An investment in the Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all the information in this Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties summarized below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares. The risks described below are relevant to the industries our Company is engaged in, our Company and our Equity Shares. To obtain a complete understanding of our Company, you should read this section in conjunction with the chapters titled “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on page numbers 135 and 229, respectively, of this Prospectus as well as the other financial and statistical information contained in this Prospectus. Prior to making an investment decision, prospective investors should carefully consider all of the information contained in the section titled “Financial Information, as Restated” beginning on page number 227 of this Prospectus.

If any one or more of the following risks as well as other risks and uncertainties discussed in the Prospectus were to occur, our business, financial condition and results of our operation could suffer material adverse effects and could cause the trading price of our Equity Shares and the value of investment in the Equity Shares to materially decline which could result in the loss of all or part of investment. Prospective investors should pay particular attention to the fact that our Company is incorporated under the laws of India and is therefore subject to a legal and regulatory environment that may differ in certain respects from that of other countries.

This Prospectus also contains forward looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in the Prospectus. These risks are not the only ones that our Company face. Our business operations could also be affected by additional factors that are not presently known to us or that we currently consider to be immaterial to our operations. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify financial or other implication of any risks mentioned herein.

The financial information in this section is, unless otherwise stated, derived from our Restated Standalone Financial Statements prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP, as per the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013, and SEBI (ICDR) Regulations.

2. Some risks may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively.
3. Some risks may not be material at present but may have a material impact in the future.

Classification of Risk Factors

Internal Risk Factors

- Our revenue depends heavily on government-tendered projects and a few key clients. Any unfavourable changes in government policies or the loss of any major client could significantly impact our business and financial performance.

Our business is significantly reliant on government-tendered projects for revenue generation. Any unfavourable changes in government policies, such as shifts in budget allocations, political pressures, or internal process delays, could lead to the closure, termination, or renegotiation of our contracts, significantly impacting our operations and financial performance. Our majority of revenue comes from government projects, this concentration of clients poses a risk to our business. If the government reduces its focus on infrastructure or related sectors, or if there are changes in government priorities, we could experience fewer opportunities for contracts, delays in project awards, or renegotiation of terms, further affecting our operations.

Additionally, we derive a significant portion of our revenue from a limited number of clients. This reliance on a small client base increases the volatility of our results and exposes us to risks associated with individual contracts. If we fail to meet profit expectations or incur losses on these substantial contracts, it could adversely affect our business. The loss of any key client or failure to comply with contract obligations could lead to a reduction in the number of contracts awarded by that client in the future, significantly impacting our revenue and business performance.

The table below shows the percentage of revenue generated from our top customers for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023:

(Rupees in Lakhs, except %)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	For the Financial Year ended March 31, 2025	For the Financial Year ended March 31, 2024	For the Financial Year ended March 31, 2023

% of Top Ten (10) Customers to Revenue from Operations	51.54%	40.09%	59.98%	75.14%

While these situations have not occurred in the past three financial years, we cannot guarantee they won't happen in the future. Any such events could limit our operational flexibility and adversely impact our business, cash flows, and financial position.

- Our company has primarily focused on government contracts, resulting in limited experience with private sector projects. This lack of experience could create challenges in adjusting to the changing and competitive nature of the private sector, potentially impacting our ability to meet client expectations and win future contracts.

In the past, our company primarily focused on government-tendered projects, as a result, we have limited experience working with private sector clients. This lack of experience may pose challenges as we expand into the private sector, including difficulties in understanding private sector requirements, negotiating terms, and adapting to the faster decision-making processes and different expectations of private clients. Additionally, the private sector may involve more complex contractual terms, and higher performance expectations, which could expose us to greater risks. If we are unable to effectively navigate these challenges, it may adversely affect our ability to secure private sector contracts and impact our business growth and financial performance.

- Our majority of revenue dependent on the services provided by us under Supervision and quality control (SQC) segment, any decline in the demand for these services can affect our revenue and result of operations.

Our Company is majorly dependent on the services provided by us under Supervision and quality control (SQC) segment. If the demand for this segment declines due to changes in market trends, customer preferences, or technological advancements, the company's revenue can be severely impacted, dependency on one segment makes the company's revenue stream highly volatile and sensitive to any disruptions in the product market.

However, to mitigate these risks, Our Company is diversifying and expand its services portfolio by including a range of other services such as Third-Party Techno Financial Auditor (TPTFA), Detailed Project Report (DPR) and Pre-Bidding Advisory.

- The Contracts in our order book may be adjusted, cancelled, or suspended by our clients at their discretion, and therefore our order book is not necessarily indicative of future revenues or earnings.

As of September 30, 2025, our order book for our consultancy services business was approximately Rs. 25,546.23 Lakhs. Our order book reflects anticipated revenue from awarded contracts based on the assumption that they will proceed as scheduled. However, there can be no assurance that the contracts included in our order book will be realized as revenue or, if realized, will result in profit. During periods of economic slowdown or market instability, the likelihood of contract adjustments, cancellations, or suspensions may increase. Any such delays or cancellations could adversely impact our cash flows, revenues, and profitability.

While we have not experienced cancellations, terminations, or suspensions of contracts in the past three years, we cannot assure you that the same will not be occurred in future.

5. Failure to provide accurate and timely certification and verification of construction progress, quality, and safety, it could result in delays, penalties from regulatory bodies, and impact our operations.

Our company conducts detailed supervision of the construction projects to assess the progress, quality, and safety of the construction activities. Any negligence in the review, approval process, investigations, surveys, identification of construction defects, or failure to provide accurate and timely certification, could result in delays in issuing proper certifications and verifications to clients, could result in penalties from regulatory authorities.

However, these events have not occurred in the past in last three financial years, we cannot assure you that the same will not occur in future, these restrictions could limit our operational flexibility, thereby adversely impacting our business, prospects, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

6. Our Restated Financial Statements are prepared and signed by the Peer Review Auditor who is not Statutory Auditor of our Company. This would lack of consistency or continuity in the financial review process, resulting oversight of material issues or misstatement in the financial statements.

The restated financial statements disclosed in this Prospectus as per Schedule VI of SEBI (ICDR) Regulations 2018, have been provided by M/s Maheshwari Rajiv & Co, Chartered Accountants, the Peer Review Auditor (FRN: 007115N) having peer review number: 015954, who is not the Statutory Auditor of the company. Peer Review Auditor may lack the deep understanding of the company's operations that Statutory Auditor typically possess due to their ongoing involvement with the company. This could lead to oversight of material issues or misstatements in the financial statements.

7. Our reliance on software, automated systems, and machinery is critical to our operations, and any failure or disruption in their performance could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our business relies on advanced software, automated systems, and machinery to deliver consultancy services across various infrastructure projects. These technologies are essential for tasks such as surveying, design, and technical supervision. Given the nature of our work, the proper functioning of these systems is vital to maintaining project quality and meeting client expectations.

As technology evolves, we may be required to upgrade or replace existing software, automated systems, or machinery to stay competitive, improve performance, or ensure compliance with new industry standards and security requirements. Such upgrades may be driven by advancements in technology, changes in industry norms, or emerging data security concerns. However, these upgrades could involve substantial costs, including purchasing new software licenses, training staff, addressing downtime during transitions, and managing data migration and integration expenses.

In addition to the financial costs, there are operational risks involved. Implementing new or upgraded systems can lead to temporary disruptions in workflow, potentially affecting project timelines and deliverables. If the new systems fail to perform as expected or are not fully integrated with existing processes, it could result in inefficiencies, delays, or errors, adversely impacting project outcomes and client satisfaction.

Furthermore, if the software, automated systems, or machinery we depend on fail to operate as intended, or if they require frequent repairs or replacements, it could disrupt our ability to execute projects efficiently and on time, which would negatively affect our business performance, profitability, and overall financial condition.

8. Our operations require substantial working capital, and any shortfall in cash flow, credit, or funding availability could adversely impact our operations.

Our company business requires substantial working capital to meet its requirements. The details of our working capital for the projected, estimated and restated period are as follows:

In our business, working capital is often required to finance payment of wages and salaries, and site operations. In the event, we are unable to source the required amount of working capital, we might not be able to efficiently satisfy the demand of our clients in a timely manner or at all, which may affect our business relation with our client, which could have adverse impact on our business and financial performance.

Further, in the event of a liquidity crunch, we may be forced to increase our working capital borrowings, which would lead to higher finance costs and could adversely impact our profitability. If we are unable to maintain adequate cash flow, access necessary credit facilities, or secure other funding sources in a timely manner, our financial condition and operational performance may be negatively affected.

9. Our responsibility for the timely completion of projects and adherence to performance standards is crucial, and failure to meet these obligations may result in client loss, additional costs, or reduced revenue.

Our Company is responsible for completing consultancy projects within the agreed timelines. Timely delivery is critical for client satisfaction and maintaining our industry reputation. We are also obligated to ensure that all projects meet performance standards, including quality, safety, regulatory compliance, and functionality.

Failure to meet these timelines or performance standards may lead to financial penalties, claims for compensation from clients, or additional costs to rectify issues. These unforeseen expenses could have a significant negative impact on our profit margins and overall financial performance.

10. Majority of our state-wise revenues from operations are derived from Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Maharashtra. Any adverse developments affecting our operations in these states could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.

Our business operations span various regions across India. Despite this diversified presence, we have a significance dependency on Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Maharashtra. which contributes 54.30%, 51.16%, 25.03%, and 16.71%, to our total revenue for the period ended on September 30, 2025 and the financial years ending on March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, respectively.

Relying heavily on these states, exposes us to regional economic fluctuations, regulatory changes, and local market dynamics. Adverse conditions such as economic downturns, political instability, or natural disasters specific to that region could significantly impact our revenue stream and also any decline in the economic prosperity or changes in regulations within that particular region could negatively affect our financial performance. However, to mitigate this risk, we are continuously expanding into new states to sustain our revenue.

11. Majority of the employees of the company have not been registered in the EPFO Portal.

As on date November 30, 2025, The Company has 181 employees on its payroll, out of which only 5 are registered with the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO). While the registration of other employees is not mandatory with EPFO as per Employee Provident Fund scheme 1952, in the event of amendments to the EPF Act, Scheme, or related regulations that changed eligibility criteria or requirements, the number of employees required to be registered may increase. Such changes could result in increase in compliances for the Company and increase in the Company's contribution obligations, which could impact its financial position.

12. There are outstanding legal proceedings involving our Promoters and Directors. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our promoter and Directors are involved in certain legal proceedings which are pending at different levels of adjudication before Income tax Authorities.

14. Our business relies on skilled personnel, and our inability to recruit and retain such personnel could adversely impact our operations and growth prospects.

Our services depend heavily on skilled and specialized personnel, which are essential to supporting our growth and delivering quality consultancy services for infrastructure projects. To maintain our operational standards and meet client expectations, we invest significant time and resources in training our personnel to develop the skills and knowledge necessary for their roles.

Our future success is contingent on our ability to recruit, train, and retain a talented workforce. However, we face considerable competition from other firms in attracting and retaining skilled professionals, which may restrict our ability to secure the talent needed for ongoing and future projects. As demand for specialized skills rises, the availability of qualified candidates may decrease, potentially impacting our workforce and limiting our capacity to meet our growth objectives.

We cannot assure that we will consistently find and retain skilled manpower in sufficient numbers to meet our operational requirements. Any difficulties in recruiting or retaining qualified personnel could impact our ability to execute projects efficiently and meet our service delivery standards, potentially hindering our operations, growth, and overall business performance.

