15. The voting rights of shareholders shall be in proportion to their shares of the paid-up equity share capital of the Company as on the cut-off date (record date) of Friday, 18th September, 2026.
16. Voting through electronic means:
In compliance with the provisions of Section 108 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule 20 of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014, the Company provides members facility to exercise their right to vote at the 28th Annual General Meeting (AGM) by electronic means and the businesses may be transacted through e-Voting Services provided by Central Depository Services (India) Ltd (CDSL).

The instructions for shareholders voting electronically are as under:

- (i) The voting period begins on Sunday 27th September 2026 at 09.00 a.m. and ends on Tuesday 29th September 2026 at 05.00 p.m. During this period Shareholders of the Company, holding shares either in physical form or in dematerialized form, as on the cut-off date (record date) of Friday, 18th September, 2026 may cast their vote electronically. The e-voting module shall be disabled by CDSL for voting thereafter.
- (ii) Shareholders who have already voted prior to the meeting date would not be entitled to vote at the meeting venue.
- (iii) Pursuant to SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/CMD/CIR/P/2020/242 dated 09th December, 2020 under Regulation 44 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, listed entities are required to provide remote e-voting facility to its shareholders, in respect of all shareholders' resolutions. However, it has been observed that the participation by the public non-institutional shareholders/retail shareholders is at a negligible level.

Currently, there are multiple e-voting service providers (ESPs) providing e-voting facility to listed entities in India. This necessitates registration on various ESPs and maintenance of multiple user IDs and passwords by the shareholders.

In order to increase the efficiency of the voting process, pursuant to a public consultation, it has been decided to enable e-voting to all the demat account holders, by way of a single login credential, through their demat accounts/ websites of Depositories/ Depository Participants. Demat account holders would be able to cast their vote without having to register again with the ESPs, thereby, not only facilitating seamless authentication but also enhancing ease and convenience of participating in e-voting process.

- (iv) In terms of SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/CMD/CIR/P/2020/242 dated December 9, 2020 on e-Voting facility provided by Listed Companies, Individual shareholders holding securities in demat mode are allowed to vote through their demat account maintained with Depositories and Depository Participants. Shareholders are advised to update their mobile number and email Id in their demat accounts in order to access e-Voting facility.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT

The Management Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) Report provides an overview of Super Fine Knitters Limited's ("the Company") operational environment, prevailing industry dynamics, key strategic initiatives, financial performance, and future outlook for the financial year ended March 31, 2026.

ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS ENVIRONMENTGLOBAL ECONOMY

The global textile and apparel industry continued to operate in an environment characterised by evolving consumer demand, fluctuations in input costs and trade-related challenges during FY 2025–26. Against this backdrop, India's textile and apparel sector demonstrated resilience, with exports of textiles and apparel, including handicrafts, reaching ₹3,25,339 crore during FY 2025–26, compared with ₹3,19,573.2 crore in FY 2024–25, representing growth of 1.8%. The sector recorded export growth across more than 100 destinations during the year. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB, 21 July 2026).

INDIAN ECONOMY

India's textile and apparel exports, including handicrafts, have also shown sustained growth over the medium term, increasing from ₹2,97,004 crore in FY 2023–24 to ₹3,25,339 crore in FY 2025–26, representing a CAGR of approximately 4.7%. Ready-made garments remained the largest export category at ₹1,39,350 crore in FY 2025–26, while cotton textiles and man-made textiles contributed ₹1,02,427 crore and ₹46,254 crore, respectively. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB, 28 July 2026; DGCIS provisional data)

INDUSTRY STRUCTUREEXPORT AND INTERNATIONAL MARKET ENVIRONMENT

The international market environment remains relevant to the Indian textile and apparel sector. India's textile and apparel exports, including handicrafts, reached ₹3,25,339 crore in FY 2025–26, with growth recorded across more than 100 export destinations. This indicates continued international demand for Indian textile and apparel products.

(Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB; DGCIS provisional data.)

For FY 2025–26, ready-made garments remained India's largest textile and apparel export category, with exports of ₹1,39,350 crore. Cotton textiles accounted for ₹1,02,427 crore and man-made textiles accounted for ₹46,254 crore. The performance of these categories remains relevant to the broader market environment in which manufacturers of knitted fabrics and garments operate. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB; DGCIS provisional data.)

INDIAN MARKET OVERVIEW

The Indian textile and apparel industry remains an important manufacturing and export sector, supported by an established textile value chain and a diversified product base. During FY 2025–26, India's textile and apparel exports excluding handicrafts amounted to ₹3,09,484 crore, while exports including handicrafts stood at ₹3,25,339 crore. The data indicates continued demand for Indian textile products across international markets despite fluctuations in global demand and input costs. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB; DGCIS provisional data)

India's textile and apparel exports recorded growth in more than 100 countries during FY 2025–26. Among the major markets, exports including handicrafts to the United Kingdom increased to ₹19,652 crore, Germany to ₹13,200 crore, the Netherlands to ₹10,461 crore, Spain to ₹9,651 crore, France to ₹9,074 crore and Italy to ₹7,407 crore. Exports to the United States stood at ₹85,910 crore. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB; DGCIS provisional data)

The policy environment for the sector continues to focus on enhancing manufacturing capabilities, value addition and export competitiveness. Government initiatives include the PM Mega Integrated Textile Regions and Apparel Parks (PM MITRA) Scheme, Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme for Textiles, National Technical Textiles Mission, SAMARTH, RoSCTL, RoDTEP, Export Promotion Mission and the Credit Guarantee Scheme for Exporters. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB, 21 July and 28 July 2026)

COMPANY OVERVIEW & ROLE

Super Fine Knitters Limited is engaged in the business of manufacturing knitted fabrics and garments., which remains competitive yet promising, given India's cost advantages, skilled workforce, and government initiatives such as PLI schemes, GST rationalisation, and export incentives. The Company is a supplier of knitting fabrics to large export companies involved in manufacturing knitted garments in India and supplies fabrics and garments to national and international brands.

