Client relationships

Contrast Media Intermediates

- Contrast media are agents used in medical imaging to enhance the visibility of body tissues
- Company supplies critical starting intermediate and several advanced intermediates

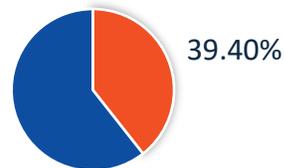

X-ray & CT Scan

MRI Scan

19

- Top 4 players accounts for ~75% global market share¹
- 4–26 years of relationship with the 3 of the largest manufacturers .

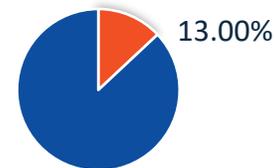

High Intensity Sweeteners

- High-intensity sweetener business involves development, manufacture and marketing of saccharin and its salts

- Table-top sweeteners, oral care products, beverages (primarily soft-drinks), confectionary products, pharmaceutical products, food supplements, and animal feeds

4

- Offers high-intensity sweeteners to over 300 customers globally
- Marquee customers – in FMCG and Agro chemical Space

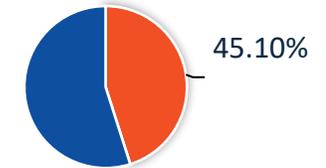

Pharma Intermediates & APIs

- Collaboration with innovator pharmaceutical companies and multi-national generic companies
- Provides intermediates that serve as pharmaceutical building blocks for APIs in chronic therapeutic areas

- Chronic therapeutic areas such as cardiovascular system (“CVS”), central nervous system (“CNS”), oncology etc

28

- Markets predominantly in regulated markets
- Over 56 customers globally of which 40 in India

Contrast Media Intermediates

Overview of Contrast Media and its growth drivers

What is contrast media?

- Chemical agents that enhances the contrast of an imaging modality in diagnostic imaging, thereby aiding diagnosis of diseases
- Once inside the human body, selectively and temporarily taken up by different body tissues
- Enhance the images, leading to better visualizations of the tissues and organs

Types of contrast media

- X-ray / Computed Tomography (CT) contrast agents: Iodine-based contrast media agents
- Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) contrast agents: Gadolinium-based agents
- Ultrasound (USG) agents: Stabilized microbubble-based contrast media agents

Growth drivers for contrast media

Growing population and changing demographics

(65 yrs.+) estimated to increase from 6.9% of the total world population in 2000 to 10.4% by 2025¹

Growing prevalence of lifestyle diseases

Such as diabetes, physical inactivity, obesity, etc.

Increased convenience

Through online booking and reporting

Rising healthcare expenditure

Global health expenditure grew at 3.9% CAGR from 2000–17

Focus on early diagnostics

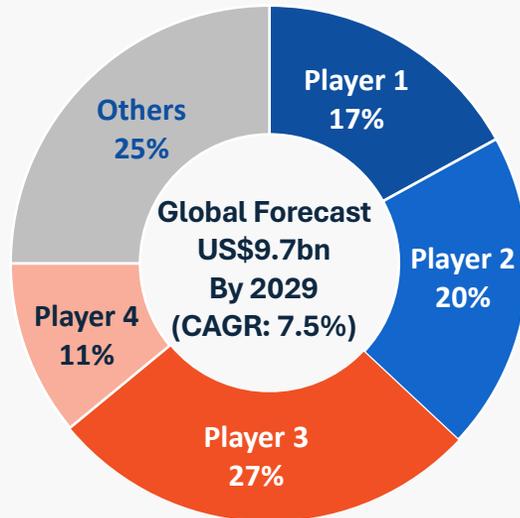

Driven by advancement in diagnostic technologies and growing public awareness

Increasing demand for preventive healthcare

Driven by increased awareness and rising curative costs

The global Contrast Media industry is highly concentrated

Top 4 accounts for ~75% share in 2024

Highly concentrated and dominated by multi-national corporations

Collectively hold ~75% of the global sales of contrast media formulations¹

Either forward integrated (have equipment manufacturing) or long-standing relationships with manufacturers