15. We are dependent on our Promoters, our senior management and other key personnel, and the loss of, or our inability to attract or retain, such persons could affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our promoters, senior management and other key personnel. They have gained experience in this line of business and have over the years built relations with our customers and other stakeholders who are connected with us and have been actively involved in the day to day operations and management. Further, we believe that the inputs and experience of our senior management, in particular, and other key personnel are valuable for project development and procurement activities, and our overall business operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. For details in relation to the experience of our key management personnel, see “Our Management” on page 198 of this Prospectus. We cannot assure you that these individuals or any other member of our senior management team will not leave us or join a competitor or that we will be able to retain such personnel or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires. The loss of the services of such persons may have an effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

16. The Company is yet to place orders for all the plant & machineries for our proposed object, as specified in the Objects of the Issue. Any delay in placing orders, procurement of plant & machineries may delay our implementation schedule and may also lead to increase in price of these plant & machineries, further affecting our revenue and profitability.

The Company has not yet placed orders for any of the plant and machinery necessary for our proposed objectives as outlined in the Objects of the Issue. Any delays in the ordering or procurement process could hinder our implementation schedule, potentially resulting in increased costs for these assets. Such delays may adversely affect our operational timelines and could lead to a reduction in revenue and profitability. We recognize that fluctuations in market conditions may further exacerbate these risks, impacting our ability to achieve our strategic goals within the anticipated timeframe.

17. Our business involves handling highly sensitive and confidential project data, and any failure to maintain the secrecy of this information could adversely impact our operations and financial condition.

Our business involves handling highly sensitive data related to government projects, including aerial photography, video recording, surveying, mapping, land acquisition, and other critical documentation. The confidentiality and security of this data are essential to our operations, and any breach could have serious repercussions for our business and client trust. To protect this data, we have implemented strict access controls, allowing only authorized personnel to access sensitive information. Any failure on our part to maintain data confidentiality could negatively impact our business, operational results, and financial condition.

While we have not experienced any data breaches or incidents of unauthorized access in last three financial years, we cannot guarantee that such breaches will not occur in the future.

18. Our Company has had negative cash flows from its investment and financing activities in the current and past years. Sustained negative cash flow could have an impact on our growth and business.

Our company had negative cash flow from “Investing activities” during stub period and three preceding financial year, due to purchase of fixed asset and investment in property. We also had negative cash flow from “Financing activities” in period ending September 30, 2025, and financial year ended March 31, 2025 due repayment of Long-Term Borrowings and Interest Cost. Any such negative cash flows in the future could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. For more details, kindly refer to page no. 228 in the chapter title “Financial Information as restated.”

The table given below set forth our cash flows for the period ended on September 30, 2025 and for the Financial year ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023.

(Rupees in lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended on September 30, 2025	For the Year ended 31 March, 2025	For the Year ended 31 March, 2024	For the Year ended 31 March, 2023

Cash flow from Financing activities	(49.21)	(36.78)	9.86	47.23

19. Our revenue and earnings are significantly dependent on the award of new contracts, which are determined through a bidding process over which we have no direct control, and as a result, our financial performance may fluctuate based on factors outside our control.

A substantial portion of our revenue is derived from the award of projects, which are generally obtained through a competitive bidding process. The timing of when projects will be awarded is highly unpredictable and outside of our direct control. We operate in a highly competitive industry, and the likelihood of winning any particular contract depends on a variety of factors, including the specifics of the tender, the terms of the bidding process, and the competitive landscape. As a result, it is difficult to forecast with certainty whether or not we will be awarded new contracts, or the timing of such awards.

The bidding process for these projects often involves complex and protracted negotiations, and is subject to various external factors, such as work order conditions, financing contingencies, environmental factors, and broader market or economic conditions. These factors can affect both the availability and timing of project awards. Given the competitive nature of our industry, we face the risk of losing potential project awards to competitors, or the possibility that our bids may not be selected.

Moreover, since a significant portion of our revenue is contingent upon the award of these projects, our results of operations may experience substantial fluctuations from quarter to quarter or year to year, depending on when and if we secure new contracts. Delays or uncertainties in the award process can lead to revenue not being generated as quickly as anticipated, and the commencement and progress of work under awarded contracts can be impacted by factors beyond our control.

As a result, our financial performance may be significantly affected by the timing and success of future project awards. The inability to secure new contracts or the delay in starting work on awarded contracts could adversely affect our business operations, revenue generation, profitability, and overall financial condition.

20. The property used by the company as its corporate office and branch offices for the purpose of its operations is not owned by us. Any termination of the relevant lease agreements could adversely affect our operations.

The corporate office and branch offices used by the company are not owned by the company, the same has been taken on lease. Any termination of the relevant lease agreements in connection with such properties or our failure to pay annual lease rental, could adversely affect our operations. Periodic renewals of such lease may increase our costs, since it is subject to rent escalation.

In the event we are required to vacate the current premises, we would be required to make alternative arrangements for new premises and other infrastructure and facilities. We cannot assure that the new arrangements will be on terms that are commercially favourable to us. If we are required to relocate our business operations during this period, we may suffer a disruption in our operations or have to pay higher charges, which could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

For detailed information with respect to the Land and Properties used by the Company, please refer to the chapter “Our Business” on page no. 135 of the Prospectus.

21. Our reliance on software, automated systems, and machinery is critical to our operations, and any failure or disruption in their performance could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our business relies on advanced software, automated systems, and machinery to deliver consultancy services across various infrastructure projects. These technologies are essential for tasks such as surveying, design, and technical supervision. Given the nature of our work, the proper functioning of these systems is vital to maintaining project quality and meeting client expectations.

As technology evolves, we may be required to upgrade or replace existing software, automated systems, or machinery to stay competitive, improve performance, or ensure compliance with new industry standards and security requirements. Such upgrades may be driven by advancements in technology, changes in industry norms, or emerging data security concerns. However, these upgrades could involve substantial costs, including purchasing new software licenses, training staff, addressing downtime during transitions, and managing data migration and integration expenses.

In addition to the financial costs, there are operational risks involved. Implementing new or upgraded systems can lead to temporary disruptions in workflow, potentially affecting project timelines and deliverables. If the new systems fail to perform as expected or are not fully integrated with existing processes, it could result in inefficiencies, delays, or errors, adversely impacting project outcomes and client satisfaction.

Furthermore, if the software, automated systems, or machinery we depend on fail to operate as intended, or if they require frequent repairs or replacements, it could disrupt our ability to execute projects efficiently and on time, which would negatively affect our business performance, profitability, and overall financial condition.

22. Our insurance coverage in connection with our business may not be adequate and may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

Our Company has obtained insurance coverage in respect of certain risks. The insurance policies are renewed periodically to ensure that the coverage is adequate, however, our insurance policies do not cover all risks.

Further, as on September 30, 2025, the written down value of total fixed assets of the Company is Rs. 451.17 Lakhs. However, the company has taken the insurance policies for the amount of Rs. 491.86 Lakhs including insurance of project location as well. Furthermore, the company has taken the insurance for its employees.

For details of the Insurance policies taken by the company, please refer the chapter “Our Business” on the Page 135 of this Prospectus.

Although, our company has not encountered any instances regarding the failure on their part to fulfil their contractual obligation during the preceding three financial years or during the stub period, there can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance has been availed. Further, in case of instances which are beyond the scope of coverage under the insurance policies taken by the company or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be affected adversely.

23. We enter into joint ventures with third parties for infrastructure consultancy services, risks associated with these arrangements could affect our business operations.

As part of our business operations, we enter into joint venture (JV) arrangements, with third parties to complete infrastructure consultancy services such as Detailed Project Reports and Supervision, Quality Control. We may continue to enter such arrangements in the future.

However, our success depends on the cooperation of our joint partners, and managing these relationships can be challenging. Risks include the possibility that our partners may have conflicting goals, failure to meet their obligations, or cause delays or disputes that affect project completion. Disputes may lead to suspension, delay, or abandonment of projects, negatively impacting our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

For the details with regards to our joint ventures, please refer to the chapter “Our Business” on the page no. 135 of the Prospectus.

24. As an integral aspect of our business operations, it is necessary for us to provide bank guarantees. Failing to secure these guarantees or the activation of such guarantees has the potential to negatively impact our cash flows and financial standing.

In alignment with industry norms, our operational framework necessitates the provision of financial and performance bank guarantees in fulfilment of contractual obligations for our projects. Typically, these guarantees are issued to the relevant authorities with whom contractual arrangements for our projects have been established. However, a potential challenge lies in consistently securing new financial and performance bank guarantees to commensurate with our operational requirements. Difficulties in providing sufficient collateral to underpin these guarantees or letters of credit may impede our capacity to enter into new contracts and procure essential supplies.

The occurrence of unforeseen circumstances may render us incapable of meeting any or all our contractual obligations pertaining to ongoing projects, potentially leading to defaults under our contracts and subsequent invocation of the bank guarantees issued by us. In the event of such an invocation, there exists the potential for a substantial adverse impact on our business and financial performance.

While these events have not occurred in the past, these restrictions could limit our operational flexibility, thereby adversely impacting our business, prospects, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

25. Our Company has made certain delays in compliance with certain statutory provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Such delayed filings may attract penalties and prosecution against the Company and its directors which could impact the financial position of the Company to that extent.

Our Company have made certain delayed filings in the previous five years. The details of delayed filings are given as follows:

There may be recurrences of similar discrepancies in the future that could subject our company to penal consequences under applicable laws. Any such action may adversely impact our business, reputation, and results of operation.

Reason for delays: The delays were primarily attributable to the absence of a dedicated compliance officer in the company. To address these issues, our company has taken proactive steps by appointing a dedicated compliance officer. Ms. Chetna was appointed as the company secretary and compliance officer on October 01, 2024 to rectify instances of non-compliance and delay filings.

Further, the limited availability of resources at that time resulted in certain compliances being inadvertently overlooked. Our company acknowledge these shortcomings and are actively addressing them to ensure that such delays do not occur in the future.

We regret the delay and assure you of our continued efforts to maintain full compliance in the future by mitigating and taking steps to address and reduce these delays such as:

1. Training and development sessions for the staff.
2. Collaboration with tax consultants and legal advisors, wherever required.

26. Our company faces the risk of equipment obsolescence, which could lead to increased costs, operational disruptions, and reduced competitiveness.

Our company relies on various types of equipment for its operations, both currently owned and proposed to be owned. However, there is a risk that some of this equipment may become obsolete due to rapid technological advancements or changes in industry standards. As technology evolves, equipment may no longer be compatible with newer systems or may lose its efficiency, requiring costly upgrades, repairs, or replacements.

This obsolescence could negatively impact our ability to maintain efficient operations, resulting in increased operational costs and potential disruptions in our services. Furthermore, if we are unable to replace or upgrade obsolete equipment in a timely manner, it may affect our competitiveness and ability to meet customer demands effectively, potentially harming our financial performance and business growth.

27. Our Company have made certain delayed filings with respect to provisions of the GST Act, Income Tax Act, and other applicable laws in the last 5 Years.

Our Company has made non-compliances with certain provisions including lapsed/ made delay in certain filings and/or erroneous filing/ non-filing of e-forms under applicable acts to it in the last 5 years. However, we have paid the due amount along with interest to comply with the provisions of the law. Such non-compliances/delay Compliances/ erroneous filing/ non-registration may incur the penalties or liabilities which may affect the results of operations and financial conditions of the company in near future. The details of late filings in past years are given below:

The reasons for such delay were attributable to the operational issue, such as website glitch or change in respective online portal. Further, the Company is taking mitigation steps to address and reduce these delays such as:

Further, there can be situations where such delays are beyond the control of the company. In that case, even the mitigation steps mentioned above may not be effective and company might have to face any notice or legal action and leading to fine and penalties.

