Commenting on the company's performance, Mr. Onkar Kanwar, Chairman, Artemis Medicare Services Ltd said "We are pleased with our performance in the final quarter of FY26, which reflects steady progress and consistent execution across our operations. The year has been marked by sustained growth, improving profitability, and continued focus on delivering high-quality clinical outcomes and patient experience.

Our flagship Gurugram facility remained a key driver of performance, supported by a strong case mix, stable occupancy, and growing contribution from international patients. This underscores our positioning in high-acuity care and our continued strength in the Medical Value Travel segment."

Dr. Devlina Chakravarty, Managing Director, Artemis Medicare Services Ltd mentioned "Operational discipline and ongoing efficiency initiatives have supported improved profitability during the year, while ensuring that patient care and clinical outcomes remain at the core of our approach.

On the expansion front, we are making good progress on our upcoming Raipur facility, which represents an important step in extending our presence into new, high-growth markets.

Going ahead, we will continue to focus on strengthening our clinical capabilities, enhancing operational efficiencies, and pursuing calibrated expansion, with the objective of building a resilient and future-ready healthcare platform."