High entry barriers for key intermediates' vendors

Characteristics of the Contrast Media market

Strict internal standards for product impurity / features profile

Stickiness of relationship

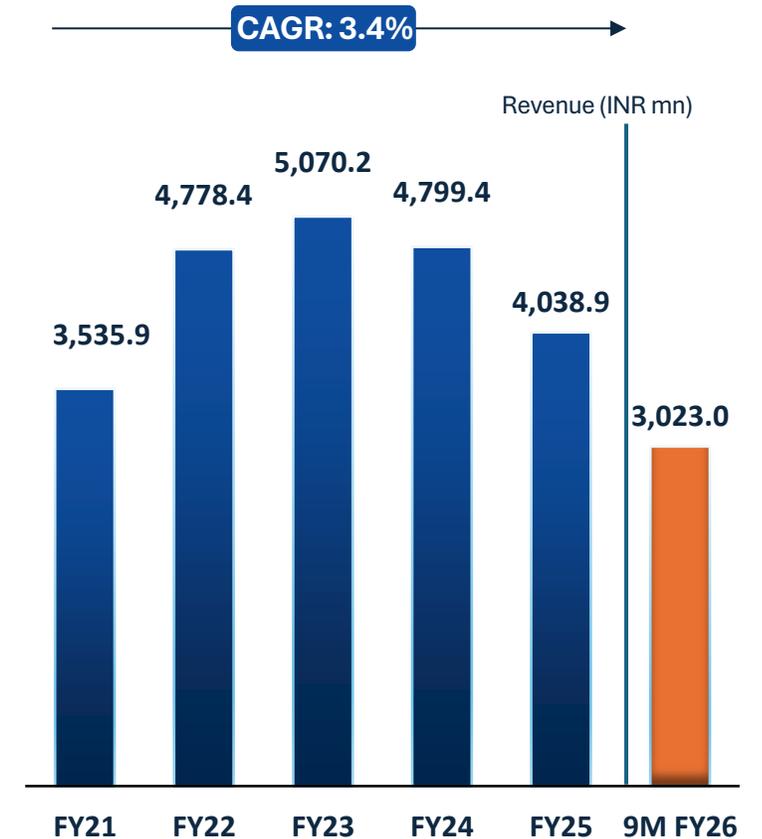

Long-term supply contracts

Blue Jet's positioning

- ✓ More than two decades of experience
 - ✓ 75%+ of exports of a selected contrast media intermediate (5-Amino-N,N'-bis (2,3-dihydroxypropyl) isophthalamide) from India¹
 - ✓ Strategically focused on complex chemistry categories
- ✓ Regularly supplying key starting intermediate as the building block
 - ✓ Several functionally critical advanced intermediates
 - ✓ 4 to 26 years with 3 of the largest contrast media manufacturers in the world, directly
- ✓ Medium to long term supply contracts with customers
 - ✓ ~70% of total sales backed by contracted sales volumes²
 - ✓ Products qualified, approved and validated

Continue to forward integrate into more advanced intermediates for Contrast Media

Strong product development and process optimization capabilities underpinned by in-house R&D capabilities

Focus on molecules with customer interest and strategy in either outsourcing or alternate sourcing the next stage of advanced intermediates

Key starting intermediate as building block in 2000 to 19 additional advanced intermediates as of FY25

Further improving chemistry capabilities in close synergy with our customers (4 to 26 years with 3 of top 4 players directly)

Key benefits

Capture larger wallet share with existing customers

Higher realization and profitability per unit

Potential of moving up the value chain

High Intensity Sweeteners

Blue Jet's positioning in High Intensity Sweetener

Blue Jet's positioning

Products

- Adherence to strict internal standards to ensure consistency in quality, performance, taste, and impurity profile
- Multiple products and applications enabling to cater a diverse customer base

Compliance, GMP, supply chain reliability

- Have received US-FDA inspection report
- Semi-automated manufacturing facility
- Strong product development and process optimization capabilities

Customers

- Offers high-intensity sweeteners to over 300 customers globally
- Focus on marquee customers across various sub-sectors
- Table-top sweeteners, oral care products, beverages (primarily soft-drinks), confectionary products, pharmaceutical products, food supplements, and animal feeds

5 Pharma Intermediates & API

Trends and features of the Pharma Intermediates and APIs Product Category

Key trends in Pharma Intermediates and CDMO market

Increased propensity to outsource manufacturing of intermediates & APIs

- Enables asset light model and ability to focus on development of novel products for venture capital backed start-ups
- Provides cost advantages and supply chain efficiencies

De-risking dependence on China by global API and formulations players

- Concerns around specific APIs made in China, accentuated with Covid-19
- China implemented stricter regulations and witnessed rising wage costs