28. Our company's Board of Directors does have any experience of listed companies.

However, we face considerable competition from other firms in attracting and retaining skilled professionals, which may restrict our ability to secure the talent needed for ongoing and future projects. As demand for specialized skills rises, the availability of qualified candidates may decrease, potentially impacting our workforce and limiting our capacity to meet our growth objectives.

We cannot assure that we will consistently find and retain skilled manpower in sufficient numbers to meet our operational requirements. Any difficulties in recruiting or retaining qualified personnel could impact our ability to execute projects efficiently and meet our service delivery standards, potentially hindering our operations, growth, and overall business performance.

37. Our ability to manage workforce levels in line with current and future project needs is crucial to our business, and failure to secure future contract awards or delays in project commencements may lead to additional employee-related costs.

Our business operations rely on effectively managing workforce levels in alignment with both current workloads and anticipated future projects. The timing of new contract awards and the efficient allocation of human resources are key factors that influence our workforce planning. These factors include our ability to manage employee attrition, forecast service requirements, transition employees between projects or internal business units, and allocate resources to non-chargeable activities such as training.

While our workforce estimates are based on good faith judgment, they may frequently change due to unforeseen circumstances or market conditions. Delays in securing future contracts or receiving contract awards on time could result in the need to retain employees for extended periods, incurring additional costs. Inefficient utilization of workforce resources may lead to increased employee-related expenses without corresponding revenue generation, negatively impacting our financial results.

38. We are dependent on our Promoters, our senior management and other key personnel, and the loss of, or our inability to attract or retain, such persons could affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our promoters, senior management and other key personnel. They have gained experience in this line of business and have over the years built relations with our customers and other stakeholders who are connected with us and have been actively involved in the day to day operations and management. Further, we believe that the inputs and experience of our senior management, in particular, and other key personnel are valuable for project development and procurement activities, and our overall business operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. For details in relation to the experience of our key management personnel, see “Our Management” on page 198 of this Prospectus. We cannot assure you that these individuals or any other member of our senior management team will not leave us or join a competitor or that we will be able to retain such personnel or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires. The loss of the services of such persons may have an effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

39. If we fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may not be able to successfully manage or accurately report our financial risk.

Internal controls are checks and measures providing reasonable assurance about the achievement of objectives set by the board of the company, ensuring integrity of financial and other reporting and helping in detection and prevention of frauds. There are chances of circumventing such controls due to collusion or human error.

Even though our company has not encountered any instances of failure of the internal control system during the preceding three financial years or during the stub period, we cannot provide assurance that such instances will not occur in the near future. We also cannot be assured that efficiency and effectiveness of internal control will be always maintained or we will be able to implement adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in internal control. If internal control weaknesses are not identified or necessary changes are not carried out, it may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

40. We could be harmed by employee misconduct or errors that are difficult to detect and any such incidences could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees and agents may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected.

41. We face competition in our business from organized and unorganized players, which may adversely affect our business operation and financial condition.

In today's dynamic business environment which is filled with rapid change of technology, government policies, mounting competitive threats and constant new entrants into market, makes it challenging to sustain and handle the intricacies and provide competitive solutions to its clients. We face competition from domestic and international companies. We foresee this competition from organized and unorganized players to continue to grow as the demand. Growing competition may result in a decline in our market share and may affect our margins which may adversely affect our business operations and our financial condition.

42. Our inability to manage growth could disrupt our business and reduce profitability.

A principal component of our strategy is to continuously grow by expanding the capacity, size and geographical scope of our businesses. This growth strategy will place significant demands on our management, financial and other resources. It will require us to continuously develop and improve our operational, financial and internal controls. Continuous expansion increases the challenges involved in financial management, recruitment, training and retaining high quality human resources, preserving our culture, values and entrepreneurial environment, and developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure. Any inability on our part to manage such growth could disrupt our business prospects, impact our financial condition and adversely affect our results of operations.

43. Our future funds requirements, in the form of fresh issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any fresh issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt, then it may substantially increase our interest burden and decrease our cash flows, thus prejudicially affecting our profitability and ability to pay dividends to our shareholders.

Further, we confirm that the future requirement of funding shall be done in compliance of applicable laws and regulations.

44. In addition to normal remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, some of our Promoters and Directors are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company.

Our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company to the extent of remuneration paid to them for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses payable to them in addition, some of our Promoters and Directors may also be interested to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company. For further information, see Capital Structure, Our Management and Our Promoter and Promoter Group on pages 68, 218 and 223 respectively, of this Prospectus.

45. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, future cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements. The declaration and payment of dividends will be recommended by the Board of Directors and approved by the Shareholders, at their discretion, subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association and applicable law, including the Companies Act, 2013.

We may retain all future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of the business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including among others, our future earnings, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Our company has not paid any dividend in three preceding financial year and we cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future. For details of our Dividend history refer to the Section “Dividend Policy” on page 226 of the Prospectus.

46. Certain key performance indicators for certain listed industry peers included in this Prospectus have been sourced from public sources and there is no assurance that such financial and other industry information is complete.

Pursuant to the requirements of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, we have included certain key performance indicators, comprising financial and operational information, for certain listed industry peers, in the “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 99 of the Prospectus. Although this information is sourced from and relied upon on the audited financial statements of the relevant listed industry peers as available on the websites of the Stock Exchanges, including the annual reports of the respective companies submitted to Stock Exchanges, there is no assurance that this information with respect to industry peers is either complete. There may be different methodologies and formulas used to compute the various ratios.

47. Industry information included in this Prospectus has been derived from an industry report from various websites. The reliability on the forecasts of the reports could be incorrect and would significantly impact our operations.

We have relied on the reports of certain independent third parties for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Prospectus. These reports are subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. We have not independently verified data from such industry reports and other sources. Although we believe that the data may be considered to be reliable, their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed and their dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Prospectus.

For the details regarding the sources of the industry, please refer to the chapter “Industry Overview” on the page no. 111 of the Prospectus.

48. We will continue to be controlled by our Promoter and Promoter Group after the completion of the Issue, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters submitted for approval of our shareholders.

As on the date of this Prospectus, our Promoter and Promoter Group hold 99.99% of the issued and outstanding paid-up share capital of our Company. Following the completion of the Issue, our Promoter and Promoter Group will continue to hold together 73.55% of our post-Issue Equity Share capital. As a result, they will have the ability to influence matters requiring shareholders' approval, including the ability to appoint Directors to our Board and the right to approve significant actions at Board and at shareholders' meetings, including the issue of Equity Shares and dividend payments, business plans, mergers and acquisitions, any consolidation or joint venture arrangements, any amendment to our Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association, and any other business decisions. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will not have conflicts of interest with other shareholders or with our Company. Any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business.

For further details regarding our shareholding, please refer to chapter titled "Capital Structure" beginning on Page 68 of this Prospectus.

49. There are certain restrictions on daily movements in the price of Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Following the Issue, we will be subject to a daily circuit breaker imposed by Stock Exchange, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker will limit the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance can be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time.

50. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including:

- Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- Performance of Company's competitors,
- Adverse media reports on Company or pertaining to our Industry;
- Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts;
- Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies;

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There has been no public market for Equity Shares and the prices of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue.

51. Market price of our share will be decided by market forces and issue price of equity share may not be indicative of the market price our share price after the issue.

After listing and trading permission of equity shares, the price of the shares shall be driven by free market forces. The market price of a company's share is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the stock market. These forces are influenced by a variety of factors, including the company's financial performance, industry trends, economic conditions, and investor sentiment.

When a company issues equity shares, it sets an issue price based on various factors such as the company's valuation, the prevailing market conditions, and the demand for its shares. However, the issue price is not necessarily indicative of the market price of the shares after the issue.

Once the shares are listed on the stock exchange, their price is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the market. If there is strong demand for the shares, the price may rise above the issue price, and if there is weak demand, the price may fall below the issue price.

52. Rights of shareholders under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association and applicable law govern our corporate affairs. Legal principles related to these matters and the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company incorporated under the laws of another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Consequently, investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation incorporated under the laws of another jurisdiction.

53. Any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds as disclosed in this Prospectus shall be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior approval of the shareholders of our Company.

We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds for raising funds for capital expenditure, working capital Requirement and general corporate purpose. For further details of the proposed objects of the Issue, please refer the chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" beginning on Page No. 85 of this Prospectus. At this juncture, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of the competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control. In accordance with Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds as disclosed in this Prospectus without obtaining the approval of shareholders of our Company through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to vary the disclosed utilization of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the approval of the shareholders of our Company in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such approval of the shareholders of our Company may adversely affect our business or operations.

Further, our Promoter or controlling shareholders would be required to provide an exit opportunity to the shareholders of our Company who do not agree with our proposal to modify the objects of the Issue, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement on Promoter or controlling shareholders to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders of our Company may deter the Promoters or controlling shareholders from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity.

In light of these factors, we may not be able to vary the objects of the Issue to use any unutilized proceeds of the Issue, if any, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our Company's ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilized portion of Net Proceeds, if any, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

54. QIB and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Individual Investors can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Issue Period and withdraw their Bids until Bid/ Issue

Closing Date. While our Company is required to complete Allotment pursuant to the Issue within three working days from the Bid/ Issue Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events may limit the Bidders ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Issue or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

External Risk Factors

55. Our business and financial performance may be adversely affected by regulatory changes in direct and indirect tax laws.

Our operations are subject to various direct and indirect tax regulations in India, and any changes or amendments to these tax laws may materially impact our financial performance and condition. Modifications in tax rates, introduction of new tax policies, changes in tax exemptions, or stricter enforcement measures by regulatory authorities could increase our compliance costs and tax liabilities.

Additionally, interpretations of tax laws by courts or regulatory authorities may vary, potentially leading to increased financial obligations or disputes. Any inability on our part to effectively adapt to or comply with such regulatory changes may adversely affect our business operations, profitability, and cash flows.

56. The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters, hostilities, or civil unrest could adversely impact our operations, financial performance, and equity share value.

Our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition are vulnerable to the occurrence of natural disasters such as cyclones, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, fires, pandemics, and other catastrophic events. Man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism, military conflicts, or explosions, could also disrupt our operations and adversely affect our financial performance.

Terrorist attacks, civil unrest, or acts of violence in India or globally may negatively impact Indian securities markets, investor sentiment, and regional stability. Any deterioration in international relations, particularly between India and neighboring countries, could heighten geopolitical tensions, creating further concerns about regional security and economic stability.

India has experienced instances of local civil disturbances in the past, and future incidents of social unrest, political instability, or adverse socio-economic events could harm our business operations. Such events may also increase the perceived risks of investing in Indian companies, thereby adversely affecting the price of our Equity Shares and investor confidence in the market.