The Company's product and manufacturing profile includes knitted fabrics ranging from 100% cotton to cotton Lycra, mercerized to plain and washed to overdyed and other blended fabrics. The outlook for the textile industry remains positive in the medium to long term, supported by strong domestic consumption, rising exports, and increasing demand for sustainable and quality fabrics. The Company aims to strengthen its presence in markets through product diversification, capacity enhancement, and customer-focused strategies.

The Company also has a laboratory equipped for testing and uses fabric dyeing houses under contract.

OPPORTUNITIES & RISKS

OPPORTUNITIES

- Growing Export Opportunities: Continued growth in India's textile and apparel exports, with exports reaching ₹3,25,339 crore in FY 2025–26 and growth recorded across more than 100 destinations, presents opportunities for manufacturers across the domestic and international textile value chain. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB)
- Government Policy Support: Government initiatives focused on integrated textile infrastructure, manufacturing competitiveness, technical textiles, skill development and export promotion provide a supportive policy environment for the sector.
- Key Government Schemes: Initiatives including PM MITRA, PLI for Textiles, National Technical Textiles Mission and SAMARTH are aimed at strengthening manufacturing capabilities and enhancing competitiveness across the textile value chain. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB)
- Company's Product Portfolio: The Company's established presence in knitted fabrics and garments provides a platform to participate in the broader growth opportunities emerging across the textile and apparel sector.

THREATS:

- Volatility in raw material prices (cotton, yarn, dyes).
- Intense domestic and international competition.
- Global economic uncertainties and changing trade policies.
- Rising labour and compliance costs.

RISKS & CHALLENGES

- Global Demand Volatility: The textile and apparel sector remains exposed to fluctuations in global demand, which may influence market conditions and business opportunities. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB, 21 July 2026.)
- Input Cost Volatility: Variations in raw-material and other input costs may impact the economics and profitability of textile manufacturing, requiring continued cost and operational discipline. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB.)
- Trade and Geopolitical Developments: Changes in international trade policies, tariffs and geopolitical conditions may influence export opportunities and market access.
- International Market Exposure: India's textile and apparel exports are spread across major markets including the United States, United Kingdom, UAE, Germany, Netherlands, Spain,

France and Italy. Changes in demand or trade conditions in these markets may affect the broader industry outlook. (Ministry of Textiles, Government of India / PIB; DGCIS provisional data.)

- Competitive Environment: Increasing competition in domestic and international textile markets may require manufacturers to maintain product quality, cost efficiency and responsiveness to changing customer requirements.

STRATEGIC OUTLOOK

The Company's stated presence in knitted fabrics and garments provides alignment with the broader textile and apparel value chain. The Company has indicated its objective of strengthening its position as a manufacturer and exporter of knitted fabrics and garments to enhance competitiveness through digitalization and process automation. Focus on high-margin niche products and sustainable fabrics. Strengthen global reach by aligning with ESG-focused international retailers. Maintain financial prudence while pursuing growth opportunities under government-backed textile reforms.

ADEQUACY OF INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS

The Company has established a robust internal control framework designed to ensure:

- Accuracy and reliability of financial reporting.
- Compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and internal policies.
- Safeguarding of assets against unauthorized use or losses.
- Efficient operations through standardized processes and accountability.

The internal control systems are commensurate with the size and nature of the Company's business operations. These controls are reviewed periodically by management, and any deviations are promptly addressed. An independent Internal Audit team, reporting directly to the Audit Committee of the Board, evaluates the adequacy and effectiveness of internal controls across various functions. The Audit Committee regularly reviews audit findings and monitors the implementation of recommendations. This process ensures a culture of continuous improvement and strengthens the governance framework. The Company also leverages technology-enabled monitoring tools and automation in processes to enhance transparency, reduce operational risks, and improve overall efficiency.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF
SUPER FINE KNITTERS LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Super Fine Knitters Limited, which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2026, the Statement of Profit and Loss and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the company as at 31 March 2026, and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the with the accounting principles generally accepted in India.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013, with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation, and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by section 143(3) of the Act, we report that:
 - a. We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit.

b. In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the company so far as it appears from our examination of those books, except for the non-activation of the audit trail in the accounting software.

c. The Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss, and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account.

d. In our opinion, the aforesaid financial statements comply with the Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act.

e. On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on 31 March 2026, taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors are disqualified as on 31 March 2026 from being appointed as a director in terms of section 164(2) of the Act.

f. With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in "Annexure A".

g. With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with the Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

i. The company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its financial statements;

ii. The company did not have any long-term contracts including derivative contracts for which there were any material foreseeable losses;

iii. There were no amounts which were required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the company.

iv. With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 (g) of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, Based on our examination which included test checks, the company has used an accounting software for maintaining its books of account which has a feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility and the same has operated from 1st April 2024 onwards and after that operated throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. Further, during the course of our audit we did not come across any instance of audit trail feature being tampered with.

2. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2020 ("the Order") issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (11) of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013, we give in the "Annexure B" a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order, to the extent applicable.

"Annexure A" to the Independent Auditor's Report of even date on the Financial Statements of SUPER FINE KNITTERS LIMITED

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of SUPER FINE KNITTERS LIMITED ("The Company") as of March 31, 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence amount the adequacy of the internal financial control system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend upon on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
