after their initial recognition, have been fair valued either during the year or in the previous year.

(iii) Financial Risk Management Policies and Objectives

The Company, in the course of its business, is exposed to a variety of financial risks, viz., market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk which can adversely impact the financial performance. The Company's endeavour is to foresee the unpredictability of financial markets and seek to minimise potential adverse effects on its financial performance. The Company has a risk management policy that not only covers the foreign exchange risk but also other risks such as interest rate risk and credit risk which are associated with financial assets and liabilities.

A. Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of any loss in future earnings, in realisable fair values or in future cash flows that may result from a change in the value of financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in the interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, equity price fluctuations, liquidity and other market changes. Future specific market movements cannot be normally predicted with reasonable accuracy.

B. Foreign currency exchange rate risk:

The fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rate may have a potential impact on the statement of profit and loss and equity. This arises from transactions entered in foreign currency and assets/liabilities which are denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the Company.

The Company imports raw materials, traded goods, consumables etc and such transactions are denominated in US Dollars. The Company does not take major exposure in any other foreign currency. The Company also exports goods which are billed in US dollars. The Company has a hedging policy approved and reviewed by the Board of Directors to mitigate its risks. As part of the hedging policy, the Company concludes forward contracts at regular intervals to mitigate the risk. Details of foreign currency exposure in USD are as follows:

C. Interest rate risk management

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's long term debt obligations with floating interest rates. The Company manages its interest rate risk by having a mixed portfolio of fixed and variable rate loans and borrowings.

C.1 Interest rate sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for both derivatives and non-derivative instruments at the end of the reporting period. For floating rate liabilities, the analysis is prepared assuming the amount of the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period was outstanding for the whole year. A 100 basis point increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates. (₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	As at March 31, 2026	As at March 31, 2025
Impact on Profit & Loss account	9.11	7.18

D. Liquidity risk management

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the board of directors, which has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Company's short-, medium- and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

E. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss arising from counterparty failure to repay or service debt according to the contractual terms or obligations. Credit risk covers both the direct risk of default and the risk of deterioration of creditworthiness as well as concentration risks. Trade receivables constitute the financial instruments that are exposed to credit risk. The Company's policy is to deal only with creditworthy counterparts. The Company management considers that all the financial assets that are not impaired for each of the reporting dates under review are of good credit quality, including those that are past due. None of the Company financial assets are secured by collateral or other credit enhancements.

The Company's exposure to credit risk is limited to the carrying amount of financial assets recognised at the balance sheet date.