57. Our dependence on the Indian economy, political stability, and market conditions. Any slowdown in economic growth in India could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our operations and revenues are entirely derived from India, making our business significantly dependent on the economic, political, and market conditions prevailing in the country. Any adverse changes in these conditions, whether arising domestically or globally, could materially impact our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

The Indian economy and its capital markets are influenced by a variety of factors, including macroeconomic and demographic trends, many of which are outside our control. Key risks include:

- Changes in macroeconomic conditions, such as rising interest rates, inflation, or reduced consumer spending.
- Exchange rate fluctuations, imposition of currency controls, restrictions on the repatriation of funds, or export limitations.
- Credit scarcity or limited availability of financing in India, which could affect economic conditions and hinder our expansion plans.
- Volatility or perceived negative trends in trading activity on Indian stock exchanges, along with unfavourable income conditions for Indian corporates and consumers.
- Changes in fiscal, monetary, tax, or trade policies by the Indian government.
- Political instability, terrorism, military conflicts, or regional disputes involving India or neighbouring countries.
- Natural or man-made disasters, such as earthquakes, floods, or fires, potentially disrupting our operations.
- Acts of violence, civil unrest, terrorism, or war, which may erode business confidence and adversely impact the Indian markets.
- Public health concerns, epidemics, or pandemics in India or its neighbouring regions, which may cause disruptions to business activities.

Additionally, our revenue and profitability are closely tied to consumer discretionary spending in India, which is influenced by general economic conditions, employment levels, salaries, and consumer confidence. Any economic downturn, rising unemployment, increased interest rates, or recessionary cycles could negatively impact consumer spending behaviour and, consequently, our income and profitability.

While our financial performance may not directly correspond to India's economic growth metrics, any slowdown or perceived deceleration in the Indian economy, or specific industries within it, could adversely affect the environment in which we operate. This, in turn, could have a material negative impact on our business operations, financial condition, and the market price of our Equity Shares.

58. Inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and if significant, on our financial condition.

Inflation is typically impacted by factors such as governmental policies, regulations, liquidity and global economic environment. Any change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect the inflation rates. Continued high rates of inflation may increase our costs such as salaries, travel costs and related allowances, which are typically linked to general price levels. There can be no assurance that we will be able to pass on any additional costs to our clients or that our revenue will increase proportionately corresponding to such inflation. Accordingly, high rates of inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and, if significant, on our financial condition.

59. Adverse global economic, political, and social conditions have the potential to impede our business operations, escalate costs, and negatively impact our stock valuation.

Factors of a global economic and political nature, beyond our direct influence, play a pivotal role in shaping forecasts and directly impacting performance. Such factors encompass interest rates, economic growth rates, government fiscal and monetary policies, alterations in regulatory frameworks, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit accessibility, consumer debt levels, unemployment patterns, threats and activities related to terrorism, global military and domestic disturbances, conflicts, and other elements that shape consumer confidence, spending patterns, and tourism trends.

60. Government regulation of foreign ownership of Indian securities may have an adverse effect on the price of the Equity Shares.

Foreign ownership of Indian securities is subject to government regulation. Under foreign exchange regulations currently in effect in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the rupees proceeds from the sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the Income Tax authorities. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained.

61. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of our Equity Shares.

Capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares within 12 months in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months will not be subject to capital gain being long term capital gain amounting to upto one lakhs rupees provided Securities Transaction Tax (“STT”) is paid on the transaction. STT is levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any gain realised on the sale of equity shares held for more than 12 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, is subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares is exempt from taxation in India where an exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident.

Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India’s ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable to pay tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain on the sale of equity shares.

Cost-Benefit Analysis Table

(Rupees in Lakhs)

Factors	Future Prospects (with New Equipment) (Annual Cost)	Present Scenario (without New Equipment) (Annual Cost)
Machinery Rental Cost*	0.00	345.00
Fuel Cost	5.00	0.00
Driver and Technical Support staff	15.20	12.00
Maintenance expenses	12.00	0.00
Total	32.20	357.00

*The rental charges of the machinery is Rs. 1,200/- per km. The machine can generate reports for a minimum of 120 km per day. With a minimum of 20 working days per month, the annual rental charges, including driver and support staff, fuel cost, maintenance expenses amount to Rs. 357.00 lakhs.

The cost of the proposed machinery is Rs. 725.00 Lakhs and the estimated life span will be 7 years. Over its lifetime, the acquisition is expected to generate benefits amounting to approximately Rs. 2,200.00 lakhs due to saving on machinery rental.

Apart from the above cost-benefit analysis in future prospects compared to the present scenario, there are additional factors that justify investing in capital expenditure, as outlined below:

1. Higher Qualification in Tenders:

- Many governments and private companies require to have own machinery and resources.
- Owning equipment improves eligibility for larger and more profitable projects.

2. Competitive Advantage:

- Companies with their own equipment can quote lower rates since they save on rental costs.
- This increases the chances of winning more tenders.

3. Faster Project Execution:

- With better and modern machinery, projects can be completed faster.
- This builds a strong track record, increasing trust among clients and helping in future tender awards.

4. Cost Savings = More Profitability:

Lower operational costs (e.g., no rental payments, lower fuel consumption) allow the company to offer more competitive bids without compromising profit margins.

5. Long-Term Business Growth:

- Having in-house assets increases the company's financial strength, making it easier to secure advance payments from clients.
- This helps in expanding business operations and taking on more projects.

A New Global Economic Landscape Slowly Takes Shape

The year 2025 has been fluid and volatile, with much of the dynamics driven by a reordering of policy priorities in the United States and the adaptation of policies in the other economies to new realities. Trade news has dominated the headlines, and, along with them, perceived prospects for the global economy have fluctuated. As observed in the April 2025 World Economic Outlook (WEO), a series of new tariff measures by the United States lifted tariff rates to levels not seen in a century. Countermeasures by US trading partners were limited, barely moving the effective tariff rate on US exports. A flurry of announcements followed, including trade deals between the United States and several of its trading partners and a reset to higher tariff rates for countries without a trade deal (see the WTO-IMF Tariff Tracker for a summary). As a whole, the announcements brought down the US effective tariff rates from their April highs, gravitating toward a range between 10 percent and 20 percent for most countries (Figure 1.1). Nonetheless, tariffs are very far from falling back to their 2024 levels. Trade policy uncertainty remains elevated in the absence of clear, transparent, and durable agreements among trading partners—and with attention starting to shift from the eventual level of tariffs to their impact on prices, investment, and consumption (Figure 1.2).

As the new landscape takes shape, the world is adapting. The evolution of WEO projections painted a picture of a significant, though not massive, impact of shifting policies on the economic outlook. The tariff shock in April and the associated uncertainty with which it unfolded prompted a downward revision of the global growth projection for 2025, by 0.5 percentage point to 2.8 percent, in the April 2025 WEO. In the July 2025 WEO Update, it was mainly the lowering of tariff rates and the implications thereof for uncertainty and financial conditions that drove a modest 0.2 percentage point upward revision of the 2025 global growth projection to 3.0 percent. Global inflation projections were revised little in April and July, but revisions in different directions across countries offset each other. Specifically, inflation forecasts were revised upward in the United States but downward in many other jurisdictions, consistent with the expectation that the shifting international trade landscape would imply a supply shock in the tariffing country and a demand shock in the tariffed countries. To date, more protectionist trade measures have had a limited impact on economic activity and prices. Growth held up in the first half of the year, with year over- year quarterly annualized growth rates persisting at about 3½ percent. Inflation has shown more mixed signals. Globally, sequential headline and core inflation edged up. Relative to WEO projections, inflation readings surprised on the upside in Mexico and the United Kingdom. By contrast, inflation in India, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Thailand surprised on the downside. In China, inflation developments were broadly in line with expectations, with consumer price inflation remaining at very low levels and producer price inflation continuing to be negative. In the United States, headline inflation held steady, driven by moderating price increases in core services and with disinflationary dynamics in goods prices receding.

The unexpected resilience in activity and muted inflation response reflect—in addition to the fact that the tariff shock has turned out to be smaller than originally announced—a range of factors that provide temporary relief, rather than underlying strength in economic fundamentals. Households and businesses front-loaded their consumption and investment in anticipation of higher tariffs. This gave a temporary boost to global activity in early 2025. Trade flows started adjusting, with diversion to third countries captured in high-frequency data. At the same time, implementation delays in newly announced tariffs allowed firms to postpone price increases, as they waited for clarity on when and by how much tariffs on certain goods from certain countries would increase. Inventory buildup and its subsequent drawdown, presales, orders put on hold or goods placed in bonded warehouses, and infrequent pricing because of long-term contracts also slowed the pace of pass-through of rising costs (Bauer, Haltom, and Martin 2025). Healthy profit margins in the wake of the inflation surge following the COVID-19 pandemic provided buffers for suppliers in source countries and importers in destination countries to absorb the higher tariffs. Rather than appreciating, as happened in previous episodes of trade tensions, the US dollar depreciated, reflecting increased hedging demand by non-US investors and a potential market reassessment of the dollar’s bull run over the past decade (October 2025 Global Financial Stability Report). While a weaker dollar amplified the tariff shock, it also supported global trade, contributed to favourable global financial conditions, and eliminated inflationary pressure from exchange rate pass-through, hence providing policymakers (especially those in emerging market and developing economies) with room to support their economies.

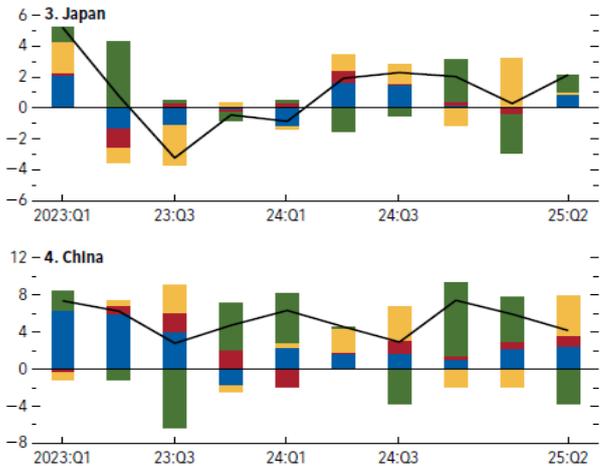

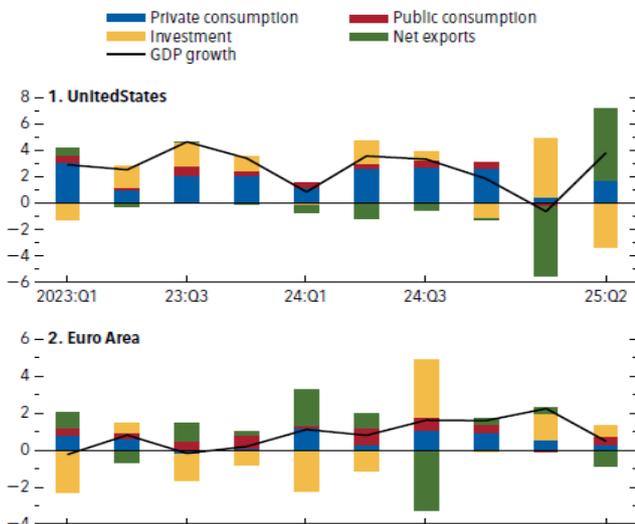

Recent Developments: Resilience Giving Way to Warning Signs

Slowing Activity The global economy has shown resilience to the trade policy shocks, including because these shocks materialized on a smaller scale than expected at their onset, but the drag from shifting policies is becoming visible in more recent data. There have been several common drivers of growth patterns across countries but also some important idiosyncratic factors. The last round of tariffs came in as the US economy started to show signs of a material slowdown. GDP grew at an annualized 3.8 percent in the second quarter of 2025, but mainly because imports and inventories fully reversed the outturn observed in the first quarter, which had seen a contraction of – 0.6 percent. Investment slowed, with a reduction in spending on commercial and residential construction and broader weakness masked by a surge in spending on equipment and intellectual property, including those related to AI. The jobs reports since July were much weaker than expected, with significant decline in the number of jobs added. The unemployment rate edged up to 4.3 percent in August. Signs of slowing activity and a weakening labour market appeared in the context of ongoing shifts in labour supply. Net international migration flows plunged in the first half of 2025 and, if the current trends continue, it could imply about 1.0–1.6 million fewer immigrants than in 2024 and 2.5 million fewer than in 2023 (Duzhak and New- Schmidt 2025). Other major economies are showing signs of waning of the front-loading that drove stronger-than-expected outcomes in the first quarter of 2025. Growth in China in the second quarter slowed to 4.2 percent from 6.1 percent in the first quarter (based on staff seasonally adjusted estimates), with the contribution of net exports receding. This partly offset the acceleration in domestic demand, possibly driven by policy stimulus. High-frequency indicators point to a deceleration in economic activity in July and August. In the euro area, GDP growth slowed to 0.5 percent, from 2.3 percent in the first quarter. Declines in growth rates were recorded in Germany and Italy, as well as in Ireland, which had disproportionately contributed to euro area growth in the first quarter, with export performance driven by pharmaceutical sector transactions, partly as a result of front-loading. In Japan, the economy grew at an annualized rate of 2.2 percent in the second quarter, accelerating from 0.3 percent in the first quarter. In addition to solid capital spending, this was propelled by strong exports, especially of cars. However, new export orders fell in July, for the first time since December, and export values dropped, led by sectors most affected by tariffs.

