Radio Industry Overview

Industry Fundamentals

Radio: A high growth segment of Media & Entertainment industry

Phase wise details of FM radio licenses and cities

PHASE	CITIES	LICENSES
Late 1990's Phase 1	12	21
2006-2007 Phase 2	86	245
2015 Phase 3 First Batch*	56	97

* Phase 3 is further expected to issue 831 licenses in 264 cities

Source-BCG-CII Report Oct, 2016 and FICCI-KPMG Report 2016

- Covers 45% of India's population, still leaving significant scope of growth
- Listenership at almost 95% in top 4 metros
- Phase III auction brought a radical change with addition of multiple frequencies and geographies (Post Phase III – 294 Cities, 1084 Frequencies)
- Consistent across demographic profiles

Evolving Regulatory Changes making Radio a high growth business

Benefits of Phase III expansion:

- ✓ Higher Penetration leading to Economies of Scale – centralized broadcasting (networking) allowed
- ✓ Radio Services in larger number of cities leading to increased advertisement budget allocation
- ✓ Multiple frequencies in same geography resulting in content differentiation
- ✓ Varied content such as news, sports, current affairs, sports etc allowed
- ✓ License tenor increased to 15 years from 10 years