Self sufficiency with import substitution

- Government initiatives such as PLI schemes and bulk drug parks
- Growth driven by proven skills, educational systems, supply chain reliability, and IP protection

The growth in the global pharmaceuticals market

- Launch of novel therapies (including biologics and personalized therapies)
- Expansion of existing therapies in several geographies
- Growing demand for generic medicines

Revenue and capacity utilization predictability for the CDMO

- Customers prefer close partnerships with CDMO driven by
 - Confidentiality of the projects
 - Novelty of the underlying chemistry and need for custom-development

Features of a typical arrangement to supply of intermediates to innovators of NCEs

Higher realizations per unit sold

- Key criteria for selection of CDMO include track record in the chemistry and similar therapy areas
- Competitive cost is not the most important consideration

Overview of Blue Jet's Pharma Intermediates and APIs Product Category

Salient features

- Commenced manufacturing pharma intermediates two decades ago, leveraging the customer relationships through high-intensity sweetener business
- Key focus areas include high-value pharma intermediates and APIs
 - In chronic therapeutic areas
 - Import substitution market
- Benefit from collaboration with innovator companies because typical technology transfer reduces the development risk

Client profile

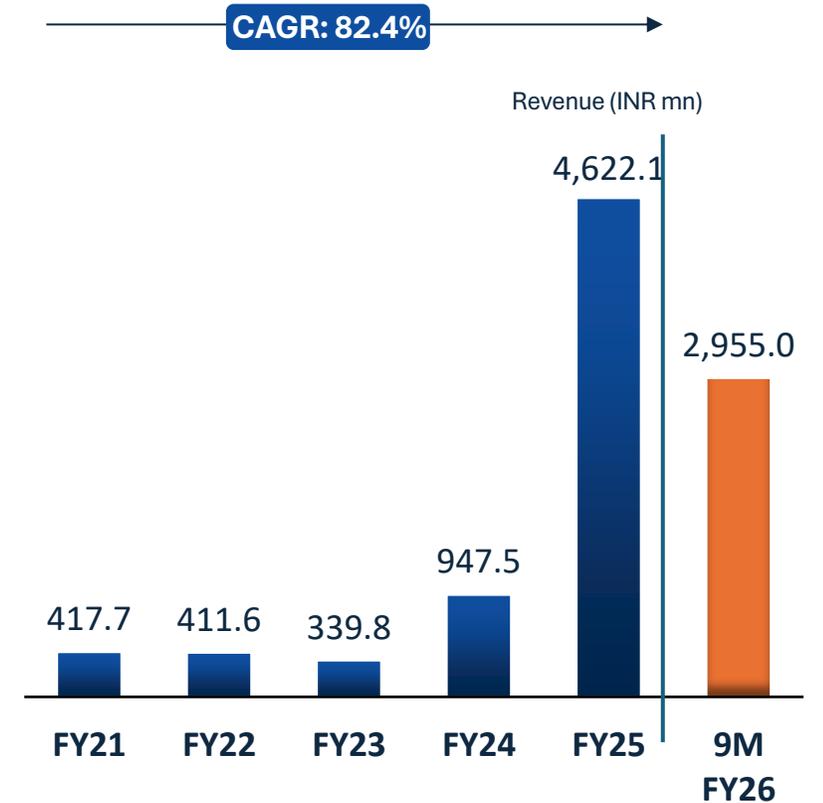

- Innovator pharmaceutical companies and multi-national generic pharmaceutical
- Over 40 customers in India, and 16 globally across Europe, North America, South America, and Asia

Therapeutic areas

- Cardiovascular system (“CVS”)
- Oncology
- Central nervous system (“CNS”)

Pharma Intermediate and APIs product category performance

Leverage our long-standing customer relationships to continue entering adjacencies in the pharma intermediate and API category

Focus on three niche areas in providing CDMO services

Investigational new drugs and new chemical entities (NCEs)

Develop advanced intermediates for NCEs under trials for US-FDA approvals

Drugs that are still under patent and not genericized

Offering advanced intermediates to innovators for four active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs) which are still under patent

- Including two APIs in the oncology sector, one API in the cardiovascular system category and one API in the central nervous system category

Genericized drugs that are still niche

Offering multiple advanced intermediates to a number of large generics companies for chronic illness therapies

Blue Jet's positioning

Leverage long-standing relationships with innovator companies

Process research, analytical research and chemistry capabilities

Continuous focus on product quality