Rising Prices in the United States?

To date, the impact of tariffs and associated rewiring of supply chains on inflationary pressures remains muted. In the tariffing country—the United States—headline and core inflation have ticked up only slightly (Figure 1.6). A deeper look into core inflation, however, reveals a more visible climb in core goods prices in the United States, but not in other countries (blue line in Figure 1.6, panel 3). Notably, this climb occurred at a time of persistent services inflation. The muted response to date could also mean delayed pass-through. Indeed, stockpiling and tariff pauses, among other factors such as trade diversion and rerouting, mean that the actual effective tariff rate—that is, the actual duty paid on imports at customs as a share of the value of imports—lagged the effective rate based on the announcements and calculated as a weighted average of statutory rates using pre-substitution trade weights (Figure 1.7, panel 1). An examination of certain categories of goods suggests that very little of what would be expected to pass through to consumer prices has actually passed through so far (Figure 1.7, panel 2).

Household appliances, for instance, have reflected the cost of tariffs, but many categories, including food and clothing, have not. High-frequency retail pricing data indicate that, in categories with exposure to tariffs, the prices of both imported and domestic goods are affected (Cavallo, Llamas, and Vazquez 2025). This suggests broader pricing and supply-chain spillovers. Although firms in the United States enjoyed higher profitability after the pandemic shock, they may not be able to absorb the cost increases that result from the tariff hikes and the rewiring of global value chains and may, at some point, start to pass on cost increases to consumers (see also the October 2025 Global Financial Stability Report for an analysis of implications of higher tariffs for corporate earnings and debt-servicing capacity). One crucial point about the assessment of recent price developments is the movement of the US dollar. A well-established finding regarding tariffs is that the currency of a tariff-imposing country appreciates (Mundell 1960; Jeanne and Son 2024). On the one hand, with the currency appreciation, the direct impact of tariffs on prices through higher import prices would be somewhat mitigated. On the other hand, prolonged currency appreciation could offset the direct improvement in trade balances from tariffs—hence leaving trade balances mostly unchanged—and hamper economic activity. This so-called exchange rate offset has been largely absent in the current episode, with the US dollar (the currency of the tariff-imposing country) weakening markedly in April and May and staying mostly stable at the weaker level since then, unlike in the 2018–19 episode (Figure 1.8, panel 1). Interestingly, the aggregate US ex-tariff import price has remained broadly stable since April 2025 (Figure 1.8, panel 2). The relative lack of movement in US import prices is set in the context of the notable increase in the average effective tariff rate and the sharp depreciation of the US dollar during this time. In a standard setting, the dollar appreciation boosts the margin of exporters, especially if they invoice in dollars, as is common practice. Hence, they have room to absorb some of the tariffs without a deterioration in profitability. And, if they are absorbing the tariffs, import prices decline. This time around, the depreciation of the dollar makes matters more challenging. Under dominant currency pricing, a weaker dollar directly reduces the margin of exporters, separately from the tariffs. Furthermore, the universal nature of the tariffs may make margin reduction less likely, as exporters, who know their competitors are also tariffed, will be reluctant to cut margins.

Note: In panel 1, actual tariff rate is the actual duty paid on imports at customs as a share of the value of imports, and the effective tariff rate is a weighted average of announced statutory rates using pre-tariff (hence, pre-substitution) import weights. Actual rate may be biased downward if a product is misclassified or under-invoiced or if tariffs are prohibitively high. In panel 2, the full pass-through is estimated using country- and product-specific tariffs and direct and indirect import intensities from the input-output tables and personal consumption expenditure (PCE) bridge. The estimates assume that margins are unchanged and there are no offsetting effects from factors such as the exchange rate. app. = appliances; cl. = clothing; equip. = equipment; HH = household; inst. = Instruments; WTO = World Trade Organization.

Policy Mix: Loose Fiscal and Divergent Monetary

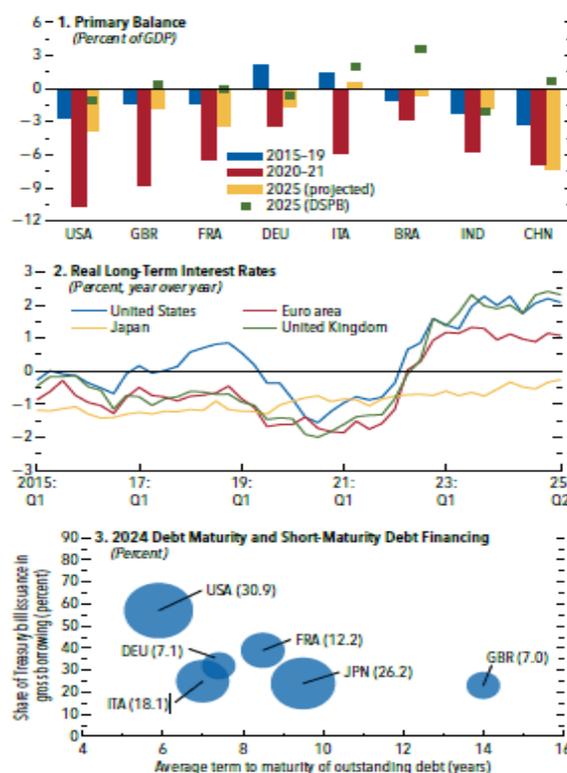

Against the backdrop of slowing global growth and varying domestic inflation developments, policy space is constrained and vulnerabilities are high. Fiscal policy remains too loose in many of the largest advanced and developing economies. Even though 2025 projected primary deficits in most cases are lower than the record-setting deficits of 2020–21, when large fiscal stimulus packages were deployed to counter the pandemic shock, they remain sizably larger than prior to the pandemic, except in Brazil and India (Figure 1.9, panel 1). In China, the fiscal policy stance remains appropriately expansionary, given the weakness in domestic demand, but marks a continued departure from the stance that is needed to avoid rising debt to GDP over the medium term. Stabilizing debt to GDP at its 2024 level requires significant consolidation for most countries. In other words, given the projected primary balances for 2025, debt ratios are set to rise, and in some cases—Brazil, China, France, and the United States—significantly so. Further, globally, the level of debt under an extreme adverse scenario would be even higher (see assessment based on the debt-at-risk framework in the October 2024 Fiscal Monitor). Spending pressures from aging populations, defence, and energy security add to the risks, especially in Europe.

The calculus of post pandemic debt sustainability is complicated by elevated debt ratios, worsening primary balances, higher interest rates, and a weakening growth outlook. As policy rates were hiked in light of the inflation surge in 2021–22, interest rates at the short end of the yield curve were suddenly much higher and contributed significantly to the rising cost of debt servicing. Since the end of 2023, mid-segment yields and those at the long end have also crept upward (Figure 1.9, panel 2). The overall rising cost of borrowing is a reason for concern—particularly given the significant refinancing requirements, as a share of GDP, for some of the largest economies (Figure 1.9, panel 3). In addition, increased reliance on financing through Treasury bills—short-term debt securities with maturity of one year or less—tends to shorten average debt maturity over time and increasingly exposes governments to refinancing risks or fluctuations in short-term interest rates. Emerging markets with weaker credit ratings and low-income economies face challenging conditions in bond markets (Chapter 1 of the October 2025 Global Financial Stability Report).

Growth Forecast

Global growth is projected to decelerate from 3.3 percent in 2024 to 3.2 percent in 2025 and to 3.1 percent in 2026 (Table 1.1). On a fourth-quarter to- fourth-quarter basis, growth is projected to decline from 3.6 percent in 2024 to 2.6 percent in 2025 and recover to 3.3 percent in 2026. At market exchange rates, world output is projected to grow by 2.6 percent in both 2025 and 2026, slowing down from 2.8 percent in 2024 (Table 1.2). The growth forecast is little changed from the July 2025 WEO Update, reflecting gradual adaptation to trade tensions, but is decisively below the prepandemic average of 3.7 percent. Looking at sequential growth from the second half of 2025 into 2026 gives a clearer picture by removing the distortion from front-loading in the first half of 2025: The global economy is projected to grow at an annualized average rate of 3.0 percent over these six quarters, a slowdown of Note: In panel 1, the debt-stabilizing primary balance (DSPB) is calculated as the primary balance required to stabilize the debt given projected effective interest rate on debt and GDP growth, and accounting for stock-flow adjustments. In panel 2, the real long-term interest rate is calculated as the nominal yield on 10-year government bonds minus 10-year-ahead expected inflation from Consensus Economics. 0.6 percentage point from the 3.6 percent average rate in 2024. The forecast for 2025–26 is also lower, by a cumulative 0.2 percentage point, than projected in the October 2024 WEO, before the major shifts in policy stances in key jurisdictions. Given the fluidity of trade policy assumptions during 2025, comparisons of current forecasts with those in the April 2025 WEO or in the July 2025 WEO Update may obscure the direction the world economy has travelled. Hence, the forecasts are discussed in comparison with those in the October 2024 WEO, which provides a clearer picture.

Prolonged trade policy uncertainty and ratcheting up of protectionist trade measures.

Further increases in trade policy uncertainty would weigh on firms' investment decisions and worsen the growth outlook. It would also hamper their ability to optimize inventories, potentially leading to short-term output volatility—the front-loading of imports followed by payback periods. Further increases in tariffs could weigh negatively on activity in countries directly impacted by the trade measures. While other countries may benefit from tariff-induced trade diversion, especially if their exports embed a rising share of domestic value added, the aggregate impact is likely to depress global output over the medium term given the disruption to supply chains (April 2025 WEO). The rise in protectionist measures both through tariffs and nontariff measures (including export controls on new technologies) could lead to further disruption and fragmentation of supply chains, reversing some of the efficiency gains of the past few decades from trade liberalization. Reliance on ad hoc bilateral deals for trade negotiations, which erode previous agreements and whose details and longevity remain unclear, would not meaningfully reduce trade policy uncertainty. If such deals are coupled with further discriminatory measures against third countries, they may generate additional negative spillovers and tit-for-tat dynamics. Over the medium term, more protectionist stances and fragmentation could also stunt global technological diffusion, further hurting growth prospects, especially of emerging market and developing economies. This could in turn give rise to domestic polarization and social unrest.

Shocks to labour supply.

Further deterioration in labour supply from more stringent immigration policies in advanced economies could weigh on firms' investment and hiring decisions, especially in economies where certain skills are in short supply and that have recently relied on immigration flows to ease labour market tightness. This would act as a negative supply-side shock with direct bearing on the economy's potential output capacity. Emerging pockets of labour market tightness—as experienced in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic shock—could put upward pressure on the price of services and increase core inflation.

Repricing of new technologies.

Excessively optimistic growth expectations about AI could be revised in light of incoming data from early adopters and could trigger a market correction. Elevated valuations in tech and AI-linked sectors have been fuelled by expectations of transformative productivity gains. If these gains fail to materialize, the resulting earnings disappointment could lead to a reassessment of the sustainability of AI-driven valuations and a drop in tech stock prices, with systemic implications. A potential bust of the AI boom could rival the dot-com crash of 2000–01 in severity, especially considering the dominance of a few tech firms in market indices and involvement of less-regulated private credit loans funding much of the industry's expansion. Such a correction could erode household wealth and dampen consumption. To the extent that the AI hype has led to excessive capital flows into a narrow set of firms and sectors, any unwinding of these positions could then entail a slow economic recovery hampered by capital misallocation. These vulnerabilities are compounded by constrained fiscal space, which may limit the effectiveness of policy responses.

Eroding good governance and institutional independence.

Intensification of political pressure on policy institutions safeguarded by a country's constitution, statutes, and case law—for example, central banks, whose primacy of independence is upheld by both conventional wisdom and empirical evidence—could erode hard-won public confidence in their ability to fulfil their mandates. This could de-anchor the public's inflation expectations. The evidence shows that political pressure on central banks tends to increase the intensity and persistence of inflationary pressures (Binder 2021; Drechsel 2025). Pressures on technocratic institutions mandated with data collection and dissemination could also erode the public's and markets' trust in statistics from official sources, significantly complicating the tasks of central banks and policymakers in making policy decisions, while diminishing transparency and hampering price discovery in financial markets. It also raises the likelihood of policy mistakes if political interference leads to compromise in data quality, reliability, and timeliness.

Upside Risks

Breakthrough in trade negotiations, leading to lower tariffs and improved policy predictability.

The potentially heavy costs associated with global trade fragmentation and dislocation of supply chains may spur breakthroughs in trade negotiations that reduce aggregate tariff rates as part of expanded agreements for regional or multilateral cooperation. In addition, restoring rules-based non-discriminatory frameworks could measurably improve trade policy predictability and facilitate broad-based efficiency gains (see Box 1.2 for a discussion of the potential output gains from a return to a world of lower tariffs and reduced trade policy uncertainty). Strengthening cooperation in areas such as trade in services, streamlining business regulation, and fostering capital market integration could help unlock investment and boost productivity growth.

A faster pace of structural reforms.

In an increasingly challenging global environment, both advanced and emerging market and developing economies could enhance domestic structural reform initiatives to prevent further declines in productivity and growth potential relative to their peers. Accelerating the pace of macro critical structural reforms—such as those aimed at increasing labour force participation, reducing resource misallocation in labour and capital markets, or promoting business innovation—could contribute to stronger medium-term growth.

Artificial intelligence reigniting productivity growth.

Faster AI adoption could help unleash strong productivity gains as firms increase uptake of the various AI-based tools being developed and deployed at high speed. This may be accompanied by increased business dynamism if the right policies are in place to enable high-productivity firms to continue to grow— and allow unproductive ones to exit the market— prompting an efficiency allocation of resources that supports aggregate productivity growth. Gains from AI could well exceed potential costs from their adverse effects on employment, especially if governments put in place adequate regulatory frameworks and offer supportive labour market programs aimed at upskilling and re-skilling workers at risk of displacement.

INDIAN ECONOMY

Introduction

India's Capital Goods manufacturing industry serves as a strong base for its engagement across sectors such as Engineering, Construction, Infrastructure and Consumer goods, amongst others.

The engineering sector is the largest of the industrial sectors in India. It accounts for 27% of the total factories in the industrial sector and represents 63% of the overall foreign collaborations. Demand for engineering sector services is being driven by capacity expansion in industries like infrastructure, electricity, mining, oil and gas, refinery, steel, automobiles, and consumer durables.

India has a competitive advantage in terms of manufacturing costs, market knowledge, technology, and innovation in various engineering sub-sectors. India's engineering sector has witnessed remarkable growth over the last few years, driven by increased investment in infrastructure and industrial production. The engineering sector, being closely associated with the manufacturing and infrastructure sectors, is of huge strategic importance to India's economy.

The development of the engineering sector of the economy is also significantly aided by the policies and initiatives of the Indian government. The engineering industry has been de-licensed and allows 100% foreign direct investment (FDI). Additionally, it has grown to be the biggest contributor to the nation's overall merchandise exports.

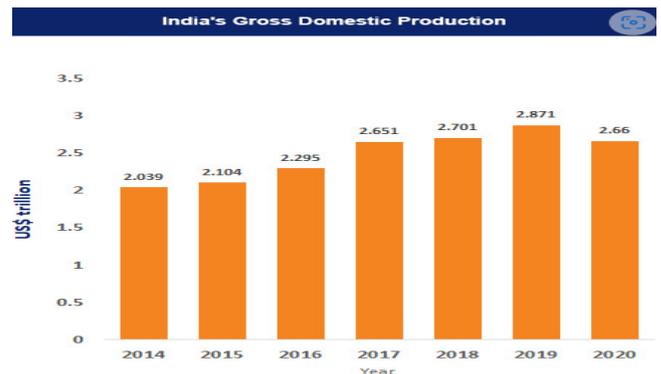

India became a permanent member of the Washington Accord (WA) in June 2014. It is now part of an exclusive group of 17 countries that are permanent signatories of the WA, an elite international agreement on engineering studies and the mobility of engineers.

Market size

Real GDP for Q2 of FY25 is estimated at Rs. 44.10 lakh crores (US$ 509.36 billion) with a growth rate of 5.4%, compared to Rs. 41.86 lakh crore (US$ 484.27 billion) for Q2 of 2023-24. The growth in real GDP during 2023-24 is estimated at 8.2% as compared to 7.0% in 2022-23. There are 113 unicorn startups in India, with a combined valuation of over US$ 350 billion. As many as 14 tech startups are expected to list in 2024. The fintech sector is poised to generate the largest number of future unicorns in India. With India presently having the third-largest unicorn base in the world. The government is also focusing on renewable sources by achieving 40% of its energy from non-fossil sources by 2030. India is committed to achieving the country's ambition of Net Zero Emissions by 2070 through a five-pronged strategy, 'Panchamrit'. Moreover, India ranked 3rd in the renewable energy country attractiveness index.

According to the McKinsey Global Institute, India's economy is expected to grow by 6.4 percent in 2025 and 2026 (IMF, 2025). The net employment rate needs to grow by 1.5% per annum from 2023 to 2030 to achieve 8-8.5% GDP growth between same time periods. India's Current Account Deficit (CAD) narrowed to 0.7% of GDP in FY24. The CAD stood at Rs. 96,790 crore (US$ 11.2 billion) for Q2 of FY25 from Rs. 97,655 crore (US$ 11.3 billion) in Q2 of FY24 or 1.3% of GDP. This was largely due to a decrease in merchandise trade deficit.

Exports fared remarkably well during the pandemic and aided recovery when all other growth engines were losing steam in terms of their contribution to GDP. Going forward, the contribution of merchandise exports may waver as several of India's trade partners witness an economic slowdown. According to Minister of Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Textiles Mr. Piyush Goyal, Indian exports are expected to reach US$ 1 trillion by 2030.

Recent Developments

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With an improvement in the economic scenario and the Indian economy recovering from the Covid-19 pandemic shock, several investments and developments have been made across various sectors of the economy. According to World Bank, India's economy is expected to grow by 6.4 percent in 2025 and 2026 (IMF, 2025). In view of this, there have been some developments that have taken place in the recent past. Some of them are mentioned below.

- According to HSBC Flash India PMI report, business activity surged in April to its highest level in about 14 years as well as sustained robust demand. The composite index reached 62.2, indicating continuous expansion since August 2021, alongside positive job growth and decreased input inflation, affirming India's status as the fastest-growing major economy.
- As of January 10, 2025, India's foreign exchange reserves stood at Rs. 53,80,402 crore (US$ 625.871 billion).

Government Initiatives

- Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The India's economy is expected to grow by 6.4 percent in 2025 and 2026 (IMF, 2025). Over recent decades, India's economy is expected to grow by 6.4 percent in 2025 and 2026 (IMF, 2025). Besides this, a number of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, is aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. In this regard, some of the initiatives taken by the government to improve the economic condition of the country are mentioned below:

- To enhance India's manufacturing capabilities by increasing investment and production in the sector, the government of India has introduced the Production Linked Incentive Scheme (PLI) for Pharmaceuticals.

Road Ahead

- India's economy is expected to grow by 6.4 percent in 2025 and 2026 (IMF, 2025). India's economy is expected to grow by 6.4 percent in 2025 and 2026 (IMF, 2025).39% in merchandise exports and a 29.82% growth in service exports till April 2023. With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored. The CPI-C inflation reduction from June 2022 already reflects the impact. In September 2023 (Provisional), CPI-C inflation was 5.02%, down from 7.01% in June 2022. With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

Segment Analysis

By Infrastructure Segment: Transportation Leads Dual Growth

Transportation contributed USD 1.41 trillion to the 2025 infrastructure sector market size and retained a dominant 36.78% infrastructure sector market share in 2024. The segment's 8.12% CAGR outlook points to robust demand for rail electrification, airport expansions, and smart-highway networks. Belt and Road spine corridors, India's mega-metro build-outs, and the United States' USD 66 billion rail modernization allocation collectively ensure multi-year backlogs. Rolling-stock OEMs and signalling providers are embedding 5-G connectivity and AI-based traffic-optimization software, reinforcing digital-twin adoption across asset lifecycles. Ports are another growth node as shipping alliances push for automated berths that handle 24,000 TEU vessels. Regulatory harmonization under the EU Trans-European Transport Networks framework adds visibility to long-lead concessions, enticing pension-fund co-investments and thereby enlarging the infrastructure sector market.

Utilities infrastructure posted mid-single-digit gains in 2025 as grid reinforcement and renewables-integration projects accelerated. Social infrastructure followed, buoyed by demographic shifts demanding hospitals, schools, and elderly-care facilities. Energy-extraction assets saw mixed performance; conventional hydrocarbons tapered, yet hydrogen and CCUS infrastructure offset part of the decline. Overall, transportation remains the paramount driver of capacity additions and technology diffusion within the infrastructure sector industry.

Infrastructure Sector Market: Market Share by Infrastructure Segment, 2024

Competitive Landscape

The global infrastructure sector market is moderately fragmented. The five largest Chinese state-owned enterprises generated a combined USD 1.3 trillion in 2024 revenue, capitalizing on domestic scale and export financing channels. VINCI lifted turnover to EUR 71.6 billion in 2024, with 58% sourced abroad, illustrating a deliberate pivot toward geographic diversification. ACS Group unveiled a 2024-2026 strategic plan targeting EUR 1 billion attributable profit by 2026, predicated on concessions, renewables EPC, and digital-engineering capability upgrades. On the technology front, contractors integrating AI-driven scheduling, robotics, and predictive analytics are capturing margin-accretive work. The A4CSEL automated platform, deployed on Japan's Naruse Dam, doubled productivity benchmarks, validating the commercial upside of advanced automation.

Strategic positioning now falls into three broad camps. Chinese majors leverage cost leadership, vertically integrated supply chains, and sovereign credit lines. Western multinationals pursue technology-weighted differentiation and concessions development. Mid-tier regional players focus on niche expertise such as renewable-generation balance-of-plant or deep-tunnel drainage and often partner upstream to access mega-project opportunities. White-space opportunities include hydrogen transmission, digital-twin software-as-a-service, and modular, factory-built bridge spans. Barriers to entry technical, financial, and regulatory continue to rise, rewarding firms that can blend traditional engineering prowess with data-centric capabilities, thus reinforcing scale advantages within the infrastructure sector industry.

INDIAN INFRASTRUCTURE INDUSTRY

Introduction

Infrastructure is a key enabler in helping India become a US$ 26 trillion economy. Investments in building and upgrading physical infrastructure, especially in synergy with the ease of doing business initiatives, remain pivotal to increase efficiency and costs. Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi also recently reiterated that infrastructure is a crucial pillar to ensure good governance across sectors.

The government's focus on building infrastructure of the future has been evident given the slew of initiatives launched recently. The US$ 1.3 trillion national master plan for infrastructure, Gati Shakti, has been a forerunner bringing about systemic and effective reforms in the sector, and has already shown a significant headway.

Infrastructure support to the nation's manufacturers also remains one of the top agendas as it will significantly transform goods and exports movement making freight delivery effective and economical.

The "Smart Cities Mission" and "Housing for All" programmes have benefited from these initiatives. Saudi Arabia seeks to spend up to US$ 100 billion in India in energy, petrochemicals, refinery, infrastructure, agriculture, minerals, and mining.

The infrastructure sector is a key driver of the Indian economy. The sector is highly responsible for propelling India's overall development and enjoys intense focus from the Government for initiating policies that would ensure the time-bound creation of world-class infrastructure in the country. The infrastructure sector includes power, bridges, dams, roads, and urban infrastructure development. In other words, the infrastructure sector acts as a catalyst for India's economic growth as it drives the growth of the allied sectors like townships, housing, built-up infrastructure, and construction development projects.

To meet India's aim of reaching a US$ 5 trillion economy by 2025, infrastructure development is the need of the hour. The government has launched the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP) combined with other initiatives such as 'Make in India' and the production-linked incentives (PLI) scheme to augment the growth of the infrastructure sector. Historically, more than 80% of the country's infrastructure spending has gone toward funding for transportation, electricity, and water, and irrigation.

While these sectors still remain the key focus, the government has also started to focus on other sectors as India's environment and demographics are evolving. There is a compelling need for enhanced and improved delivery across the whole infrastructure spectrum, from housing provision to water and sanitation services to digital and transportation demands, which will assure economic growth, increase quality of life, and boost sectoral competitiveness.

Market Size

Starting with 6,835 projects, the NIP project count now stands at 9,142 covering 34 sub-sectors, as per news reports. Under the initiative, 2,476 projects are under the development phase with an estimated investment of US$ 1.9 trillion. Nearly half of the under-development projects are in the transportation sector, and 3,906 are in the roads and bridges sub-sector.

During FY24, Total revenue of Indian Railways stands at US$ 28.89 billion (Rs 2.40 Lakh crore) as on 15th March. Last year on 15th March, total Revenue was US$ 26.84 billion (Rs 2.23 Lakh crore).

The India Residential Real Estate Market size is estimated at Rs. 2,439,381 crore (US$ 283.55 billion) in 2025 and is expected to reach Rs. 73,76,212 crore (US$ 857.40 billion) by 2030, at a CAGR of 24.77%.

India's ranking in the World Bank's Logistics Performance Index improved by six spots, moving from 44th in 2018 to 38th out of 139 countries in 2023. India intends to raise its ranking in the Logistics Performance Index to 25 and bring down the logistics cost from 14% to 8% of GDP, leading to a reduction of approximately 40%, within the next five years.

In December 2022, AAI and other Airport Developers have targeted capital outlay of approximately Rs. 98,000 crore (US$ 11.8 billion) in airport sector in the next five years for expansion and modification of existing terminals, new terminals and strengthening of runways, among other activities.

India currently has the fifth-largest metro network in the world and will soon overtake advanced economies such as Japan and South Korea to become the third-largest network. Metro rail network reached 810 kms and is operational in 20 cities.

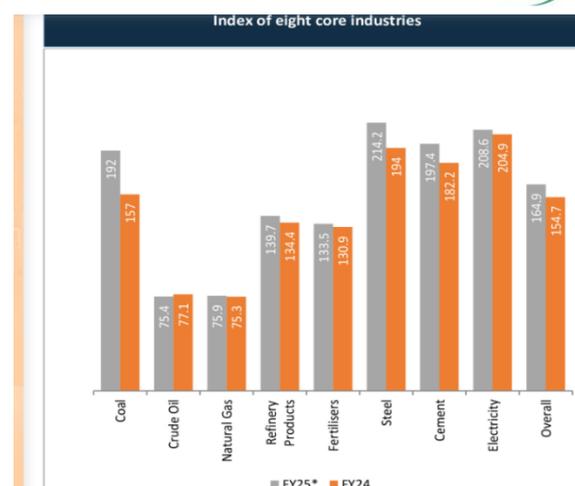

In the last 10 years, 697 km have been added to Metro Rail Network across the country. In 2024, about 945 km of metro rail lines are operational in 21 cities and 919 km is under construction in 26 different cities

At almost 20 kms, Mumbai monorail is the third largest route in the world after China with 98 kms and Japan with 28 kms.

Indian logistics market is estimated to touch US$ 320 billion by 2025. The overall infrastructure CAPEX is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 11.4% over 2021-26 driven by spending on water supply, transport, and urban infrastructure. Investment in infrastructure contributed around 5% of the GDP in the tenth five-year plan as against 9% in the eleventh five-year plan. Further, US$ 1 trillion investment in infrastructure was proposed by the India's planning commission during the 12th five-year plan, with 40% of the funds coming from the private sector.

Of this, MMLPs at 15 prioritized locations will be developed with a total investment of about Rs. 22,000 crore (US$ 2.6 billion).

Road Ahead

With a 37% increase in the current fiscal year, capital expenditures (CAPEX) are on the rise, which bolsters ongoing infrastructure development and fits with 2027 goals for India's economic growth to become a US$ 5 trillion economy. In order to anticipate private sector investment and to address employment and consumption in rural India, the budget places a strong emphasis on the development of roads, shipping, and railways.

Global investment and partnerships in infrastructure, such as the India-Japan forum for development in the Northeast are also indicative of more investments. These initiatives come at a momentous juncture as the country aims for self-reliance in future-ready and sustainable critical infrastructure.

India, it is estimated, needs to invest US$ 840 billion over the next 15 years into urban infrastructure to meet the needs of its fast-growing population. This investment will only be rational as well as sustainable, if we additionally focus on long-term maintenance and strength of our buildings, bridges, ports, and airports.

As a result of digitalisation and opportunities that tier II and III cities present for economic growth, the divide between metro and non-metros is blurring, moving to the new era of infrastructure growth. Commercial real estate properties have witnessed exponential growth in demand across Tier II & III cities as Information technology and Information technology enabled services and banking financial services and insurance focused organizations are increasingly decentralizing their operations to adapt to the new normal.

Civil Aviation Ministry's "Vision 2040" report states that there will be 190-200 functioning airports in India by 2040. Delhi and Mumbai will have three international airports each, while top 31 Indian cities will have two operational airports each.

220 destinations (airports/heliports/water aerodromes) under UDAN are targeted to be completed by 2026 with 1000 routes to provide air connectivity to unconnected destinations in India.

India's Infrastructure forms an integral part of the country's economic ecosystem. There has been a significant shift in the industry that is leading to the development of world-class facilities across the country in the areas of roads, waterways, railways, airports, and ports, among others. The country-wide smart cities programmes have proven to be industry game-changers. Given its critical role in the growth of the nation, the infrastructure sector has experienced a tremendous boom because of India's necessity and desire for rapid development. The expansion has been aided by urbanisation and an increase in foreign investment in the sector.

The infrastructure sector has become the biggest focus area for the Government of India. India's GDP is expected to grow by 8% over the next three fiscal years, one of the quickest rates among major, developing economies, according to S&P Global Ratings. India and Japan have joined hands for infrastructure development in India's Northeast states and are also setting up an India-Japan Coordination Forum for development of Northeast to undertake strategic infrastructure projects for the region.

India being a developing nation is set to take full advantage of the opportunity for the expansion of the infrastructure sector, and it is reasonable to conclude that India's infrastructure has a bright future ahead of it.

CHALLENGES TO INDIAN INFRASTRUCTURE INDUSTRY

Private Sector Capacity

The private sector has a big role to play in infrastructure, but often they are not able to handle massive projects and don't hold the capacity to manage the massive size of projects.

Political and Regulatory Risks

The infrastructure sector projects lifecycle involves various approvals across stages, from pre-tendering to post-construction. Governments can be tricky when it comes to quickly operating the projects. If the community opposes an investment or the rules change midway, it can cause obstacles or can restrain development. In India, the government not paying what it promised is a big worry for investors.

Land Acquisition

Land is a sensitive topic, and acquiring it for big projects can be a real drill. Farmers and local communities often resist when their land is taken for projects. And if the process isn't smooth and fair, investors might not even bother bidding in the first place. Large projects like roads and energy facilities can take a long time to start because of this.

Environmental Impact Assessment

Protecting the environment is important, but it can also slow things down. The rules are always changing, and new projects have to follow the latest standards, even if they're already underway. It's a tricky balance to strike.

Access to Financing

Infrastructure projects take a long time to pay off, and that's not always easy for investors and lenders to stomach. After the global financial crisis, it became harder to get long-term loans, even in India.

Market Overview

India Roads and Highways Market was valued at USD 152.16 Billion in 2024 and is expected to reach USD 266.60 Billion by 2030 with a CAGR of 9.63% during the forecast period.

Roads and highways are essential infrastructure that facilitate the movement of people, goods, and services. A road is a paved or unpaved route connecting different locations, typically used by vehicles, pedestrians, and cyclists. Roads vary in size and function, ranging from narrow rural paths to wide urban streets.

Highways, on the other hand, are major roads designed for high-speed travel and long-distance transportation. They often have multiple lanes, controlled access points, and higher safety standards to accommodate heavy traffic. Highways can be categorized into expressways, freeways, and motorways, depending on their design and regulations.

Both roads and highways are crucial for economic growth, social connectivity, and regional development. They support trade, tourism, and emergency services while also influencing urban planning and land use. Governments and transportation agencies are responsible for constructing, maintaining, and upgrading these networks to ensure safety and efficiency.

Advancements in technology have led to the development of smart roads and intelligent transportation systems, improving traffic management and sustainability. As urbanization increases, expanding and modernizing road networks remain a priority to enhance mobility and reduce congestion. Well-planned roads and highways contribute to a more connected and prosperous society.

For instance, Union Minister of Road Transport & Highways Mr. Nitin Gadkari has unveiled over 200 projects totaling USD 14.97 billion earmarked for the next five years under the National Ropeways Development Programme known as "Parvatmala Pariyojana".

The Government aims to construct 65,000 kms of national highways at a cost of USD 64.17 billion.

A network of 35 Multimodal Logistics Parks are planned to be developed as part of Bharatmala Pariyojana, with a total investment of about USD 5.55 billion, which can handle around 700 MMT of cargo.

Key Market Drivers

Rising Urbanization and Population Growth

India's rapid urbanization and growing population have significantly increased the demand for well-developed roads and highways. The country's urban population is projected to reach 600 million by 2030, leading to higher vehicular movement, congestion, and the need for better road infrastructure.

Urban centers are expanding, and cities are integrating with surrounding suburban areas, necessitating improved connectivity. The rise of smart cities under the Smart Cities Mission has further fuelled the demand for modern road networks, flyovers, and expressways to support efficient transportation.

With higher disposable incomes and increasing vehicle ownership, there is a surge in private and commercial vehicle traffic. This trend has led to congestion in existing roads, pushing authorities to construct multi-lane highways, bypasses, and ring roads. Additionally, increased industrialization and the expansion of logistics hubs require seamless road connectivity to transport goods efficiently. The demand for better infrastructure is particularly high in Tier-2 and Tier-3 cities, which are witnessing rapid development.

To address urban mobility challenges, the government and private players are investing in metro connectivity, bus rapid transit systems (BRTS), and expressway projects. These developments are essential to accommodate India's expanding urban population while reducing congestion and travel time.

Growth of Logistics and E-Commerce Industry

The rise of India's logistics and e-commerce sectors is a key driver for road and highway infrastructure development. With India emerging as a global trade hub, a well-connected road network is essential for the smooth transportation of goods across states and regions.

The logistics sector has witnessed significant growth due to increasing trade, industrial expansion, and government policies like GST (Goods and Services Tax), which has streamlined interstate movement. A robust road network ensures timely deliveries, reducing costs for businesses and boosting overall efficiency.

India's e-commerce boom, driven by platforms like Amazon, Flipkart, and Reliance JioMart, has increased the demand for efficient road connectivity. Faster delivery timelines and expanding consumer bases require better last-mile connectivity, pushing for better roads in urban and rural areas. Additionally, the rise of third-party logistics (3PL) providers and warehousing hubs has fuelled the need for expressways and highways. Companies are now investing in strategic warehouse locations near major highway corridors to ensure seamless distribution.

The government's focus on developing dedicated freight corridors and multi-modal logistics parks is further strengthening the transportation ecosystem. Enhanced road connectivity reduces logistics costs and makes India more competitive in global trade, supporting economic growth.

Technological Advancements and Sustainability Measures

The adoption of technology and sustainable practices is shaping the future of India's roads and highways sector. With increasing concerns about environmental impact and traffic management, innovative solutions are being implemented to improve road infrastructure.

One of the major developments is the introduction of smart highways equipped with intelligent traffic management systems (ITMS), digital toll collection (FASTag), and automated surveillance for better traffic regulation. These technologies help in reducing congestion, improving safety, and enhancing road user experience.

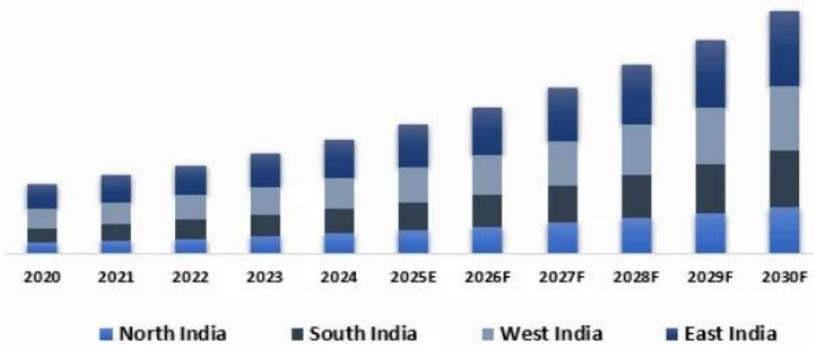

Sustainability is also a major focus, with the government promoting eco-friendly road construction materials and techniques. The use of recycled materials, plastic waste in road construction, and energy-efficient lighting systems is gaining traction. Several highway projects are now incorporating solar-powered streetlights and electric vehicle (EV) charging stations, aligning with India's green mobility goals. Additionally, the push for electric vehicles (EVs) and alternative fuel infrastructure is driving highway modernization. The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) is planning to develop dedicated EV lanes and charging corridors to support the growing number of electric vehicles on the roads.

With the integration of Artificial Intelligence (AI), IoT (Internet of Things), and Geographic Information Systems (GIS), India's road infrastructure is becoming more efficient, sustainable, and future-ready. These advancements ensure better road safety, reduced travel time, and enhanced environmental conservation.

India Roads and Highways Market

India Roads and Highways Market Size, By Region, By Value, 2020-2030F

Land Acquisition and Environmental Concerns

One of the most significant challenges in India's roads and highways sector is land acquisition, which often leads to project delays, cost overruns, and legal disputes. Acquiring land for road expansion or new highway construction involves negotiations with landowners, government agencies, and local communities. Many infrastructure projects face resistance from people unwilling to give up their land due to concerns over compensation, displacement, and loss of livelihood.

The Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act (2013) has made the process more structured, but challenges persist. Landowners often demand higher compensation, leading to prolonged negotiations and legal battles. Additionally, encroachments and informal settlements on proposed project sites further complicate land acquisition.

Another major issue is environmental clearance. Many highway projects pass through ecologically sensitive areas, including forests, wildlife habitats, and agricultural lands. Obtaining environmental approvals from multiple regulatory bodies can be time-consuming, delaying the start of construction. Concerns about deforestation, water pollution, and disruption to local biodiversity often lead to public opposition and legal interventions.

To address these issues, the government has introduced policy reforms, including faster approvals, alternative land acquisition models, and compensation packages for displaced communities. Additionally, the use of elevated corridors, tunnels, and green highway initiatives is being encouraged to minimize environmental impact. However, balancing infrastructure development with ecological conservation remains a key challenge.

Poor Road Maintenance and Traffic Congestion

While India has made significant progress in building roads and highways, maintenance and upkeep remain a critical challenge. Many roads, especially in rural and semi-urban areas, suffer from poor quality due to inadequate maintenance, lack of proper drainage systems, and substandard construction materials. Potholes, uneven surfaces, and broken roads not only cause inconvenience but also increase vehicle operating costs and accident risks.

India's road infrastructure faces an increasing burden due to rapid urbanization and rising vehicle numbers, leading to severe traffic congestion in cities and on highways. The number of registered vehicles has surged in recent years, but road expansion has not kept pace, resulting in traffic bottlenecks, longer commute times, and higher pollution levels. Major metropolitan cities like Delhi, Mumbai, Bengaluru, and Kolkata experience daily congestion, impacting productivity and fuel efficiency.

Another issue is inefficient traffic management and enforcement. Poorly designed road junctions, inadequate signage, and weak enforcement of traffic laws contribute to chaotic driving conditions. The lack of intelligent traffic systems (ITS), synchronized signals, and well-planned public transport alternatives exacerbates congestion problems.

To improve road maintenance, authorities are focusing on performance-based contracts, digital monitoring, and private sector participation. For congestion reduction, solutions such as expressways, dedicated freight corridors, metro expansions, and smart traffic management systems are being implemented. However, sustained efforts and investment in long-term infrastructure planning are necessary to overcome these challenges.

Key Market Trends

Expansion of Expressways and Greenfield Projects

India is witnessing a rapid expansion of expressways and greenfield highway projects to enhance connectivity, reduce congestion, and improve transportation efficiency. Expressways, which are high-speed, access-controlled roads, are becoming a key focus area due to rising vehicular traffic and increasing demand for faster travel.

One of the most ambitious projects is the Delhi-Mumbai Expressway, which spans over 1,300 km and aims to reduce travel time between the two major cities from 24 hours to 12 hours. Other major expressway projects include the Bengaluru-Chennai Expressway, Ganga Expressway, and Ahmedabad-Dholera Expressway, among others. These projects are designed with advanced features such as automated toll collection, emergency response systems, and dedicated corridors for electric vehicles. Additionally, greenfield highway projects are gaining traction. Unlike traditional road expansion projects, greenfield highways are built on entirely new alignments, reducing construction disruptions and optimizing route efficiency. The Bharatmala Pariyojana is a prime example, as it focuses on constructing new highways and economic corridors to boost trade and logistics.

With the government promoting public-private partnerships (PPP) and hybrid annuity models (HAM), private investors are increasingly participating in expressway projects, making this trend a major driver of India's road infrastructure growth.

Segmental Insights

Road Type Insights

National/Interstate Highways held the largest market share in 2024. National and Interstate Highways dominate India's roads and highways market due to their strategic importance, high traffic volume, and strong government investment. These highways form the backbone of the country's transportation network, enabling seamless movement of goods, passengers, and economic activities across states.

Despite covering only 2% of India's total road network, National Highways carry over 40% of total road traffic. They connect major cities, ports, industrial hubs, and logistics centers, making them essential for trade and commerce. The rapid growth of e-commerce, logistics, and freight movement has further increased reliance on National Highways for efficient transportation.

The Indian government prioritizes the expansion and modernization of National Highways through initiatives like Bharatmala Pariyojana, aimed at developing economic corridors, expressways, and border roads. Large-scale investments under the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP) and public-private partnerships (PPP) have accelerated highway construction. Additionally, the National Highway Development Project (NHDP) has played a key role in upgrading existing roads.

National Highways feature wider lanes, better pavement quality, digital toll collection (FASTag), and intelligent traffic management systems (ITMS). The government is also integrating electric vehicle (EV) charging stations, solar-powered lighting, and smart surveillance systems, making these highways more efficient and sustainable.

2. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the results of operations during the reporting periods. - Regulatory Changes: We operate in sectors that are regulated by national, state, and local governments. Changes in regulations could affect our operational flexibility, cost structures, or compliance requirements.
- India’s Sovereign Credit Rating: Any downgrade in India's debt rating by international or domestic agencies could increase borrowing costs and adversely affect investor confidence, leading to financial instability.

PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UNIFIED PAYMENTS INTERFACE

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI will be introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by RIIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a. Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a individual investor who applies for minimum application size, besides the modes of Bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be three Working Days.

- b. Phase II: This phase commenced on completion of Phase I i.e. with effect from July 1, 2019 and was to be continued for a period of three months or launch of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Further, as per the SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019, the UPI Phase II has been extended until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount be continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the Application Form by a individual investor who applies for minimum application size through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be three working days during this phase.
- c. Phase III: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023, and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 ("T+3 Notification"). In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues are required to provide a facility to make applications using the UPI Mechanism. Further, in accordance with the UPI Circulars, our Company has appointed HDFC Bank Limited as the Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the individual investor who applies for minimum application size into the UPI mechanism.

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Offer BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

SEBI through its circular (SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/45) dated April 5, 2022, has prescribed that all individual investors applying in initial public offerings opening on or after May 1, 2022, where the application amount is up to Rs. 5,00,000, shall use UPI. Individual investors bidding under the Non-Institutional Portion bidding for more than Rs. 200,000 and up to Rs. 5,00,000, using the UPI Mechanism, shall provide their UPI ID in the Bid-cum-Application Form for Bidding through Syndicate, sub-syndicate members, Registered Brokers, RTAs or CDPs, or online using the facility of linked online trading, demat and bank account (3 in 1 type accounts), provided by certain brokers.
